A MILKMAN WAS FINED $20.

J. F. Bethune Found Guilty Charge of Assault.

Complainant Was Jas. Johnson, a Cut Rate Dealer.

Proprietor of the Arlington Fined $100 For Bartender's Act.

Much interest was taken in the "milkmen's assault" case at the Police Court this morning. The defendants were Jas. F. Bethune, Ryckman's Corners, and his driver, Ernest Franks. They were charged with assaulting James Johnson, and through their counsel, Mr. Geo. S. Kerr they pleaded not guilty.

Johnson said that he sold milk in the city for 6c a quart or one cent cheaper than the other dealers, and for this the "association" was sore at him. Beth-une's driver called him a "scab" and he une's driver called him a "scab" and he caught the boy and forced him to give his name. Bethune met him later on James street north and stopping him called him names and hit him. There was a mix-up, he said, but it was all over when he managed to get on his feet. Bethune denied calling names and said that before he struck Johnson, the latter hit him on the face with his whip. Then he went "to it" and Franks helped him. The Magistrate said he was satisfied that Johnson was assaulted, and he fied that Johnson was assaulted, and he fined Bethune $20 and bound him over in the sum of $100 to keep the peace.

Franks was fined $5.

George Midwinter, of the Arlington Hotel, pleaded guilty through Mr. George S. Kerr, to a charge of obstructing Inspector Birrell in the discharge of his duty. Mr. Kerr said that Midwinter's bartonder had alocad that Midwinter's bartonder had alocad that midwinter's duty. Mr. Kerr said that Midwinter's bar-tender had closed the door in the inspec-tor's face but that it was without his knowledge. The Magistrate followed the precedent of Judge Landis and imposed the maximum penalty which proved to be a fine of $100.

the maximum penalty which proved to be a fine of $100.

Peebles, Hobson & Co., pleaded guilty, through Mr. Hobson, to eelling liquor after hours on Saturday night. Mr. Hobson said that the man to whom the liquor was sold lived at the same place that one of his clerks boarded at and it was personal influence that caused the infraction of the law. The Magistrate imposed the minimum fine, $50.

Constables Bainbridge and Hawthorne were called to 49 Hughson street north about 4.30 this morning to take charge of three young men whom Norman L. Smith accused of theft. Henry Smith, Frank McGinn and Joe McGarr were the nafnes they gave and numerous addresses were given. Smith beards at Norman Smith's house and late last night took his friends to his 'room, and it is claimed that in the "wee sma" hours of the Smith's house and late last night took his friends to his room, and it is claimed that in the "wee sma" hours of the morning the men stripped the house from top to obtain. They were arrested in a room in the garret and it is enid a lot of the lost articles were recovered on them. The Crown Attorney asked for a remand till Wednesday, which was granted, and the three prisoners were refused bail.

John Badeau, 75 Robert street, was lined, $2, for being drunk and disorderly

John Badeau, 75 Robert street, was Jined $2 for being drunk and disorderly on King William street last night.

Thomas Johnson, 303 Mary street, was remanded till Monday to give the police a chance to find the owner of the rachet brace and bit found on him.

Frank Martin, Montreal, Mike Tucker, Jackeon street east, John Dougherty, Barton, and John Crossover, Waterdown, were fined $2 each for being drunk.

Borden Denies the Sworn Story of His Henchman.

(Montreal Herald.)

Mr. Graham, of the Montreal Star, said on oath, in the course of a trial that took place right after the elections of 1904s, that he had received certains instructions from Mr. Borden. "About the 24th of October—23rd or 24th of October—1 received a letter from Mr. Borden, the chief, telling me that moneys must not be handled by any person, I believe — I won't quote the exact words, but to the effect that money must not be handled by men in the party, in public life, or words to that effect, and that it was better to have, in oach Province, persons appointed who were in every way acceptable to the party, locally. I sent a copy of that to all the different Provinces where I was giving my assistance, if will be remembered, consistence in "making them gifts of means?" took place right after the elections of

INCREASES TO TEACHERS.

Collegiate Institute Instructors Are the Fortunate Ones.

Dr. Robert's Offer to School Board Wasn't Accepted.

Action Deferred by the Committee Till Next Meeting.

The Internal Management Committee of the Board of Education last night ecommended! that the salaries of several of the Collegiate Institute teachers be increased. On motion of Messrs. Howell and Lazier, it was decided to increase the salary of Principal Thompson from $2,200 to $2,500, beginning Sept. 1 and to give him a yearly increase of $100 till $3,000 is reached. Inspector Ballard was given an increase from $2,200 to $2,-500. James Gill and A. Patterson are to Chairman Howell remarked that the doctor's letter was very different from the letters generally received from employees of the Board. No action was taken on it, the secretary being simply instructed to acknowledge the receipt of it.

There was some talk with reference to the qualifications of some of the teachers, both in the Public and High Schools. Some time ago Inspectof Ballard was instructed to bring in a report to the committee of the qualifications and capacities of the Public School teachers, the idea being that any who were reported on unfavorably should be dismissed.
