October 17, 18, 19 Will be Gala Days at the Driving Park --Invites Fun at Home.

The races to be run at the Chatham Driving park on Wednesday, Thurs-day and Friday, October 17th 19th, respectively, are considerable attention 18th and 19th, respectively, are attracting considerable—attraction on the part of those who appreciate fast horses. The interest is not only local, but throughout the whole county the days have been marked, and it as safe to assume that this fall meet will not only receive the patronage that it deserves, but will prove to be eminently successful from every other standpoint.

$2000 has been offered in purtes, and this sum practically guarantees that the best horses in the city and county will compete; and, indeed, some outcide of the county. The great race horses of this county, those which have been on the read during the summer—and it is within the knowledge of every horse flesh admirer as the fine records that anny of them made—will be present at these races, and it certainly does not require a prophet or the son of a prophet to foretell the resultant quality of the speed contests.

The fact also that the second day of the races as Thanksgiving, a holiday that permits of the sport probably as no other during the entire year, and that the weather will likely be just of that temperature to put ganger into the events, augurs well for the races, an addition to the other things enumerated above. All who are in the least incercated in fast horses—and who is not?—should stay in the city during that day and help to swell the crowd who intend to take advantage of the splendid opportunity that will be ditered them at tith Driving park.

advantage of the splendid opportunity that will be offerred them at the Driving park.

The day's racing that will follow the holiday or opening day, will in no wise be infernior in any respect to the holiday races, but it is readily conceded that the latter ought, in the very nature of things, to be the banner day of the three.

Following is the program for the three days;
Wednesday, Oct, 17.—

2.14 pace or trot, $300.

2.22 pace or trot, $300.

Half mile run, 2 in 3, $100.

Thursday, Oct, 18.—

2.18 pace or trot, $300.

2.30 pace or trot, $300.

2.50 pace or trot, $300.

1.8 mile run, 2 in 3, $100.

Friday, Oct, 19.—

Free for all pace, $300.

2.20 trot, $300.

1 mile run dash, $100.

In 2.14, 2.22, 2.18, 2.30 classes 5 seconds allowed trotters.

Entries close Oct, 11, and the genial secretary of the Driving park will gladly explain anything necessary to prospective competitors. Box 726 will reach him.

ANNIVERSARY CONCERT WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Delightful Musical Program in Which Some of Maple City's Best Talent Participated.

An anniversary concert took the place of the customary anniversary tea and concert of former years at Victoria avenue Methodist church last evening. Some of the best talent of the city were on hand to edify the large gathering with their best selections, and the resultant enjoyment was great.

selections, and the resultant enjoy-ment was great.

The pastor, Rev. F. E. Malott, was chairman, and in a well worded ad-dress mentioned the present, pres-pertly off the church, and said that it was expected by the many friends of the congregation that this would continue, if not be collused. He took it was expected by the many friends of the congregation that this would continue, if not be cellipsed. He took occasion also to thank the people for the support that had been vouchsafed him during the years of his parsonage. He thoroughly appreciated the cordial relations that existed the tween himself and every member and friend of the congregation, and felt assured that they would footinue, and that all would be willing to work for the glory of God, the good of man and the prosperity of Victoria avenue church.

Those who took part in the musical program were: H. Horstead, solo; Miss Edith Dolson, solo; Mrs. S. C. Walker, solo; Messrs. Horstead and Bushell, duet; Miss Olive Richards, solo; Miss Mary Brackin, solo; Miss Lou Jackson, solo; with violim obligato; Tosti's "Beauty's Eyes," E. T. Jones, violin solo. The accompanistes were the Misses Flossie Bogart, Bessie Brackin and Grace Irving.

Every solist did well, and every number was liberally applauded. Especially worthy of mention was the violin solo by Mr. Jones. It showed a line mastery of the technique and possibilities of the instrument on the part of the player. Miss Bogant was his able accompaniste.

Demands Refused.

A month ago the employes of the James MacLaren & Co.'s lumber mills struck for higher wages. They had been pald $1.25 per day, and they demanded $1.50, which is the wages paid by W. H. Kelly the other important lumber merchant at Buckingham. The MacLaren Co. refused to give the rulse and 500 men were affected. Three hundred left the town for the lumber camps, while 200 remained to await developments.

