VALEDICTORY.

With this issue the Mildway GAZETTE changes hands. Mr. John A. Johnston, the new proprietor, is a young man, well and favorably known to most of our readers. He is a young man, well experienced in the printing business, and one who will make the GAZETTE, one of the foremost papers in the county. We bespeak for Mr. Johnston the hearty co-operation of both the subscribers and advertisers. A newspaper is the making of any village but no man can make it a success unless he has the co-operation of the people who reside therein. Before we say farewell we desire to return thanks to all our readers and advertisers for their hearty support for the past three years. We thank our correspondents for the manner in which they have assisted us to make the GAZETTE what it is.

Arrangements have been made with the new proprietor for the carrying of all who have paid their subscriptions to date of expiration. Those who have not paid their subscriptions are indebted to Mr. Johnston. Now we will say farewell to the people of Mildway and wish them all prosperity.

Yours truly,
L. A. FINDLAY.

SALUTATORY.

The undersigned, having purchased the plant, subscription list and good will of the Mildway GAZETTE, begs to introduce himself to the public generally. In assuming management, it will be our aim always to devote this journal to the local interests and concerns of Mildway and surrounding country and will be happy to lend its aid to whatever is calculated to promote these interests. It will, as in the past, be conducted on non-political lines.

The job department will receive strict attention and all work with which we may be favored will be executed in an up-to-date and artistic manner. Having had ample experience in this department, your order only is required to convince you that the former reputation of this office will be sustained.

The GAZETTE would respectfully solicit the support and assistance of its old friends and others, not only as regards the patronage of its subscriptions, advertising and job work, but by way of furnishing particulars of news items. It is desired to make the GAZETTE a live local newspaper and any items of interest which the editor is unable to get, will be, thankfully received. It is also desirable to have a good correspondent at every post office in the neighborhood, and anyone residing in a place not thus represented, who desires to assist the paper in this way, will oblige by communicating with the editor.

A shocking accident on Thursday last, deprived John Carney, a Tyendinaga farmer, of his life. He was going to Belleville with a load of wood, and when about a quarter of a mile from the city noticed that a neighbor who was following had upset. He attempted to turn to go to the assistance of his friend, his horse backed up, and horses, load and driver crashed through a railing and fell 25 feet to the ice on the river below. The load fell on him and he was almost instantly killed. A widow and one child survive him.

Schmidt, of Carrick Township, has applied to the Licence Commissioners of South Bruce for a transfer of the Tavern Licence now held by Mr. John Zettle, of the Deemerton Hotel, and the same will be considered at a meeting of the Licence Board at Coumans' Hotel, Walkerton, at one o'clock p. m. on Friday, February 25th, 1898.

A Boy's Life Saved

"One day my little boy, aged 7, got a fall and hurt his knee. Inflammation of the knee joint set in and the decay of the bone of the leg rapidly followed. Doctors removed over a hundred pieces of decayed bone, but the process of decomposition continued. All attempts to stop it failed. The boy had but a few days' life before him according to all human expectations. Mr. Denham, druggist, Petrolia, advised me to try Scott's Sarsaparilla, I did so, and not only saved but completely cured my boy."—JOSEPH DUNCAN, farmer, Lambton County, Ont.

GUELPH, Nov. 23rd, 1897.

The Sloan Medicine
Hamilton.

DEAR SIR:—16 YEARS I was troubled with periodical sick headaches, being affected usually every Sunday, and used all the medicines that were advertised as cures, and was treated by almost every doctor in Guelph but without any relief. The doctor told me it was caused by a weak stomach, another said it was hereditary and incurable. I was induced by a neighbor to try Sloan's Indian Tonic, and am happy to say I did so. A few doses gave immediate relief, and one bottle and a half made a complete cure. This was three years ago, and the headaches have never returned. I was also troubled with asthma and nothing helped me like your Sloan's Indian Tonic. I can heartily recommend it to all who will be glad to give any particulars to any one afflicted as I was.
