BOMBARDMENT OF ALGIERS. 1816. For centuries the Algerines had been a terror in the Mediterranean. They attacked ships of every Power, and carried the crews into slavery. The English Government determined to put a stop to this and after a severe bombardment of some hours the Dey agreed to liberate all Christian slaves, and to pay a large sum of money for compensation.
JAMES THOMSON died 1748, aged 48. Scottish poet, author of "The Seasons." His most finished work is the "Castle of Indolence," the work, at intervals, of fifteen years. He excelled more in descriptions than in episodes or reflections, yet the "Castle of Indolence" has characterizations of a very high order.
ROYAL GAZETTE first issued 1806.
The patriot. Who, firmly good in a corrupted state, Against the rage of tyrants singly stood inviolable. —Thomson.

Summer Skin Troubles

Sunburn, blistering, and irritation are the commonest form of summer skin troubles, and Zam-Buk ends these very quickly. It works in two ways. As soon as applied, its antiseptic powers get to work and kill all the poison in a wound, a sting or a sore. This generally ends the smarting and the pain. Then Zam-Buk begins the healing process, and fresh healthy tissue is built up. For sore, blistered feet, sore hands, heat rash, baby's heat spots, sore places due to perspiration, etc., you can't equal Zam-Buk. It also cures cuts, ulcers, abscesses, piles, and all inflamed and diseased conditions of skin and sub-jacent tissue. Druggists and stores everywhere sell Zam-Buk, 50c. per tablet. All stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

Aeroplane Committee Meeting.

A meeting of the Aeroplane Committee was held at the Board of Trade Rooms last evening and was presided over by the Chairman, Mr. W. G. Gosling. Mr. Charles Steer, the Secretary, presented the report of the sub-committee which was adopted. Mr. Clift reported that the total amount received to date was $32,113.57, including the amount subscribed by the Messrs. Reid for a Renault Biplane. The sum of $28,950.00 had been remitted for two gun-mounted and one smaller aeroplane, which left a balance of $3,261.14. The matter of purchasing machine guns was then discussed, but in view of the fact that the Newfoundland Regiment had been fully equipped with machine guns, it was decided to recommend to the Patriotic Association that the balance of the fund be devoted to the purchase of additional aeroplanes. The matter will be finally decided at the next meeting of the Patriotic Association. Mr. Clift then read the following extract of a letter received from the Secretary of the Overseas Club:—"It may interest your Committee to know that the largest amount contributed for aeroplanes from any part of the Empire was from Newfoundland."

The Man Who Sank the Lusitania.

M. Gustave Hervé's paper, La Guerre Sociale, publishes the following remarkable story of the sinking of the Lusitania in the form of a telegram from Milan:—"The order to sink the Lusitania arrived on May 2 at Heligoland, and aroused the indignation of all the officers. More than one was beside himself. The order was nevertheless carried out by the U 21, which left under the command of Lieutenant Hersing. "The writer of the letter was on board his ship when Hersing returned from his expedition, and was able to take note of the contempt which all the officers manifested towards him. Without daring to lift his head, he muttered, 'It went against me to act as I did act, but I could not do otherwise.' He was crying.
"He then told how none of his men knew the object of the voyage, and how several times he was on the point of letting them into the secret in the hope of seeing the crew mutiny. "I tried to avoid witnessing the ghastly scene which followed, and made away from the torpedoed liner at full speed. Then I came to the surface. The sea was crowded with struggling wretches; even at that distance I could hear the shouts of the shipwrecked. I had become a man of stone, incapable of moving or giving an order."
When next scrambling eggs add just a few slices of sweet green pepper, chopped fine, and cook in a little butter.
A slice of potato is an excellent thing to clean white oilcloth which has become disfigured by hot-cooking utensils.

