

"80, THE IRISH CAN'T COLONIZE"

The Hebrew Relief and Aid Society, of New York, has taken steps looking to the colonization in one or more Western States of the Russian Jewish refugees, and to this end have commissioned the Secretary of the organization, Mr. Julius Goldman, to visit the West and examine into the methods and operations of the different colonization societies.

In a report which appears in a late number of the Milwaukee Sentinel, Mr. Goldman says: "The Irish Colonies are a great success. Not only are they managed in a superior manner, but the people live together very harmoniously."

"In the Russian and Meantime Colonies the very reverse is the case. In these latter Colonies, too, the people appeared to be very shiftless compared with those in the Irish Colonies."

Mr. Goldman is likely to extend his investigations, and will visit Nebraska and Arkansas in the course of his mission.

The following letter will show how the Irish in our colony in Nebraska feel concerning their present and their future prospects:

Office of T. P. Lanigan, Co. Treas., Greeley County, Nebraska, Scotia, Neb., June 24, 1882.

Wm. J. O'Connell, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir: Many thanks for a copy of your report which I have just received from you and also the paper you sent a few days since. I do not think the worth and wealth of our colony here have been at all exaggerated. The future prospects of Greeley are bright. The Irishman is now beginning to encroach upon the coveted lands of non-Catholics in this side of the County (west), and in the near future Greeley County will be a little Ireland. Everybody seems happy and contented. We, my brother and myself, seeing farming making such progress, resolved to quit the mercantile business in O'Connor, and to go farming, which we accordingly did, and located in Leo Valley, and feel well pleased with the change. Hoping the noble enterprise, which the gentlemen connected with the colony have begun, may prosper.

I am, yours respectfully, T. P. LANIGAN.

The Mission of Sorrow.

Do you know why life is so hard, why God and Heaven are so remote? Do you know why He is ever stealing out of sight, leaving our hearts no hint of His presence? It is because we are seeking our own way, are absorbed in our personal interests. It is to get the selfishness out of us that we have to be brayed in the mortar of experience. The life must be knitted upon the everlasting foundations of truth and love. Life begins with each one of us in the activity of unmitigated self-love, intent only upon pleasing ourselves and satisfying our wants. How impetuous and clamorous they are! How hardly will they brook denial. If this dear idol be withheld will the sun still shine? Shall the love, essential to life, be withdrawn, and the dreary mockery of life go on? Again and again we are ready to break with life, to throw it aside as a worthless toy. Surely, no grief was ever so poignant, no cross so hard to bear. How heartless and indifferent seems the world! And God, if there be any God, how can He bear to see us so miserable? But the grass grows green; the flowers bloom; the brook still sings on its way; the sun rises and sets; above march in a nightly procession the stars. Nature rebukes our petulance, and we come to learn that nothing vital can ever die—least of all love, which is the life of God. We grow ashamed of our littleness and self-absorption. We learn that it is more blessed to give than to receive. We learn that sorrow is one of God's veiled angels, bound upon his mission. "The kingdom of Heaven is within you," said Jesus. We need not hope to find heaven awaiting us in another world unless we take it with us. It is not so much a gift as a growth. It is in the life that now is—in the performance of its duties, in learning its lessons, in subordinating the lower to the higher, love of self to love of the neighbor; it is in getting rid of doubt and anxiety and fear, and putting in their place an unflinching trust.—Selected.

"Woman and her Diseases"

is the title of an interesting treatise (96 pages) sent, post-paid, for three stamps. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

Said Horatio Seymour to a New York reporter: "What I regard as the most admirable features of the Irish population of the United States, thus far in its development, are the purity of the Irishman, by whatever cause it is induced—attributed to their religious system or to whatever cause you please—and the degree to which it has justified the trust which American families put in the integrity and fidelity of these women. Do you ever consider how we trust them in family service, with the care of children and the care of property, and how generally they withstand temptations to breaches of the trust, which must be very powerful, owing to the position of comparative poverty in which they were reared, and which they came here to escape?"

"Do not grasp at the shadow and lose the substance?" Kidney-Wort is able to convert you from a shadow of your former self into the substance of established health. Said a sufferer from kidney trouble when asked to try Kidney-Wort for a remedy, "I'll try it, but it will be my last dose." It cured him and now he recommends it to all. If you have diseased kidneys don't fail to try it.

A Wise Precaution.

