LIBERALS ARE NOW AROUSED

Mr. Blair's Resignation Followed by Public Reflection in New Brunswick.

Many Prominent Men Withdraw from Party—Grand Trunk Threat Creates Sensation.

St. John, Oct. 22.—The Sun this morning prints two columns more of interviews with prominent Liberals who will oppose the Government in this election. The list includes—John B. Cudlip, manager of the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills. James Pender, general manager of the Pender Manufacturing Company. J. E. Seccord, head of the biggest book and stationery business in this city. B. J. Dowling of Dowling Bros., King Street, dry goods merchants. C. K. Cameron, the King Street milliner. Harvey P. Hayward of Hayward Bros., crockery merchants. J. S. Cline, photographer. Major John S. Hall, one of the most active Liberal workers in the confederation.

There are hundreds of others, but these are men selected for their prominence in the business life of the city and for their previous enunciation in support of the Laurier government. It is significant that before Mr. Blair resigned several of these gentlemen were approached with reference to their political views, but positively refused to give any intimation as to how they would vote. Now they talk columns of the Government, especially with reference to its railway policy.

An instance of the straits to which the Liberals are driven is the fact that they have to hire advertising space in the only Liberal paper in the city, the Globe, in order to place their arguments before the public.

MUST PROVIDE FACILITIES.

Mr. Wainwright, second vice-president of the Grand Trunk Pacific and general assistant controller of the Grand Trunk whose presence in St. John the past two days has caused considerable speculation, left this morning to inspect the Central Railway, which runs from Norton to Minot, with a view, it is understood, of purchasing it.

Mr. Wainwright has created another sensation in local politics by the announcement in an interview with the Globe that if St. John and Halifax, wanted any traffic from the G. T. P., they must provide facilities for it.

As Messrs. Hays and Wainwright both know that St. John has refused to provide any further facilities for the C. P. R., on the ground that the city absolutely cannot afford it, this is generally accepted as proof positive that the G. T. P. will strain every nerve to evade the division of their traffic from Portland.

R. L. Borden will arrive on the noon train in St. John, where a royal welcome awaits him. To-night he will speak at a meeting to be held at Carleton by the R. L. Borden Club.

ROBERT MCGARVIN

An Old Kent County Boy Returns to Chatham After an Absence of 40 Years—Many Improvements Noticed.

Robert McGarvin, of Los Angeles, Cal., an old Harwich Township boy, is visiting his father, John McGarvin, 94 years old, and other relatives. It is over 40 years since Mr. McGarvin left Chatham. He was born on the old homestead up the Creek near Bridge End and left for California before he was 21 years old. Mrs. McGarvin is accompanying her husband.

"The greatest change I have noticed in Chatham after an absence of 40 years is in the manufacturing and other industries," remarked Mr. McGarvin. "In the matter of factories Chatham has certainly gone ahead, and after all they are the most important because a city has to buy more than it sells to be prosperous. The stores show a great improvement. They were hardly a plate glass front on King street and I doubt if there was one when I left."

Mr. McGarvin has spent about 30 years in Los Angeles, where he had a carriage repair shop for a number of years. Sixteen years ago he sold out and has since engaged in the real estate business. When Mr. McGarvin went there 30 years ago it was a city of 8,000, now the population is 160,000, and the most prosperous people in the place are Canadians. Mr. McGarvin has only one son, D. C. He has been in public life and is now Public Administrator for the County of Los Angeles, and it is his duty to administer the estates of deceased persons. He was elected by a majority of 9,000, which is about the largest majority ever given in the County. "I have met a large number of my old friends here, boys whom I went to school with," remarked Mr. McGarvin. "Kent must be a pretty healthy place, because many of the older men are living whom I didn't expect to find. There are quite a number of Chathamites in Los Angeles. Among the number is J. E. Wood, who built the first substantial bridge over the Thames. He is still quite hardy but is getting up in years. Wm. Patterson is a carpenter. His wife is a sister of Wm. Richardson, of Harwich. Mr. Patterson's sister, Mary Ann, now Mrs. Fullerton, is also a resident of California. J. M. Taylor, an old Chatham man, is in the real estate business and Alexander Sheriff is still making wagons. OSTRICH LOGIC.