On Sunday afternoon, while several young men from this city were walking along the G. T. R. tracks about two miles west off the city, a large piece of iron, several inches thick and over a foot long, and weighing about 50 pounds, was found hying across a rail. A few minutes after the young men had taken the iron from its resting place, the 5.18 train rushed past.

The young men do not wish their names mentioned, but are positive that the iron had been deliberately placed on the track.

FIRE BRIGADE TO ENTERTAIN

The fire laddies will give an enter-tainment at the Brisco opera house on Tuesday night, Oct. 23, when they will place some features on the stage that are destined to do them all exceeding credit. There will be moving pictures of the very best sort for an hour, among other things, and in addition to this, one of the features will be a tug of war for a prize of $25, which is open to all the employees of factories in the city. The men are putting on the show with the expectation of getting out accident policies with the proceeds.

plied to by the strikers. At any rate, it is admitted by all parties that the riot act was not read and, for this omission the police are being strongly censured.

At the first volley by the police, who were only ten yards away from the strikers, Thomas Belanger, the union leader, fell mortally wounded. He was shot in five places, one shot pierced his right breast, and tore its way downwards through his body, another went through his heart, another entered his head as he fell and came out at his eye.

head as he fell and came out at his eye.

Police Put to Rout.

Immediately firing became general, and men fell groaning on every side. With fury the strikers, now without a leader, charged the police, who turned and fled to the bush. The fire of the unionists was wild and ill-directed, else not a man would have lived. They had several rifles among them and many revolvars.

Firing backwards as they ran, the police did more damage, and Francois Therriault, who was unarmed, was shot through the heart. He was 40 years of age and leaves a widow and seven young children. Other men fell wounded, and, seeing the slaughter of the French-Canadians, became more savage in the pursuit.

French-Canadians, became more savage in the pursuit.

Militia Reach Scene.

With the police totally routed and the strike-breakers scattered in every direction the victorious unionists retired quietly to their homes and awaited events. The two MacLarens, who had been fired at, but had escaped injury, sent to Ottawa for the military, and late last night 111 men of the G. G. F. G. and the 43rd D. C. O. R. and a machine gun squad arrived in Buckingham, under Col. Hodgins and Major Morrison. Peace reigned, however. They will remain here pending settlement. Sheriff Wright of Hull is also in the town.

and an inquest will be held to-day. The town is under military command and the soldiers are parading the streets.

Strikers Merciful.
Only one of the police party escaped without a scratch. Chief of Police Frank Kernan was shot through the head, but he will recover, while his brother, James Kernan, also of Buckingham, had his hand shattered. When the pursuing strikers found a policeman prostrate they mercifully let him be. One policeman on his knees threw away his revolver, and, waving a white handkerchief, begged for his life. They spared him.

THIRTY APPLICANTS AFTER HEALTH INSPECTOR'S JOB

All Are Good Men and True and Anyone Would no Doubt Capably

Fill the Position.

Fill the Position.

Who wishes a job? From the distance somes the echo. "Who?"

There is no danger of the job of health inspector going begging, for, at the next meeting of the eity council that homorable body will have 30 or more applications for the position awaiting their attention. The position appears to be a coveted one, even if there be many who are of the opinion that it is one of those which would not excite the envy of many citizens.

The present inspector retires from office on Oct. 15, the day of the next regular meeting of the city council. The civic fathers will therefore have to quickly choose from the long list that will await their pleasure. Who is the best man among them for the placer is a question that is quice out of place, for it goes without saying that practically each one of the 30 or more who are hankering for the position is firmly convinced that he is the man who possesses the proper qualifications for the position. It is a case of the man seeking the office, and a famous politician one said that the office ought always to seek the man. That, no doubt, was the first time that a positician said something so true.

The position has been in the best of hands during the time Mr. Mounteer has had charge. He attended to his duties with a rare conscientiousness, and nothing that was for the good of the city, when it came under the surveillance of the inspector, was left undone. Frequently he was seen madly tearing down the street on his wheel—in such cases he had no doubt just received ward of a new case of fever, or some other disease. At other times he was seen hurrying through the streets with a queer looking apparatus in his hand—in such cases he was probably on his way to disaffect a house whose inmates had insuch cases he had no disinfect himself.

This summarizes the job for which thirty or more men are bidding.

To be mayor of a city and to be health inspector are two very different things. Mr. Mounteer, during his five years' term as inspector, knew this, and realized that there wa hat of Kent Children's Ald Society to be Held From Oct. 29 Instead of Oct. 22.
