Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a lameness in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

By Taking

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

FARM & GARDEN SEEDS.

SEEDS from scrubs will grow scrubs in vegetables, roots or grain. What the careful farmer wants is the best of the best of them all.

Our Prize Winner Swede Turnip took both first and second prizes at the Provincial Exhibition last fall. The year before Turnips, Mangels, Potatoes and Fodder Corn specimens were selected from our Special Exhibit of these articles and sent to the London Exhibition, for which the growers have received Diplomas and Medals. Vegetables from our Seeds took nearly half the prizes at the last Exhibition here. Our grains and grasses have grown equally well, though the record is less conspicuous.

What the successful grower must have is not only the best in name, but perfect Seeds of the best in name. How many farmers in a hundred practice these easy precepts? How many farmers in a hundred are careful farmers, successful growers? How many would do well to consider these old facts? Are you of the few or the many? Would you rather have $5 this Spring or $10 next Fall? That is, will you use the best Seeds this year? If you wish to, then send for our Catalogue, which tells you how to get and grow them.

Valedictory Address.

To Mr. James H. Monaghan, Teacher.

DEAR SIR,—Having learned with deep regret that you propose leaving your present post of duty at an early date, we, the inhabitants of Thistle and Shamrock School District, beg leave to address you, previous to your departure, and express our very high appreciation of your valued services during the two years you have been engaged in teaching.

Your methods of unfolding and expanding the intellectual faculties of the pupils under your charge, together with the skill in management and discipline, so apparent in the government of the school, have given the most entire satisfaction; and we feel assured that under your instruction, not only in the advanced, but also in the rudiments of general knowledge, so essential at the outset, our children have been laying the foundation for a good thorough education.

Your general deportment, while among us, as a friend and a Christian, has been uniformly of an elevating tendency, exerting a gradual, yet constant and powerful influence over those with whom you have been associated, and especially over those under your constant instruction.

We congratulate you upon the well-earned reputation accorded to you by the Inspector, of having your school in such a satisfactory condition.

Most gladly would we have retained your services in the future, had it been possible for you to have remained, but we must, though reluctantly, acquiesce in your decision.

In saying "good bye" for the present, we sincerely hope, that wherever you may go, or in whatever sphere of labor you may engage, you may meet with that success which you deserve, and which uprightness of conduct and devotion to duty are always sure to win.

With our best wishes for your welfare,
We remain, yours truly,
OWEN HUGHES,
DONALD MCKENZIE,
JOHN KELLY,
WILLIAM MCKENZIE,
PATRICK OWENS,
JAMES KELLY,
JAMES M. DUFFY,
On behalf of the inhabitants of said School District.

REPLY:

To Owen Hughes and Donald McKenzie, Esquires; and Messrs. John Kelly, Wm. McKenzie, Patrick Owens, James Kelly and James M. Duffy, on behalf of the inhabitants of Thistle and Shamrock School District.

GENTLEMEN,—Words fail me to express my thanks for such a manifestation of esteem and affection contained in your address, which you have just presented me.

This unexpected expression of kindness from those with whom I have lived so long, and with whom I have spent so many pleasant hours, I shall ever cherish, with fond remembrance, as an honorable memento and enduring certificate of the good opinion of men whose approbation is really valuable.

It is with feelings of sorrow, I sever the ties that bind me to this place; but wherever my lot may be cast in the future, I shall always be pleased to know, that I carry with me your esteem and affection. If I have been at all successful in my work, much credit is due to the parents, who have helped and encouraged their children at home, and also to the trustees, who have taken such a deep interest in school matters.

I can assure you, that if my poor services have given satisfaction, I feel more than amply rewarded. I shall always look back with pleasure to the time spent in the school-room, where I found the pupils diligent, thoughtful and kind. My wish for them is that they may be successful in prosecuting their studies, and when their school days are ended, they may be prepared to fill useful positions in society and the world.

Thanking you for your kindness in the past, and hoping kind Providence may favor you with health and prosperity in the future,

I remain, yours truly,
JAMES H. MONAGHAN, Teacher.