During the Summer and Fall people are liable to sudden attacks of bowel complaint, and with no prompt remedy or medical aid at hand, life may be in danger. Those whose experience has given them wisdom, always keep Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry at hand for prompt relief, and a Physician is seldom required.

Hints for Conversation.

Do not interrupt another when speaking. Do not appear to notice inaccuracy of speech in others. Do not, when narrating an incident continually say, "you see," "you know," etc.

Do not talk very loud. A firm, clear, distinct, yet mild, gentle and musical voice has greater power. Do not speak disrespectfully of personal appearances when any one present may have the same defects.

Do not try to force yourself into the confidence of others. If they give their confidence never betray it to others. Do not use vulgar terms, slang phrases, words of double meaning or language that will bring a blush to anyone.

Do not carry on conversation with another in company about matters which the general company knows nothing of. It is almost as impolite as to whisper.

Suddenly Seized.

Mr. Arthur Fisher, of the Toronto Globe observes: "On my last trip to the States, I caught a very bad cold from a severe wetting I received one night in the city of Philadelphia, which settled into a very bad case of rheumatism, and made me most miserable. I did not know what to do for it, and could not think for a long time, until I thought me, that on previous visits to that side, I had always bought for Mr. Gay, of our paper, a couple of bottles of St. Jacobs Oil. I remembered also, fortunately, that the last two bottles had cured that gentleman of the rheumatism and so I resolved to purchase St. Jacobs Oil for my own use. I went at once to a drug store and made the purchase; that very night I began applying the Oil, and in two weeks' time I was as well as ever."

Never be Without it.

Tourists and all who are subjected to a change of climate, water, diet, &c., should never be without Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, the infallible remedy for all Summer complaints.

Daughter (home from school): "Now, papa, are you satisfied? Just look at my testimonial—'political economy, satisfactory; fine arts and music, very good; logic, excellent'—'Very much so, my dear; especially as regards your future.' If your husband should understand anything of housekeeping, cooking, mending, and the use of a sewing-machine, perhaps your married life will, indeed, be happy."

FLIES, roaches, ants, bed-bugs, rats, mice, crows, chipmunks, cleared out by "Rough on Rats," 15c.

John Hays, Credit P. O., says: His shoulder was so lame for nine months that he could not raise his hand to his head, but by the use of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil the pain and lameness disappeared, and although three months have elapsed, he has not had an attack of it since."

Mr. R. W. Carmichael, Chemist and Druggist of Belleville, under date of May 31st 1882, writes as follows:—"Your Burdock Blood Bitters have a steady sale, are patronized by the best families here and surrounding country, and all attest to its virtues with unqualified satisfaction."

Mr. Parquet Boileau, Ottawa, says: "I was radically cured of piles, from which I had been suffering for over two months by the use of Thomas' Electric Oil. I used it both internally and externally, taking it in small doses before meals and on retiring to bed. In one week I was cured, and have had no trouble since. I believe it saved my life."

AT ALL SEASONS, but particularly during the winter, persons whose lungs and chests are weak should take every precaution against a cough or cold, as these breathing organs if naturally feeble speedily succumb to its ravages. In spite of sanitary precautions, however, coughs are very apt to fasten themselves upon weak lungs. In such a case ordinary prudence dictates the prompt use of a reliable specific. The ordinary cough remedies are too often inefficient. The best substitute for them is the highly sanctioned, long recognized remedy, Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of lime and soda. As it is well known the action of Cod Liver Oil is particularly marked in lung, rheumatic and strumous diseases. In this preparation it is characterized by peculiar purity. The phosphorus in the hypophosphites furnishes a vital element of the blood, brain and nerves, and the lime and soda supply their strengthening properties to the bones of which they are natural constituents, enabling the bronchiae to throw off the irritating mucus which obstructs and distresses them; restores the vitiated secretions healthy and heals the lungs. This remedy has also been used with the most beneficial effects in cases of scrofula. As it is exceedingly dangerous to permit a cough to gain headway, the early use of the medicine is urged upon those whose throat or lungs are affected. Look for the facsimile of our signature on the packages and the firm's name blown on the bottles.

By Universal Accord, AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use, by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effectual purgative. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use, and being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take. In intrinsic value and curative powers no other pills can be compared with them; and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in healthy action the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effectual, they are especially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure, if timely taken. They are the best and safest physic to employ for children and weakened constitutions, where a mild but effectual cathartic is required. For sale by all druggists.
