

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., SEPT. 8, 1899.

Editorial Notes.

The weather has been decidedly cool this week with high winds. All too quickly the beautiful summer has passed and gone and the chilly days of this week impress very forcibly upon us the fact that cold winter is not far away again.

John T. Bulmer, who ran two elections as a prohibitionist candidate inumberland against Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Dickey, says of the present ministers: They have run their flat of defiance in the face of every man of the 278,487 who voted for prohibition. Shall we accept their challenge? I say, yes. I helped them in—spent five weeks working for them, and if they had acted right would have spent ten to keep them in.

New items of general interest are always gladly welcomed at our sanctum, and to its many valued correspondents the ACADIAN is indebted for not a few of the bright and newsy letters which appear in its columns from time to time. But in common with all papers we are frequently imposed on by correspondents who are anxious to write for us but never find anything of sufficient interest to note except that which refers to some venture in which they are financially interested. Such matters which should properly find a place in our advertising columns are sent in with all possible embellishment to take the place of news. We are always glad to assist any enterprise such as church socials and the like, but it is sometimes with the feeling that we are being imposed upon that we give a place to matter sent to us.

Probably very few people know to what an extent meek thieving is being carried on in this community, and in fact throughout the county. New instances are continually coming to our attention, and they seem to be on the increase. So bold have the thieves become in some cases that houses have been entered in the day time or evening and articles stolen; and barns and out-buildings have frequently been visited. While numerous instances have been related, we believe many persons have lost property which has not been reported that he had not said anything about his loss until he heard that his neighbors were also failing in the same manner. It is time some organized effort was put forth to apprehend the criminals and put down this species of crime. The application of the penalty provided by law in a few cases would have the tendency of discouraging this class of offenders, and teach a wholesome lesson to the light-fingered ones. In the past it has too frequently happened that even after the thieves have been detected, they have been allowed to go scot free because they were relatives or friends of someone in authority. What we need in this county is a greater respect for the law, not only among violators but administrators of it. We shall refer to this matter in another issue. In the meantime all cases of sneak thieving should be reported, and such vigorous action taken as will render it impossible for this annoying and pernicious vice to continue.

Palmer Re-captured.

George Palmer, the man who broke jail at Kentville some weeks ago while under sentence of seven years at Dorchester for assaulting and robbing Timothy Rockwell near Upper Dike Village last spring, has been recaptured and again lodged in durance vile. The rest was made at Windsor Tuesday morning. He had shipped as cook on a vessel loading plaster at that port for New York and intended leaving that day at noon. He was spotted by Policeman McDonald and Jellor Smith at about 8 o'clock in the morning on the government wharf. The former seized him by the hands from behind, while the latter searched him and took away a revolver. Word was sent to Kentville and Constable Ward, of that town, went to Windsor and returned with the prisoner. It is to be hoped that every precaution will be taken that he may not again regain his liberty.

Town Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held on Wednesday evening. The Mayor, Couns. Franklin DeWitt, Porter and Harvey, and the Recorder were present. A verbal report was received from the Committee on Streets with regard to the work done. Mr. Collins, caretaker of the water shed lands, presented a written statement of the condition of the property.

The following bills were read and ordered paid: Chas. Murphy $33.30 J. W. Selfridge 27.09 J. W. Selfridge 26.09 E. M. Doye 50 Town Clerk (postage) 1.94 The clerk was instructed to advertise in the ACADIAN that all rates and taxes must be paid by October 1st, otherwise warrant will be issued to collect same.

The Educational Institutions.

The College has received recently, through the Hon. F. W. Borden, Minister of Militia, the gift of a handsome pair of brass cannon, one of which was made in 1800, the other in 1808. It is likely that these historic relics will be placed on the terrace in front of the College.

The Seminary is beginning its work auspiciously. The Rev. J. H. McDonald, the new principal, has been in town for a week past, getting the strings of administration in his hands, and the year promises well. There is already a fine attendance, and this will yet be increased.

The new vice-principal, Miss Johnson, of Providence, Rhode Island, arrived on Tuesday, and has entered upon her duties. Miss Johnson is a graduate of Brown University, also a Normal school graduate, and a teacher of experience and reputation. It is believed she will meet the demands of the new position with entire satisfaction.

Miss Maymie J. Ashtonau, of Boston, the new vocal teacher, also arrived on Tuesday. Miss Ashtonau is a distinguished pupil of Professor Heinrich, of Boston, and will prove a fine acquisition to the Seminary staff.

Principal Horace L. Brittan of the Academy is at his post, with hardly such encouraging prospects for students as in the case of the Seminary. There will, however, be a good attendance, and if what we hear of Mr. Brittan's ability and pluck is true, there is little doubt that another year the Academy will take an advanced position.

Mr. F. W. Fair, of Bridgetown, has been appointed teacher in Manual Training, and Mr. R. J. Colpitt, assistant teacher in the literary work.

Miss D'Prater in Wolfville.

