THE ONTARIO ELECTIONS.

Below is given the result of the Provincial Elections, so far as could be learned up to a late hour on Thursday night. The Province has evidently stuck to her idols and given the Mowat Government another lease of power. While deploring the result, and every Canadian who is desirous of witnessing national prosperity should deplore it, we at the same time hope that the wanton extravagance which has been practised throughout the late Government's career will at least be so limited as to keep within the resources of the revenue. A less a very different course is adopted to that which has marked the management of Ontario's finances since the commencement of the Gen. Assize, the action taken at the polls yesterday will speedily bear bitter fruit for the palates of their blindly infatuated followers.