American Newspapers Agree

That the United States Faces Grave Crisis.
New York, Aug. 26.—Editorial expressions this morning show that the press of the United States looks on the torpedoing of the steamship Arabic as causing a very grave crisis in the relations between the United States and Germany. What the newspapers say is given herewith:
The Washington Herald says:—"The gravity of the situation that has been forced upon us cannot be magnified. We are strained to the breaking point with Germany. There is no virtue in further forbearance. Whatever its results, the quarrel is of Germany's seeking. The President and his advisers must now determine upon a course of action, for act they must, and American people are more early prepared for a severance of diplomatic and commercial relations with Germany than they are for the abandonment of what we have been contending for in the name of humanity, civilization and justice."
The Philadelphia Inquirer says:—"It has been a long time since the Lusitania was torpedoed. Many days have gone by since the United States sent an ultimatum to Germany on this subject of murder. Surely every submarine commander has had his orders since then. Are we to assume from this Arabic accident that there is no intention on the part of Germany to respect the ultimatum? If so then the days of friendly relations between the United States and Germany are limited. The murder of one American must call for positive measures on our part either that of the confession that we are only bluffing."
The Boston Globe says:—"It will be a question of doing, not talking. President Wilson has exhausted all peaceful and usual means to protect American lives upon the seas. He cannot now repeat what he has already asserted three times. Should investigation prove that it was the Germans who have again jettisoned international law, then they have torpedoed the good will of the United States."
The Boston Herald says:—"Is this the answer? When President Wilson dispatched to Berlin his last note on the Lusitania case, it was commonly observed that he would look to the Atlantic other than to Berlin for his answer. Now that answer may have come. It is too early to discuss what the United States should do about it. We must have the facts. If they are as they now seem the 'strict accountability' message with which our President opened the discussion will stare him and his fellow countrymen in the face."
The Chicago Herald says:—"Friendship itself prompts it (the United States) to say to the Imperial Government that repetition by the commanders of German naval vessels of acts in contravention of those rights must be regarded by the Government of the United States when they affect American citizens as deliberately unfriendly." President Wilson to Germany, July 21, 1915.

Enthusiastic patrons were once more delighted with the excellence of the entertainment given at the British last night. Mr. P. J. McCarthy, Madame Olive Timmons and Mr. H. Allen surpassed their previous efforts in the musical portion of the programme. The two former artists sang the American serenade, "Underneath the Stars" magnificently, whilst Mr. Allen's masterly accompaniments were all that could be desired. To-day at 3.30, 8.30 and 10 o'clock Madame Olive Timmons will sing the beautiful old world songs: "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose" and "The Last Rose of Summer." Mr. P. J. McCarthy will accompany her. Five choice photo-plays have been selected. Beginning to-morrow at 7.30 Mr. Allen will provide the photo-play music so that a musical treat is in store for prospective patrons.

The Teutonic Allies Nearer a Break.

Zurich, August 21.—The tension between Berlin and Vienna over the Polish question has been increased rather than diminished by the visit of Baron Burián to Berlin.
The Austrian Poles, who know the iron-handed harshness with which the Prussian Government treats its Poles, refused to yield a single step in their demands that Russian Poland be put under rule of Franz Josef. Because of this deadlock, the Kaiser cannot make an entry into Poland, for on that occasion he must make a proclamation to the people.
Meantime German national enthusiasm is cooling down rapidly as the meagre strategic results for the tremendous sacrifices begin to be realized. If after these Germany must turn over the whole conquest to Austria, the explosion of its indignation is inevitable. At the same time Burián dare not give way, as the defection of the Poles in Austria at the present moment would reduce the monarchy to chaos.

The performing dog, Don is a little wonder and seems possessed of almost human intelligence. He can imitate Charlie Chaplin to perfection. To-morrow at the children's matinee there will again be shown The Royal Punch and Judy show. Punch and Judy will appear in a new act "Who Stole the Biscuits" and Don, the children's delight, will dance The Merry Widow Dance and also other tricks.

Collegians Dined.