"When I can't see danger there is no danger." That's the logic of the ostrich which hides its head and exposes its body to the hunter. There are not a few people who seem to have gone to the ostrich to learn logic. The most dangerous enemies of humanity are the enemies which can't be seen, the disease breeding microbes which infect the blood. It is harder to get the microbe out of the blood than to keep it out, but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does both, by purifying the blood and then keeping it pure.

If there are eruptions on the skin, boils, pimples, sores or other signs of impure blood, use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which will purify the blood and cure the eruptions which come from it.

"My blood was all one mess, and I had to go to the doctor," writes Mrs. James R. Moss, New London, Stanley Co., N.C. "He gave me medicine which helped me for a short time. In the winter of 1895 I got worse than I had ever been. My tonsils were enlarged and my neck swollen all out of shape. My throat was sore and I could not cure it. My husband went for the doctor, but he gave me no encouragement. He helped me a little, but it did not last long. He attended me for twelve months, when I heard of a lady whose condition was like mine, who was taking your medicine and was getting well. So I secured some of the medicine and began taking it. In one week I was able to do my cooking. When I began taking the medicine I could sit up only a few minutes at a time, and I could rest or sleep only a little while at a time. My throat was so sore at times I could not swallow sweet milk, and my tonsils were full of little eating sores. My left side was swollen out of shape and I could hardly get my breath. The doctor said I would not get well, but three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, three bottles of his 'Pellies,' three bottles of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and the use of salt water did the work and cured me."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its consequences.

and his family from Charing Cross are farming, except two of the boys, Solomon and James, who are running a shop in the city. It was quite a treat to me to see the Chatham streets all paved. I can tell you I was glad to see it because I've been stalled on those streets myself with a load of wood."

MASONIC

A most important event in Masonic circles took place at the Hotel Gardner on Friday evening, when the local Masons holding the higher degrees, including some from the near-by vicinity, formed themselves into the "Kent County Association of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry."

The forepart of the evening was spent over the festive board, and a most enjoyable time it was. True Masonic harmony prevailed and the intimate bond of brotherhood as found among Scottish Rite Masons was exemplified in a striking manner.

It has been well said that the different branches of Masonry in this country, viz., the Blue Lodge, the Chapter, the Preceptory and the Scottish Rite, are respectively the common school, the high school, the college and the university of Freemasonry, and, judging from the references made to the philosophical degrees at this meeting, we would say that as regards the Scottish Rite at least, the classification is not inapt. In due time the chairman, Ill. Bro. Battisby, called the meeting to order, and the above named association was formed and the following officers elected:

President—Ill. Bro. J. R. Battisby, D. D., 32 degrees.

Vice-Pres.—Sov. Pr. S. G. Story, M. B., 18 degrees.

Sec'y-Treas.—Ill. Bro. Geo. Masson, Jr. M. B., 32 degrees.

This association, to which any 14 degree Mason in this county may belong, has for its object, first of all, fraternal intercourse. Regular meetings will be held every three months, when the members will dine together and otherwise spend the evening in a social manner. An opportunity will be given to the members at these meetings to become better acquainted with the objects and teachings of the beautiful degrees of the Rite.

Another object of this association is to supervise the selection of candidates for this county for the higher degrees and generally to promote the interests of Scottish Rite Masonry.

This association regards itself as an adjunct to the Scottish Rite bodies sitting in the Valley of London, more especially of the London Lodge of Perfection, 14 degrees, and in strict obedience to the Supreme Council of the 33rd and last degree for the Dominion of Canada.

The following members were present at this meeting, and all gave their enthusiastic support to the association:

Ill. Bro. J. R. Battisby, D. D., 32 degrees.

Ill. Bro. Geo. Masson, Jr. M. B., 32 degrees.

Sov. Pr. S. G. Story, M. B., 14 degrees.

Sov. Pr. A. H. White, 18 degrees.

Bro. S. F. Stewart, M. D., 14 degrees, Thamesville.

Bro. E. G. Palmer, 14 degrees, Fargus.

Bro. A. H. VonGuten, 14 degrees.

Bro. Geo. Salzman, 14 degrees.

Ill. Bro. W. R. Hickey, 32 degrees, Bothwell.

Ill. Bro. A. D. Graham, M. D., 32 degrees, Bothwell.

