LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—See A. J. Sarjeant & Co's change of advt. in this week's issue.

—F. Weiler has had a neat wire fence placed around his residence on Elora st. north.

—Fall wheat and grass are looking fine at present, and if no blight comes upon it, large crops are assured.

—Nature has put on her summer garb once more and the verdent green may be seen wherever you look.

—Ever person after reading the large posters re 24th of May demonstration decide to spend that day in Mildmay.

—A. J. Sarjeant & Co. and P. Lobsinger have each had a neat new sign placed in front of their establishments.

—A. Runstettler shipped a carload of horses from Mt. Forest, also one from Kincardine for Montreal on Saturday last.

—For Sale—Two very desirable building lots on Elora street opposite the British Hotel. Apply to W. H. Holtzman. 17-22.

—Friday was Arbor day, and the students of the schools spent the day in improving the appearance of the grounds.

—Nearly all of our farmers will be through seeding this week. This has been a fine spring so far, although rather late coming in, but rain is badly needed.

—Sarjeant & Co. have made a change in the appearance of their store, having had the ceiling and wall kalsomined, and changing things about the establishment.

—If you need bill heads, letter heads, note heads, circulars, envelopes, or anything in the printing line done. Give the GAZETTE a chance. We do all kinds of work in German or English.

—While out driving the other day we called on Mr. Wm. Dickson, of the 12th con., Carrick, and had a look through his commodious stables. Mr. Dickson has some fine thoroughbred animals on his place. May be long continue to prosper.

—The directors of the Athletic Association have made arrangements with the G. T. R. by which the two evening trains will be held here. The 5:20 train will leave at 6:45, while the 9:35 train will be held until 10:15, allowing every person to take in the concert in the evening.

—Don't miss hearing the Kickapoo Medicine Concert Co. in the town hall every evening. They give a first class free exhibition each evening except Thursday and Saturday. There is nothing in their program that will offend the most fastidious person who may attend. If you go you will enjoy yourself.

—For Ladies Black and Tan Shoes, call on J. Hunstein.

—Mr. Oberly, of Walkerton, shipped a carload of export cattle to Montreal Monday.

—J. D. Kinzie left with us a hen egg that measures 7 1/4 inches in circumference. Who beats this?

—Mr. Halladay, of Howick, shipped a carload of cattle to Montreal Tuesday. They are intended for the British market.

—Geo. Cule has a nice stock of different shades of Weather Water-proof paint on hand which he wishes to dispose of.

—Louis Pletsch has had a row of maples planted in front of his residence on Peter street, adding much to the beauty of his premises.

—East Bruce Teachers' Institute meeting for 1895 will be held at Tara on Wednesday and Thursday, May 22nd and 23rd, commencing at 10 a.m.

—Tuesday afternoon we had a delightful rain which did a powerful lot of good, cleaning the dirt off the grass and bringing forth the beauties of nature in a row shade.

—Building operations are now in full swing in town. There are a large number of residences going up and this fall there should be no trouble for a tenant to secure a house.

—H. E. Liesemer has issued bills stating that he is prepared to take any quantity of wool in exchange for his fine suits made to order from some of the best stock to be had in the country.

—Mr. Bauer, of Mildmay has purchased the butchering business of Mr. Jas. Henghan. Mr. Bauer is a young man who has had considerable experience in some of the largest shops on the other side and will give satisfaction.

—Business won't come if you sit still and wait for it. Stir it up with new circulars, new posters, new price lists, new advertisements and new printed matter generally. The GAZETTE office is the proper place to get such work done.

—There is to be an exchange of volunteer companies, between Captain J. Henderson of Walkerton and Captain E. O. Swartz of this town. The exchange will suit the convenience of both and will be no doubt agreeable to the volunteers.

—Advertising is business says an exchange. Certainly it is. If it wasn't it wouldn't be a part of business. The man who cannot utilize advertising in his business generally goes out of business and concludes that he has no business to be in business.

—A shoddy pedlar has been travelling through Western Ontario, selling tweed, which he represented as the best in the market, and as a bona fide gave an address in Toronto where they could be exchanged or the money refunded if they did not prove to be as represented. The alleged place of exchange turns out to be a flour and feed store.

—The young ladies of Mildmay gave a calico hop to a number of their friends on Friday evening last in the town hall. The hall was tastefully draped with calico and trimmed off with natural flowers. There were about twenty-five couples present and all enjoyed themselves immensely. The young ladies are to be congratulated upon the very successful way in which they managed the affair.

—What's the matter with Mildmay having a street sprinkler. The cost to have the main street sprinkled two or three times a day would be a mere trifle. In fact the merchants would save a large amount of damage to their goods, if they would co-operate and purchase a sprinkler. One of these threshers tanks with a perforated lead pipes attached about two feet from the ground would answer the purpose in first-class style.

