A DELIGHTFUL OUTING

On invitation of Mr. W. G. Parish, a number of Athenians enjoyed a delightful outing at Charleston Lake on Friday last. The party consisted of E. H. Arnold, C. C. Slack, N. D. McVeigh, Isaac C. Alquire, Kinch E. Redmond, and J. P. Lamb.

At Charleston wharf they were met by Mr. A. G. Parish with a launch and were soon speeding over the sunlit waters. The course lay between the secluded island home of Mr. E. S. Clow and the promontory on which are the summer homes of Rev. Wilson and Joseph Thompson and, on a lower terrace, the pleasant cottages of Mr. W. H. Jacob. Across the mouth of Foster's Bay where a fine view was had of Hicksville-on-the-High. Then through Israel's gap into Webster's Bay and rounding the foot of Deer Island, the launch was headed up the inside channel. At R. J. Green's cottage a halt was called and an attempt made to photograph the party but their glad sweet smiles rendered this a difficult task. The next stop was at what is locally termed Pat Ridge Island, and there the whole party got beautifully full, aided and abetted by Mr. G. W. Beach. With the thought in mind that Athenians would bring their appetites with them, Mr. Beach (who was at lake) was requested to do a little fishing and join the party at this rendezvous. With Oarsman Latimer he had tanned the Donaldson arm of the lake and his catch was hungrily surveyed by his friends.

Then dinner was prepared but when it was ready the startling discovery was made that the outfit was minus crockery and cutlery. This but slightly delayed the filling-up process. Crawl yielded to his primal instincts and made weapons out of the island timber; Kinch polished off a flat stone and said he rather preferred a dish of that kind, the notes and bounds of which were rather indefinite; Isaac with characteristic modesty, tackled the frying pan; others got there just the same with the aid of two cups, two saucers, pail covers, etc. It was a great feast, in which the Indian character of the aggregation failed to prevent them from acquiring a fullness too great for utterance.

A tour of the west shore, over the broad expanse of Big Water, around Long Island, followed and then a landing was made at Mr. Parish's cottage where a tempting supper provided by Mrs. Parish awaited them. Then in the early evening another run through the islands was enjoyed, and the day closed with all of opinion that they had spent one of the pleasantest on this "pearlless gem of many waters."

THE BROCKVILLE FAIR

A copy of the prize list of the Brockville Fair, which will take place Sept. 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th this year, has been received at this office. It reflects very clearly the yearly progress made by this Fair, which has now become one of the most up-to-date exhibitions in Canada.

The premiums have been increased and the classification extended. There will be the very best class of horse racing, with purses aggregating $2,500.

The attractions before the grand stand will be of a very high order. The three Ernesto sisters will give a thrilling high wire performance and Batt's six bears will give a wonderful acrobatic and comic performance every afternoon. Four bands of music will be in attendance.

Anybody wishing a prize list may have one by applying to the Secretary, J. E. Fidler, Brockville.

DEATH OF MORTON BROWN

About a year ago, Morton Brown returned to his old home at Glen Elbe from the Western states, where he had been for many years. He greatly enjoyed for a time visiting familiar scenes and meeting old friends, but latterly he has been in poor health and on Tuesday of last week he received a stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which he died on Thursday last at the home of his brother Byron. He was a son of the late James Brown of Elbe, and his death coming so soon after his return to the home of his boyhood is indeed sad. To the bereaved brothers and sisters The Reporter joins with their many friends in extending heartfelt condolences.

DEATH OF ETTIE BROWN

How far is it called to the grave? To the young it seems far indeed, but the nearness of death to all was sadly shown by the sudden ending of a bright young life at Addison on Monday morning. On Thursday last Miss Ettie Brown, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown of Gloosville, visited friends in Athens and in the evening attended the lawn social at Addison. On Saturday evening she was taken ill and despite all that medical skill could do she passed away on Monday morning.

Ettie was aged 17, the youngest of seven daughters, and her amiable disposition not only brightened the home of her parents but made her beloved by all her acquaintances. It is indeed a sad home from which such a sweet personality is taken, and in their sudden and sore bereavement the family have the sympathy of all.

The funeral on Tuesday was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

The footprints of Dyspepsia have been directly traced to the stomach nerves. When these "inside nerves" fail, indigestion and stomach distress must surely result. For this, druggists everywhere are supplying a prescription known as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. First, these tiny inside Stomach, Heart and Kidney nerves fail. Then gas belching, Heart palpitation, or failing Kidneys follow. Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. Strengthen these falling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative. It is the nerves, not the organs that are calling for help. With in 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment, you will realize the gain. A test will tell. Sold by All Dealers.

A PARK FOR ATHENS

Is Athens ever to own a park? This question is brought to the front by the placing in the market of the Taplin estate. On this property, within the corporate limits, there is one of the finest parks possessed by any town or village in Canada. Under certain restrictions, the late Mr. Taplin allowed the public free use of this property, but when it passes into other hands it may be closed or the timber cut down. Five or six acres of this grove could now be obtained at a reasonable figure. The opportunity to purchase now presented may never come again. The time to act is now.

Failing action on the part of the people through their representatives, perhaps we have some well-to-do individual who would like his memory preserved by a monument of this kind. It would be a more enduring memorial than any sculptured brass or stone, as generations yet to come would bless his name.

With the rapid disappearance of our woodland it is very desirable that public or private enterprise should segregate where our children and children's children may commune with the quiet spirit of the woods.

RUN DOWN—TIRED

Athens People Who Are in This Condition Are Asked to Read This Article.

There are a great many people in this vicinity at this season of the year who were all run down, no strength—hardly able to drag about. Don't know what ails them.

We want to say to every such person that our cod liver preparation, Vinol, is the tonic reconstructor which they need. Vinol tones up the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite, makes rich red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work. In this natural manner strength and vitality quickly replace weakness and lassitude.

Miss Rose Blair, president Sophomore Club, Kansas City, writes: "Last spring I was all run down, nervous, irritable and could not sleep. I tried many medicines without benefit. Vinol was recommended. It was delicious and not at all like the greasy cod liver oil and emulsions I was used to. Vinol gave me a hearty appetite and restored me to perfect health and strength."

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as an unexcelled strength creator for old people, weak sickly women, delicate children and convalescent.

Try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. J. P. Lamb & Son, Druggists, Athens, Ont.
