THE suit in Chancery brought by McKinnon & McLean, and Mark Wright & Co, judgement creditors of Henry T. LePage against the Gowdy Manufacturing Co., of Guelph, Ont., to set aside an absolute conveyance and assignment of the real and personal property of LePage, made by him to the Co. last February has been settled by the Co. agreeing to give up all they received from LePage, upon the payment of his indebtedness to them.

SOURIS has made a move in the matter of a fire department. At a meeting of the townspeople held there on Thursday it was decided to hold a tea party on Dominion Day to raise portion of the funds; and the secretary was requested to correspond with the fire departments in other places regarding cost, organization etc. By holding their tea party on Dominion Day, it would clash with the picnic proposed to be held by the B. I. S., of this city, and which has been previously announced. This would be really too bad, should it occur, as many of Charlottetown's pleasure seekers would thus be deprived of a blast of Souris invigorating sea breezes.

THERE are some Postmasters in this Province who, to say the least, have a very slipshad way of doing their business. For instance a bundle of papers was returned to this office a few days ago, ranging in dates from January 21st to March 18th They were addressed to D. J. McDonald' but they had no marks on them to indicate from what Post Office they came, or to show why they had not been called for. Now as we have on our books, more than one person of this name it is impossible for us to know whence they have come. If the person to whom they were addressed has left the place, the Postmaster surely did not require from the 21st of January till now to discover that fact, and having found it out should have so stated, as he is, or should be, supplied with proper blanks for that purpose. We would call the Post Office Inspector's attention to this matter, as it is quite evident that any one who does his business in this way is scarcely fit to discharge the office of Postmaster.

PROMPTLY at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the commodious store of Jas. Paton & Co. was, as announced, opened for public exhibition. From that hour, and more especially after tea, until the closing at 9 o'clock, the large number of persons who took advantage of the show, must indeed have been a source of pride to the members of the firm. Before entering one was irresistably forced, so captivating was the scene, to halt in your onward march and view the richly appointed show windows. In the east, arrayed in Bengaline white silk, dotted with orange blossoms, stood a charming bride, while the background and foreground were artistically set with lace, embroidery, feathers and flowers of variegated colors. To the left of the bride was a beautifully executed needle-worked fire-screen, the work of the ladies of Convent de Notre Dame. The west window was handsomely draped with art muslins of various shades and styles. On entering one was struck with the profusion of articles shown in every line of dry goods. Ascending the stairs to the second floor brought us to the carpet department. Here a charming sight presented itself Carpets, the finest of texture, of all styles, and colors, loomed up before our gaze. Off this department was set a miniature drawing-room, with its usual concomitants of carpet, tapestry etc., and so naively arranged that one felt like entering and resting a while. Altogether the energetic firm, and its efficient corps of clerks, are to be congratulated on the highly successful showing made.