—An advertising tip. Speaking of newspaper advertising, a man who has tried it says: The newspaper is the commercial traveller in city, country, and home, who tells at the fireside to its evening circle the merits of your wares and merchandise, if you are wise enough to employ it to speak for you. It never is neglected, never goes unheeded, never speaks to inattentive or unwilling ears. It never bores. It never tires. It is always a welcome visitor and meets a cordial reception. It speaks when the days work is done, when cares vanish, when the mind, at peace and rest, is in its most receptive mood. Then it is that the story is told and all who read treasure what it says and are influenced to go where it directs for the thing of which it speaks.—Fourth Estate.

—Gentlemen's Oxfords and Dongola shoes at J. Hunstein.

—Get one of Brohman's carts, they ride easier than a buggy.

—Cryderman in Walkerton is selling beautiful parlor paper at 15c.

—The GAZETTE for the balance of the year to new subscribers for 60 cents cash.

—We have just received a new stock of baseball shoes. Call in and see them J. Hunstein.

—The Woollen mill commenced operations on Monday and by end of week will be running in full blast.

—The masons have commenced to lay the foundation for C. Liesemer new house adjoining the GAZETTE office.

—Paul Lobsinger has opened out a boot and shoe repairing shop in the stand lately occupied by the Gazette.

—Mrs. Butchart sr., accompanied by her grand-daughter Vivian, are at Paisley this week visiting with the former's sister.

—H. Keelan has had the interior of his confectionery store repainted this week, making a vast improvement in this establishment.

—The manager of the Farmer's Central Insurance Co., of Walkerton, reports an increase for the past month of near $150,000 in the amount of insurance in force.

—The Misses Beechey wish to notify the ladies of Mildmay and vicinity that they are prepared to do all kinds of dress and mantle making. Rooms—over J. J. Stiegler's store. Apprentices wanted. 16, 4 ins.

—Friday, May 24th will be celebrated by a monster day of sports in Mildmay. By referring to the large bill you will ascertain at what time each event takes place. Don't fail to be with us if you wish to celebrate her Majesty's birthday in a right loyal manner.

—It is our duty this week to chronicle the death of Mary Ann Vanmore, relict of the late R. P. Warner, aged 68 years and 8 months. Deceased who has resided for the past few months with her son George A., has been confined to her bed for several weeks. There are 2 sons and 3 daughters left to mourn his demise. The funeral took place from her late residence on Tuesday afternoon and proceeded to Balaclava cemetery where the interment was made. The bereaved friends have the sympathy of all the community in the bereavement.

—The Ottawa fisheries department has issued notices regarding the close season for fish. Bass cannot be caught or sold between May 10 and June 30th; maskinonge from April 15 to June 15; pickerel from April 15 to May 15; speckled trout from Sept 15 to May 1; salmon trout and white fish, Nov. 1 to Nov 30. The use of firearms, explosives or snares to catch or kill fish is prohibited. Persons convicted of breaking the law will be subject to a fine or imprisonment, and all informers receive half the fine imposed.

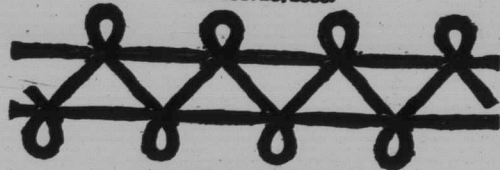

—The Kickapoo Indian Medicine and Concert Co. opened a short engagement at the Town Hall on Tuesday evening to a large and enthusiastic audience of the town and surrounding country. A feature of the exhibition is the good order maintained and the entire absence of vulgar and immoral feature. Prof. Carl H. Richardson, manager of the party, is a well educated gentleman of refined manners and pleasing address and his description of the Indians and the remedies, is highly appreciated. The company are a fair, square dealing party of gentlemen and should not be confounded with any of the "fly-by-night" troupes that have visited our vicinity of late years. They come highly recommended by the press and public from the surrounding country where they have been working for the last two years. The fact that they remain for two and three weeks in a place and make very short jumps is sufficient guarantee of the stability of the concern. The doctor conducts an office in the town hall every day from 10 to 12 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m. for consultation and advice concerning the Indian remedies free of all charge, also all kind of dental operations such as cleansing, straightening and extracting the human teeth free of charge and comparatively painless. Extra programs are announced for Thursday and Saturday evening, when beautiful prizes are given away and an entertainment of unusual merit will be given and the price of admission is 10 and 15 cents. We highly recommend any person desirous of spending a pleasant evening of good wholesome amusement to attend the exhibition while here.
