AMONG THE JEWS

News Notes About Them From All Over the World.

A series of articles are being printed in the Temps, Paris, written by a Constantinople correspondent, dealing with the Jews in Palestine. The writer states that the number of Jews in Palestine is increasing daily, and the Sultan of Turkey will soon find that they are a valuable asset in his empire. Within ten years, says the correspondent, Palestine will have fully two million Jews. The Jews emigrating to Palestine are not paupers, but agriculturists, professional men and merchants, who go there on account of their attachment to te Holy Land.

Cholera has reached Jerusalem from a country nine days' journey across the Jordan eastward of the Holy City, and every precaution is being taken to prevent the disease from revisiting Palestine. A five days' quarantine has been declared on all individuals coming from across the Jordan, and soldiers from the local garrison have been sent to superintend the cordon there. Happily the climate is such as prevents any epidemic from spreading. demic from spreading.

Some ray of hope for the amelioration of the Finnish Jews has been created by the order of the Czar to dissolve the Finnish Parliament. It was anti-Semitic to the core, and has outdone the cruelty of the Russians in expelling women and children, many of whom have, succumbed to the elements. While no one can predict what the next Parliament may do, it surely will not be worse than thet one that was dissolved.

FOR THE BLIND. Matilda Ziegler Magazine Can be Had.

The Matilda Ziegler Magazine is The Matilda Ziegler Magazine is a monthly magazine for the blind, which was founded by Mrs. Wiliam Ziegler, of this city, about a year ago. She has been sending it free to the blind of the United States who can read either one of the two types in which it is printed, New York Point or American Braille. We print an edition in each of these types, giving the reader the edition he prefers.

types, giving the reader the curion ne-preiers.

Mrs. Ziegler spends more than $20,090 a year in this work, which I believe is one of the greatest philanthropies of modern times, as there is little literature printed for the blind, and it is so expen-sive that few of the blind can afford t purchase it. The book "Ben Hur," for instance, that we get for less than SI in ink type, costs $10.50 in type for the blind.
