The Infallible Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

ERYSIPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS' DURATION
CURED.
Copy of a Letter from Geo. Sinclair, Esq., of Paris, Canada, dated the 18th July, 1854.
To Professor Holloway.
Sir,—I feel a pleasure and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your inestimable Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered unceasingly from attacks of erysipelas; large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which affected me both night and day, rendering life a misery to me, as well as to all around,—so severe was the attack. I used several repaid remedies without deriving the least cessation to my misery. At last, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills; after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better;—in three months, by continuing with your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. The truth of this statement is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy.
I am, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

ULCERS IN THE LEG.—REMARKABLE CURE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th May, 1854.
To Professor Holloway.
Sir,—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg; in which there were several deeply seated and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully, and it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about five weeks she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known.
I remain, Sir, your most obedient servant.
(Signed) EDWD. TOMKINSON.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR!

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Malden, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854
To Professor Holloway.
Sir,—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There were several holes in it one as large as a hand; all the devices and strappings I tried would not heal them, but it assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and we offer you our united thanks for the cure effected.
I am, Sir, yours truly,
(Signed) HENRY MALDEN.

MY HOME.

My home is in a valley fair,
'Tis near a streamlet's flowing urn;
The fairest flowers blossom there,
And there my thoughts do ever turn.
And my ne'er forgotten home,
The steepy hills, so very high,
Which I ever loved to roam,
When evening winds were passing by.
I love the rill, so deep and clear,
Which by that cottage swiftly goes,
And oft my heart it seems to cheer,
For it so gleeful ever flows.
Oh yes! I love my home, sweet home,
For there I spent those youthful days,
When I for pleasure loved to roam,
In childhood's gleeful, sportive plays.
At close of day, when sombre shades
Begin to usher in the light,
And silence deep, the world pervades,
I dream of home throughout the night.
But most of all, those friends I love,
For whom I often seem to sigh,
When I in mem'ry wander back,
To when I bade them all good-bye!
JOHN G. MCKAY.

THE HOLY PLACES.—The Marquis de Forbin-Janson, who was sent some time ago to Jerusalem by the French Government, for the purpose of inquiring into the encroachments made at different times by the Greeks upon the Holy Places belonging to the Latins, has at length accomplished his mission, and is now on his way back to France. Among the Holy Places in question is the great church of St. Mary at Bethlehem, the nave and four aisles of which, exclusive of the choir, have become a kind of bazaar, often frequented, it would seem, by the rising generation of the above-mentioned town as a capital play-ground; in the evening the women assemble there to enjoy the coolness of the place, and the Bedouins of the neighbourhood make it their council-room, where they adjust differences among themselves. The choir is in the hands of the Greeks and Armenians, who celebrated there worship their, and nothing is left to the Roman Catholics but a small chapel, which cannot contain one-fourth of the Latin population. The other sanctuaries, the restitution of which is claimed by the Latins are—the great dome of the rotunda of the Holy Sepulchre, the monument and small cupola enclosing the tomb of Jesus Christ, the stone of the unction at the foot of Golgotha, the seven arches of the Virgin behind the Magdalen Chapel, the Sepulchre of the church of the Virgin of Gethsemane, and the birthplace of our Saviour, in the crypt under the choir of the church of Bethlehem. During his stay at Jerusalem the Marquis de Forbin-Janson was decorated with the order of the Sepulchre by the Latin Patriarch, who is the Grand Master of that Order.—
