

MISCELLANEOUS.

DECAY OF IRON RAILINGS.

Every one must have observed the destructive combination of lead and iron from railings being fixed in stone with the former metal, and the oxygen of the atmosphere keeping up the galvanic action between the two metals.

A naval officer being at sea in a dreadful storm, his lady was sitting in the cabin near him, and filled with alarm for the safety of the vessel, was so surprised at his composure and serenity, that she cried out:

"My dear husband, are you not afraid? How is it possible you can be calm in such a dreadful storm?"

He rose from his chair, dashed it to the deck, drew his sword, and pointing it to the breast of his wife, exclaimed:

"Are you afraid?" "She instantly answered, "No." "Why?"

"Because," rejoined the lady, "I know this sword is in the hand of my husband, and he loves me too well to hurt me."

"Then," said he, "remember, I know in whom I believe, and that He who controls the winds and holds the waters in the hollow of His hand, is my Father."

TO PRESERVE FLOWERS IN WATER. Mix a little carbonate of soda with the water, and it will preserve flowers for a fortnight, but the water in flower-pots should be changed every day in summer, or it will become offensive and unhealthy, even if there is salt in it.

AIR IN BEDROOMS. It is said that a bird suspended from the top of a curtained bedstead in which people sleep will generally be found dead in the morning, from impure air. Small, close rooms, in habitations of the poor, are ill-ventilated as the curtained bedstead.

CHINESE WALL. Dr. Bowring, in a recent lecture on China, said, speaking of the great wall, that if all the bricks, stone and masonry of Great Britain were gathered together, they would not furnish enough material for such a structure.

POSTAGE ENVELOPES. M. Firon tells us that the idea of a post-paid envelope originated early in the reign of Henry VIII. with M. de Velayor, who in 1658 established (with royal approbation), a private penny-post, placing boxes at the corners of streets for the reception of letters wrapped up in envelopes, which were to be bought at offices established for that purpose.

It is important to have the pork well cooled before salting, and it should not remain unsalted very long after cooling. It should never be allowed to freeze. It should always have a great supply of salt, and of the strongest quality, and brine should be made and poured into the barrels. For if nothing but water is put in with the salt, the pork may be injured before the salt is melted enough to make good brine. The meat should have a weight upon it to keep it under the brine; or for pieces of meat are permitted to rise above the brine, and remain there for any considerable time, they will be tainted and will not taste sweet, as well salted meat always will. A wooden cover is often used to keep the meat under the brine, but a stone cover is better. A hole may be drilled in a stone cover, and a handle inserted, at a very small cost. Agitation of the pork barrel daily will have the effect of preventing the accumulation of scum on the surface, or it may be skimmed off as soon as it rises.—Ec. Paper.

"MOTHER IS NOT WILLING I SHOULD GO." This remark was made in the writer's hearing, a short time since, by an intelligent, amiable youth, in reference to attending a place of worship where it is believed error is taught, and as it involves a most important principle, is worthy of a passing notice.

Obedience to parents is surely not a peculiarly prevalent principle with the modern youth, but wherever it is seen, given large promise of future good. Where is the young man who seeks the counsel of an experienced father, or defers to the advice of a judicious mother? Happy, indeed, were such instances common.

Eager for selfish gratification, thirsting for riches or fame, many have no sooner entered upon the theatre of life than the maxims of prudence are scornfully flung aside, and a reckless career begun, regardless of its consequences. Thus it is we see multitudes of the rising generation casting off the fear of God and man, while licentiousness and fraud, distrust and ruin abound.

Parents, see to it that you exercise a watchful care over your children, especially your sons. Seek first of all their conversion to Christ, and seek it early, before Satan and the world have gained dominion there. Seek it in sincerity, for they will read your sinist thoughts. Daily commend them to your gracious Redeemer, and set before them a consistent, godly example, and you may expect the Divine blessing on your instructions and training.

I cannot but think that the secret so much reckoned abroad is to be found in a more irregular, ill-appointed homes of the young.

If every young man could say, "my mother is not willing I should go" to the club-room, to the theatre, to the gambling-table, to the many haunts of vice, and places of sinful amusement to be found on every hand, and refrain his feet from going, how many families would be spared amidst wretchedness; how many precious souls might be rescued from eternal perdition.—American Messenger.

MOTHERS. By the quiet fesside of home the true mother, in the midst of her children, is sowing, as in vases of earth, the seeds of plants that shall sometime give to heaven the fragrance of their blossoms, whose fruit shall be a spray of angelic deeds, and the ever expanding souls of her children to her mother the noblest offering. Every word that she utters goes from heart to heart, with a power of which she little dreams. Sober is the thought; but not more solemn to the Christian mother than the thought that every word that falls from her lips, every expression of her countenance, even in the stroller's walk of her retirement, may leave an indelible impression upon the young souls around her, and form, as it were, the underlying stratum of that edifice which, upon the top of which, the celestial being, and give to the white brow of the angel, next to the grace of God, its crown of glory.

Doctor Hoofland's

GERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philad., Pa. WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE LIVER COMPLAINT, BILIOUSNESS, JAUNDICE, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach.

The proprietor, in calling attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended. It is no new or untried medicine, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unimpaired by any similar preparations extant.
