Until He Took "Fruit-a-lives" The Fruit Medicine

R. R. No. 1, Lower, Ont.
"For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. I treated with doctors and tried nearly everything without benefit. Finally, I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'. Before I had used half a box I saw improvement; the pain was easier and the swelling started to go down. I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles and do light chores about the place."

I have recommended Vegetable Compound to several friends, and am willing you should publish this."—Mrs. MARTHA W. LINDSAY, 810 Robinson St., Regina, Sask.

ALBINO DEER—A GAME LAW LAW SUGGESTION

(St. John Standard)

Sir:—The recent discussion of our game laws in the legislature and the public press indicates that it is a many sided subject of public interest and concern. The writer is desirous of offering a suggestion on the general question especially as bearing relation to Grand Manan and adjacent islands and our albino deer.

Almost every year when the hunting season opens, cases are reported in the public press of hunters killing white or albino deer. The white deer is no doubt a freak or sport of nature and in species is likely identical with the ordinary red deer of our forests. It is nevertheless a great curiosity and strenuous laws should be enacted for their protection. The comparative frequency of the occurrence of albino deer in New Brunswick might suggest something in our climate and surroundings favorable to this peculiarity. This suggests the possibility, by protection and segregation, of developing a distinct albino type. The idea should be of sufficient interest to naturalists and scientists to warrant a trial. If successful it would be of considerable scientific importance, would add to the attractions of the province and incidentally might be of considerable monetary value by way of a special and higher license to kill when plentiful or to reserve for special sales to museums and parks.

My suggestion is that it be made illegal to kill albino deer at any time and that the government co-operate with the Natural History Society in securing alive and segregating all possible albino varieties in the province. These, at first, would, necessarily, be few in number and could be confined, for observation, in an enclosure naturally adapted to their life. Perhaps a section of Rockwood Park, St. John, might suit this temporary purpose. Here they could breed; red fawns could be eliminated and additions made as new albinos were found.

In the meantime the common deer on Grand Manan and other islands could be allowed to be killed by the inhabitants (under the law) until exterminated, providing the albino experiment gave promise of ultimate success. Thus assured the albino herd, now considerably increased, would be transferred to the islands there to increase under natural conditions. It would no doubt, require some years to fix and thoroughly establish a pure albino type; and for many years, probably, the majority of fawns would be red. These the inhabitants would be permitted to shoot before they come to breeding age.

I, and others, would like to see the Natural History Society take the question up with the government with a view to carrying out the suggestions here made. At least some steps should be taken to save from complete extermination the albino deer we now have in our forests.

Yours very truly,
F. A. WIGHTMAN.

Four children survived, who are Mrs. Sanford Hallett of Coldstream, Robert at home, Grant of Keswick and Burton at Centreville. ## "We Saw Your Letter In the Newspaper"

"YES." "And is that correct what is said about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?" "Yes, it is absolutely true." "But why do you recommend it?"

"For two very good reasons. First, because it fully restored my health and strength when I was weak, wornout and very greatly discouraged, and, second, because I believe it is a duty as well as a pleasure to let other women know about so superior a treatment."

"I never used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, but I got interested in that Woman's Advertising Contest they had, and nearly every woman I met seemed to be talking about it. Then I saw your letter, and knew you would tell me about it."

"Well, you know how weak and miserable I was for years in spite of all the doctors could do for me. I was nervous, irritable, restless and sleepless. Thought sometimes I would go out of my mind from worry and depressed spirits. I need not tell you how well I am now. You can see for yourself. There is the whole story, and all the credit is due to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

"I get your viewpoint now. It would be a sin and a shame if you did not tell others."
