THE ACADIAN.

WOLVILLE, N. S., AUG. 27, 1897.

Local and Provincial.

Company 9, of Wolville, go into camp at Aldershot, next Tuesday.

The Methodist Sabbath-school expects to picnic to-morrow at Evangeline Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. North have the thanks of the ACADIAN for wedding favors.

A very pretty flag has been floating over the Royal Hotel during the past week. On a ground of white appears the word "Royal" in bold letters of red.

Horton Academy and Acadia Seminary reopen on Wednesday of next week. We understand that the prospects are good for a large attendance at both these schools.

We would ask our readers to take note of the announcement of an auction sale to be held on the premises of the late Jas. S. Morris. The sale will be held Sept. 7th.

It is expected that the Rev. Mr. Gardner, pastor of Central Square Church, East Boston, will occupy the pulpit of the Wolville Baptist church next Sabbath.

We have this week been favored with some rather enjoyable street music, furnished by a couple of colored travelling musicians—a violinist, and a harpist. Their efforts have been quite liberally rewarded.

Our town presented a busy appearance last Saturday evening. The streets and stores were full of people, and the merchants must have done a good business. A large number of visitors spent Sunday in town.

A boy named Messum, was up before Stipendiary Crawley on Wednesday morning, charged with striking another boy with a stone. After being severely reprimanded and cautioned against a repetition of the offence, he was discharged.

The Baptist and Episcopal Sabbath-schools held their picnics yesterday, the former at Evangeline Beach and the latter at Blue Beach. The town presented quite a lively appearance during their departure, and we understand a most pleasant day was spent by all.

FOR SALE.—A building lot, in a slightly and desirable location, near centre of town. Apply to C. E. Evans.

In the Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Denovan, of Wolville, preached in the morning, and Rev. Mr. Vetcher, of Rhode Island, in the evening. Both were good; that in the morning was deep and thoughtful, and will be long remembered by those who heard it. Text: "Let not sin reign in your mortal bodies."—Hants Journal.

Money to Loan on Real Estate straight loan or on instalment plan—A. V. P. Pines, Barrister, Wolville, N. S.

A very small audience indeed greeted Miss Mabella Biggart, in College Hall, last Monday evening. Her rendering of a condensed dramatization of "Adam Bede" was most highly spoken of by all present, and it is to be regretted that a much larger number did not avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this talented lady. Music was furnished by Mr. J. A. Thomson, violinist, and Miss Robinson, pianist.

FOR SALE.—A No 61 Walker Furnace with 9 pipes and registers. Suitable for either hard or soft coal. Apply to L. W. SLEEP.

Local and Provincial.

Rev. Mr. Valentine occupied the Presbyterian pulpit at Wolville and Lower Horton last Sunday.

Mr. R. W. Storey has improved the appearance of his property on Main street by having the hedge neatly trimmed.

Our readers and unemployed will find the gold announcement of the Early Publishing House, in the "Klondyke," on the first page, interesting.

The "Punch and Judy" show in Temperance Hall on Thursday evening of last week, was well patronized. The children seemed to find it entertaining.

The announcements of the Wolville Real Estate agency in another column affords many good chances to get desirable properties in Wolville or neighborhood.

Captain J. W. Whitman, of the schooner Olive Decker, who was murdered off the coast of South America, was a brother of the Rev. G. W. Whitman, Methodist minister of Burlington, Hants Co.

Clearance Sale of Millinery and Fancy Goods now on, opposite Rockwell's Book Store. Cash only.

The bright Christiana Moore, Smith, master, from New York, with anthracite coal for the Wolville Coal Co., arrived last week. After discharging cargo she was towed out by the launch Nymph on Monday evening and went to Cheverly to load.

Prof. Roberts writes an interesting article in the last Independent on How to Camp with Comfort. The scene of the camping ground of which he speaks is in Nova Scotia, a wild lake at Aylesford where 10 men and 10 women enjoyed a vacation. This retired spot which was chosen is situated 21 miles from the D. A. Railway. Only one solitary dwelling is found on the shore of the lake which is six miles long and one wide. Excellent hints are given to those who may seek this choice spot where lived tollers may enjoy rest and recreation useful for body and soul.

MONEY TO LEND ON MORTGAGE.—Apply to E. S. Crawley, Solicitor, Wolville, N. S.

A young man named Perry McCall, having from Port Williams, was in town last Friday evening, slightly under the influence of the "cup that cheers," and made himself rather obnoxious by shouting and using profane language. On leaving town, which he did in the carriage of a friend, he made several observations of an offensive nature to Officer Toys. He was summoned to appear before the Stipendiary last Wednesday morning, but did not show up. On hearing Mr. Toys's evidence, a fine of $3 and costs was imposed, and a warrant issued for McCall's arrest.

A large party of tourists under the management of the Brooklyn, (N. Y.), Eagle bureau, which is touring through our Province, is expected to visit Wolville next week. They will arrive on Monday and will be entertained at Acadia Seminary Hotel until Tuesday. The party numbers between sixty and seventy persons, and comprises some of the leading business and professional men of the United States. It is to be hoped that our town will present the best possible appearance, and that everything will be done to cause the visitors to form a favorable opinion of Wolville and its people.

The Rev. J. M. Allen has resigned his charge of the Presbyterian congregation of Waterville and Lakeville. Mr. Allen has had the pastorate of these churches for over three years, has done good work and will leave very many warm friends. He will deliver his farewell sermon on Sunday next, preaching in the morning at Waterville, and in the evening at Lakeville.

Teachers who would like, during the summer vacation, to extend their knowledge of Book-keeping, or learn Shorthand or Typewriting, or both, are hereby notified that we will, beginning July 6th, give a six weeks' course covering these branches.