Ill. Bro. R. Hillier, M. D., 32 degrees, Leamington.

Ill. Bro. J. S. Richardson, 32 degrees, Tilbury.

THE STAGE

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players."

(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

THE DAN QUINLAN AND WALL IMPERIAL MINSTRELS.

At the Grand to-morrow night the Dan Quinlan and Wall Imperial Minstrels will positively appear in all its entirety. The popular and genial Quinlan has this season surrounded himself with the very best talent, and among the many well known performers are such gifted and widely known artists as "Happy Cal" Wagner, Frank Cushman, Keller Mack, Emile Subers, Nat Gill, The Fern Comedy Four, Chas. F. Hackett, Frank Miller, Eugene Kelley, Oliver Mather, Boyd & McMann and W. R. Lindley. This season the first part will be the beautiful conception of "Mid the Poppies of Bayou Teche," and painted and constructed in the studios of New York's greatest scenic artist, Ernest Albert. No more beautiful and realistic scene has ever been seen on the stage in any production and will be a revelation to our theatre goers. All of the acts in this, Mr. Quinlan's latest and best effort, will be Minstrel acts exclusively, and no old, worn out circus or vaudeville acts that have no place in a high class minstrel performance will be seen. The entire performance from the rise to the final fall of the curtain will be one continual feast for the lovers of pure refined minstrelsy.

"Love thoughts lie rich when canopied with bowers." The truth of this poetic axiom is realized in the iridescent setting of the garden scene in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," which is to be produced here soon with the beautiful and famous Marie Wainwright as Viola. The shipwreck scene is a wonder of marine effect, but the view of the love-torn countess' garden, with its flowers, bowers and arches, its glimpses of twinkling stars through the leafy boughs overhead, its diamond-spraying fountains, its statuary, made spectral in the silvery light of the moon, stirs the audiences into rhapsodies. When so famous a Shakespearean artist as Miss Marie Wainwright is to play the leading role of Viola one can understand what a matchless night of pleasure Manager Jules Murry is to provide for lovers of the beautiful and romantic in this city.

"Way Down East" Lottie Blair Parker's idyllic play of New Hampshire farm life comes to the Grand Opera House on Monday, Nov. 7th. The play is one that appeals not to a limited class but to everybody with a spark of sympathy, a liking for an interesting story and a relish for good wholesome fun. There are many reasons for its popularity—its pathetic theme, its genial humor, its charming pictures of country life, its quaint characters and striking realism. But its more potent element undoubtedly is the strong human interest that permeates every scene. To this all classes and creeds must yield their sympathy. Mrs. Parker's work, so admirably produced under the skillful direction of Mr. Joseph Grismer will be interpreted by a cast that has been especially selected for its individual capability.

A favorite with theatre goers all over the civilized world, in every nook and corner of which it has been presented, is "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," that comes to this city in the near future. The reason for its popularity is easily found. It tells a story that is so human, so familiar, that everybody sees in it a parallel case to one he has himself known. It is just like meeting an old friend.

Fly from pleasure that bites to-morrow.

A CHANGEABLE BIRD

In the City of Chatham, there's a very wise bird, Who can change his coat as well as his word; In the political world he's had many a scrap, And led many a man to his neatly set trap.

He first was a Tory in the days long gone by, Then turned over to Grit in the twink of an eye, Next he ran as a Patron and changed all his views, But when beaten out of sight claimed it was only a ruse.

The Temperance people next engaged him to tell What strong drink would do; it would send them to hell.

For this grand noble work, of course, he was not paid, And no one suspected but that this was his trade.

At last came the day for the Prohibition Vote, Which placed most of men in a sort of a boat; And the great majority who from the polls stayed away Would gladly have seen it carry the day.

But this wily old friend, in his plausible style, Says the country for prohibition's not ripe yet for a while. And pointed to the percentage of seventy-eight. Thinking all of the time folks were taking the bait.

We now look again, and the scene it is changed, And our subject his politics has again re-arranged— He once more appears as a full fledged Grit; Is he hoping and praying for a Government sit?

A Government berth now would he embrace, While on the fence, you know, he has no chance in the race; But now he will cry Hurrah, and shout Laurier-ray, And sing Hallelujah up to election day.

At election time, he is in great de-