Last night at Woods' Restaurant the supporters of the Collegian Football Club entertained the team on account of their success in winning the League Championship this year. A very pleasant evening was spent and the following toast list was honoured:
TOAST LIST.
"The King"—Prop. The Chairman: Mr. C. H. Hutchings; Resp. "God Save the King."
The Methodist College—Prop. Mr. H. E. Cowan; Resp. Mr. S. P. White-way.
Song—Mr. S. J. Tucker.
Collegian Football Club—(League Champions, 1915)—Prop. Mr. W. J. Higgins; Resp. (Capt.) H. Barnes; H. Aldershot, England. It is a splendid barracks and we are certainly enjoying it. Here there are some thousands of soldiers. It is our last "shove off" and then we will be in the firing line. It won't be long now before we'll get our orders. It is a hard struggle on both sides. Don't worry, we'll soon come back again. I think that this is all for this time.
Badajos Barracks—August 25, 1915.
Dear Sister,—Just a few lines to let you know that I am in the pink of condition, hoping that you and all at home are the same. We are now at Aldershot, England. It is a splendid barracks and we are certainly enjoying it. Here there are some thousands of soldiers. It is our last "shove off" and then we will be in the firing line. It won't be long now before we'll get our orders. It is a hard struggle on both sides. Don't worry, we'll soon come back again. I think that this is all for this time.
I dearly love my parents. Now this is what I say. May God protect and guide them when I am far away.
It is a cruel war. And that you all know well, I am one of the volunteers that boarded the Florizet.
Now, mother, it is time to say please for me do not fret. For our cause is right, and for it we'll walk in the jaws of death.
My parents love I'll never shun I remain their loving son.
With a fond good-bye from yours most sincerely,
LANCE-COPL. J. J. SHEEHAN,
No. 35 B. Company,
1st Nfd. Regiment.

"OURS" IN THE WEST END.
The pictures at the West End Theatre are splendid and the popularity of the little house is well known. Mr. Rossley intends making further alterations shortly. Always a reliable show at Rossley's West End Theatre.
BRITISH THEATRE.
Enthusiastic patrons were once more delighted with the excellence of the entertainment given at the British last night. Mr. P. J. McCarthy, Madame Olive Timmons and Mr. H. Allen surpassed their previous efforts in the musical portion of the programme. The two former artists sang the American serenade, "Underneath the Stars" magnificently, whilst Mr. Allen's masterly accompaniments were all that could be desired. To-day at 3.30, 8.30 and 10 o'clock Madame Olive Timmons will sing the beautiful old world songs: "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose" and "The Last Rose of Summer." Mr. P. J. McCarthy will accompany her. Five choice photo-plays have been selected. Beginning to-morrow at 7.30 Mr. Allen will provide the photo-play music so that a musical treat is in store for prospective patrons.
THE CRESCENT PICTURE PALACE.
The Crescent Picture Palace winds up the week with a big show of five pictures every one a feature. "The Legend of the Amulet" is a classy Indian romance, genuine Indians are engaged in the production of this drama. "The New Reporter" is a political drama with all the Biograph stars. "Fanny's Melodrama" is a fine Vitagraph production featuring Lillian Walker. "Jim's Vindication" is a strong Edison story of an ex-convict who reforms and is the means of reforming others. Swedenie, the popular Crescent Comedian, appears in "The Landress," this is one of the best Swedenie comedies shown yet. Mr. Harvey Collins whose singing is so much enjoyed by Crescent patrons sings: "I'm Falling in Love with some one Down in Bom Bom Bay."
MR. DUGUID FAREWELL'S AT THE NICKEL TO-NIGHT.
The brilliant movie artists Florence Labadie and Sidney Bracey will be seen in a powerful two-part melodrama, entitled "Graft vs. Love" at the Nickel Theatre this evening. Then there is the Vitagraph sensation "By the Governor's Orders" with Maurice Costello in the leading role. "The Hazards of Helen" will also be continued. Forbes Law Duguid, the great Canadian baritone sings his farewell song to-night. Francis J. MacGuire, a tenor, will be heard at the Nickel next. To-morrow there is a big matinee for children with "The Million Dollar Mystery" repeated. Monday there will be a three-part Vitagraph social-drama featuring Nelson Gardner.
THE WISHING RING AT ROSSLEYS.
A very laughable racing act at Rossley's last night. It is entitled "The Wishing Ring" Olive Russell, lady baritone singer, and Jack Russell in their various songs delighted the crowd. The performing dog, Don is a little wonder and seems possessed of almost human intelligence. He can imitate Charlie Chaplin to perfection. To-morrow at the children's matinee there will again be shown The Royal Punch and Judy show.