A large audience greeted Miss Eva D'Prater in the Baptist church Tuesday evening. After opening exercises, consisting of music, scripture reading by the pastor, and prayer by Dr. Austin deBlois, the speaker of the evening was introduced by Rev. Mr. Hatch. Miss D'Prater wore the costume of a high caste woman of India. She has a sweet voice and, while a native of India, speaks excellent English, and her address throughout was instructive and very interesting. She spoke especially of the women of India—their condition and need of the elevating power of Christianity. In India, women cannot be attended by male physicians, and any violation of this law is followed by degradation and suffering for the offending female. Miss D'Prater is working under the auspices of the Dufferin Society to render aid to the women of India, which owes its existence to the never-dying memory of a woman especially beloved. This one was seriously ill and when all native methods of healing had failed, the English physician of the town was called. He was not permitted to see his patient, but one of her hands was passed through a small opening in a screen. However, his treatment was successful, and the woman recovered. But she had broken a law of her people and must pay the penalty. She was divorced from her husband and could henceforth have no connection with home or family. This pathetic story came to Lord Dufferin, then stationed in India, and through him to Lady Dufferin, and the outcome was the society above mentioned.

Sixteen years ago Miss D'Prater was converted through the preaching of Mr. Sanford, and six or seven years ago began the study of medicine, seeing in this the best means of helping her people. She now has charge of a hospital in her native town, and gave some touching instances of her work. Her patients are many and their diseases varied, and while their physical sufferings are relieved she loses no opportunity to tell them of the Great Physician.

Miss D'Prater gave earnest expression of gratitude to the people of this country for their efforts to save India. She spoke of the small apparent results for all the money expended, but pleaded that the efforts would be continued a little longer. To the speaker there are very evident results of the noble lives and the many dollars spent in this work. In concluding, she referred to our beautiful climate and the beauty of our country as aids to Christianity. She spoke of the contrast between our Sabbath and Sunday in India, and of the trying life on an Indian Missionary field.

Anything of supreme importance in connection with a great paper has an undoubted interest for the public. One of the greatest events that is attracting widespread attention is the great improvement in the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal. The paper has been enlarged to 192 columns a week. To think of such a paper for the price charged is enough to take one's breath away. The Family Herald and Weekly Star, with its circulation of one hundred and nineteen thousand a week, long ago carved out a place for itself away up above anything in the history of Canada. Now it has stepped up to a higher and more commanding eminence.

In an article prepared by Mr. Geo. Johnson, the Dominion Statistician, it is stated there are in the Dominion 113 daily, 6 tri-weekly, 57 semi-weekly, 3 bi-weekly, 789 weekly newspapers, and three that come out semi-occasionally. There are also semi-monthly and monthly publications, the total number of publications in Canada aggregating 1219, including the Atlantic Nigger and the Midnight Sun, of Yukon, the two most northerly of our newspapers.

New Minas Items.

The citizens of this community who engage in shad-fishing in the Basin have taken up their seines and returned home. The fishing is over for this year. They report a very prosperous season.

The first shipment of apples to England was made on Wednesday of this week. A number of New Minas orchardists sent their earliest crates.

A number of our people drove to Kentville on Monday evening to attend the musicale given by Miss Louise Cowan, vocalist, assisted by Mrs. (Dr.) Woodworth, pianist, and Miss Adelaide Jump, elocutionist. The entertainment was pronounced a success from an artistic standpoint, but financially it must have been a sad failure. Talent of such a high order certainly merited a larger audience.

Rev. Dr. deBlois, late president of Shurtleff College, State of Illinois, made a call at New Minas on Tuesday, in company with his mother. Dr. deBlois served the Baptist church here as pastor for a year, during his student days at Acadia.

Mrs. Jas. Chase, who was stricken with paralysis in May last, and has been quite helpless since, has decided to go to the hospital in Halifax for care and treatment.

Mr. Amos Griffin, one of our most enterprising farmers, has taken on this ten days or a fortnight.

Miss Jump, the popular elocutionist, who has been vacationing in New Minas, left on Tuesday for Boston.

Miss McLean at McGill.

While the professors and lecturers of McGill University will be responsible for the instructions to be given to the students of the Royal Victoria College, the authorities have thought wise to supplement the available university staff by the appointment of general tutor, who will reside in the Royal Victoria College, and have named Miss Annie M. McLean, M. A., Ph. D., to be resident tutor in philosophy and history, and Miss Susan E. Cameron, B. A., to be resident tutor in English.

Miss McLean graduated M. A. in 1894 at Acadia College, Nova Scotia, and obtained the degree of Ph. D. at the University of Chicago, presenting as her thesis, A Study of the Acadian Element in Nova Scotia. Miss McLean has had experience in teaching partly as preceptor and instructor in Latin and affiliated to the University of Chicago, where the whole internal management devolved upon her. For the last three years she has been engaged in graduate work in sociology and political science and research work in Canadian history and government. She has published several essays and papers bearing on history, and also on sociological and economic questions which have attracted much attention.—Montreal Witness.

Grand Fire.

The ladies of the Lower Horton Methodist church, purpose holding an 'Ice Cream Social' in the basement of the church next Wednesday, the 13th inst. If that day should prove stormy come on the first fine evening after. The good things provided on such occasions down here are always delicious and abundant. Admission, 10 cents; ice-cream and cake, 10 cents; cup of coffee roll and cake, 10 cents. Proceeds for church purposes.

There will be a Service of Song in the Methodist church next Sunday evening. The ladies of missionary society have it in charge. There will be readings, recitations, an address by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Langille on 'The Hindrance' in the Mission Field, and the choir, assisted by Miss Louise Moore, one of the sweet singers of Halifax, will fill the church with music. There will be a collection for missions. Come and enjoy and give your mite.

Miss Moore is visiting her friend Miss Annie Patterson, of Hortonville.
