October 17, 18, 19 Will be Gala Days at the Driving Park --Invites Fun at Home.

The races to be run at the Chathan Driving park on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 17th 19th, respectively, are considerable attention 18th and 19th, respectively, are attracting considerable—attraction on the part of those who appreciate fast horses. The interest is not only local, but throughout the whole county the days have been marked, and it is safe to assume that this fall meet will not only receive the patronage that it deserves, but will prove to be eminently successful from every other standpoint.

$2000 has been offered in purtes, and this sum practically guarantees that the best horses in the city and county will compete; and, indeed, some outcide of the county. The great race horses of this county, those which have been on the road during the summer—and it is within the knowledge of every horse flesh admirer as the fine records that analy of them made—will be present at these races, and it certainly does not require a prophet to free son of a prophet to foretell the resultant quality of the speed contests.

The fact also that the second day of the races as Thanksgiving, a holiday that permits of the sport probably as no other during the entire year, and that the weather will likely be just of that temperature to put ganger into the events, augurs well for the races, an addition to the other things enumerated above. All who are in the least intercited in fast horses—and who is not?—should stay in the city during that day and help to swell the crowd who intend to take advantage of the splendid opportunity that will be offered them at the Driving park.

advantage of the splendid opportunity that will be difered them at the Driving park.

The day's racing that will follow the holiday or opening day, will in no wise be inferior in any respect to the holiday races, but it is readily conceded that the latter ought, in the very nature of things, to be the banner day of the three.

Following is the program for the three days;

Wednesday, Oct, 17.—

1.14 pace or trot, $300.

2.22 pace or trot, $300.

Thursday, Oct. 18.—

2.18 pace or trot, $300.

2.30 pace or trot, $300.

2.30 pace or trot, $300.

3.50 mile run, 2 in 3, $100.

Friday, Oct. 19.—

Free for all pace, $300.

2.20 trot, $300.

1 mile run dash, $100.

In 2.14, 2.22, 2.18, 2.30 classes 5 seconds allowed trotter.

Entries close Oct. 11, and the genial secretary of the Driving park will riadly explain anything necessary to prospective competitors.

ANNIVERSARY CONCERT WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Delightful Musical Program in Which Some of Maple City's Best Talent Participated.

An anniversary concert took the place of the customary anniversary tea and concert of former years at Victoria avenue Methodist church last evening. Some of the best talent of the city were on hand to edify the large gathering with their best selections, and the resultant enjoyment was great.

ment was great.

The pastor, Rev. F. E. Malott, was chairman, and in a well worded address mentioned the present, presperity of the church, and said that it was expected by the many friends of the congregation that this would continue, if not be celipsed. He took it was expected by the many friends of the congregation that this would continue, if not be collipsed. He took occasion also to thank the people for the support that had been youchsafed him during the years of his parsonage. He thoroughly appreciated the cordial relations that existed between himself and every member and friend of the congregation, and felt assured that they would footninue, and that all would be willing to work from the glory of God, the good of man and the prosperity of Victoria avenue church.

Those who took part in the musical program were: H. Horstead, solo; Miss Edith Dolson, solo; Mrs. S. C. Walker, solo; Messrs. Horstead and Bushell, duett; Miss Olive Richards, solo; Miss Mary Brackin, solo; Miss Edith oclose, solo; with violin obligato; flosti's "Beauty's Eyes," E. T. Jones, violin solo. The accompanistes were the Misses Flossie Bogart, Bessie Brackin and Grace Irving.

Every solist did well, and every number was liberally applauded. Especially worthy of mention was the violin solo by Mr. Jones. It showed a line mastery of the technique and possibilities of the instrument on the part of the player. Miss Bogant was his able accompaniste.

A month ago the employes of the James MacLaren & Co.'s lumber mills struck for higher wages. They had been paid $1.25 per day, and they demanded $1.50, which is the wages paid by W. H. Kelly the other important lumber merchant at Buckingham. The MacLaren Co. refused to give the raise and 500 men were affected. Three hundred left the town for the lumber camps, while 200 remained to await developments.

THIRTY APPLICANTS AFTER HEALTH INSPECTOR'S JOB

Fill the Position.

Who wishes a job? From the distance somes the echo. "Who?"

There is no danger of the job of health inspector going begging, for, at the next meeting of the city council that homorable body will have 30 or more applications for the position awaiting their attention. The position appears to be a coveted one, even if there be many who are of the opinion that it is one of those which would not excite the any of many citizens.

The present inspector retires from office on Oct. 15, the day of the next regular meeting of the city council. The civic fathers will therefore have to quickly phoose from the long list that will await their pleasure. Who is the best man among them for the place? is a question that is quice out of place, for it goes without saying that practically each one of the 30 or more who are hankering for the position is firmly convinced that he is the man who possesses the proper qualifications for the position. It is a case of the man seeking the office, and a famous politician one said that the office ought always to seek the man. That, no doubt, was the first time that a positician said something so true.

The position has been in the best of hands during the time Mr. Mounteer has had charge. He attended to his duties with a rare conscientiousness, and nothing that was for the good of the city, when it came under the surveillance of the inspector, was left undone. Frequently he was seen madly tearing down the street on his wheel—in such cases he had no doubt just received ward of a new case of fever, or some other disease. At other times he was seen hurrying through the streets with a queer looking apparatus in his hand—in such cases he had no doubt just received ward of a new case of fever, or some other disease. In such cases he had no doubt instructions and hothing and the olothang—and when he was through doing this he had to disinfect himself.

This summarizes the job for which thirty or more men are bidding.
