BANQUET OF THE LAYMEN.

Church of England Laymen's Movement Has Good One.

Fine Addresses by Canon Tucker and Hon. A. B. Morine.

Successful Event in St. Thomas Church School Room.

A banquet under the auspices of the Church of England Laymen's Missionary Movement was held last even'ing in St. Thomas' schoolhouse. Over two hundred and fifty members of this great movement surrounded the festive boards. The success of the movement, which started about two years ago was plainly evidenced. The clergy were well represented at the meeting, nearly all the local divines being present and his Lordship Bishop DuMoulin graced the guests' table. Clergy from outside points were also present. The banquet started at 7 o'clock sharp and an excellent support was served by Caterer Knapman. 7 o'clock sharp and an excellent supper was served by Caterer Knapman, while Lomas' orchestra discoursed excellent music from a platform in the rear. Mr. George C. Coppley was in rear. Mr. George C. Ceppley was in the chair and in opening the meeting made a touching reference to the enforced absence of Archdeacon Forneret, who is in the City Hospital.

George C. Coppley opened the speechmaking at 8 o'clock with a short outline of the aims and objects of the society and what it had already accomplished. Rev. Canon Tucker was then introduced. He complimented the members on the fine turnout and said that Hamilton lead the Dominion in Freemasonry and in patriotism and is the cradle of the Canadian Club. But above all these, he said, Canada, and more especially Hamilton, lead the world in mission work and mission work is the very essence and mission work is the very essence of Christianity. He spoke of the mission work of the period when Christ was in the flesh. "Do you think ne died on the cross for only langlish people? No! He owns the world. people? No! He owns the world. He says all souls are his and they are to be his."

New Brantford Council Will Submit By-law to People.

Dr. Wingate Recalled-Cause of Dentist's Death. (Special Despatch to the Times.)
Brantford, Jan. 12.—The Brantford
City Council, judging from the inaugural proceedings yesterday, promises great things this year. Contrary to usual procedure, there was not a crossfire of any description when the new product of the Citizens' League got together. If the Council does not do anything all year it will be sure to carry out the one matter to which it is pledged, viz.,
the submission of a local option by-law

the submission of a local option by-law without the petition signed by 25 per cent, of the ratepayers.

Aldermen Montgomery and Miller yesterday went over to the Citizens' League on that issue and the result is the new Council, which is at best largely made up of temperance men, is almost unanimous—on the local option question, Mayor W. B. Wood, who is a brother of ex-Mayor D. B. Wood, now business.

Local trainmen went to London last
