JUNIOR POLICE.

The welfare of the growing generation is receiving more attention these days than ever, and junior organizations of boys and girls are being formed up in all large cities, the object of the banding together being that of mutual help and self-improvement, as well as a desire and willingness to render service to all classes of humanity, with whom the members may be brought in contact. Among such juvenile organizations are the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, troops of which have been formed in various parts of this dominion. It was only a few days ago that the City troops of Scouts closed a most successful camp, at which the boys enjoyed themselves highly, and proved, to their own satisfaction, at least, that there was something to be gained by being worthy members of an imperial association whose aim is the development of good citizenship by the formation of young characters, training the youths in habits of observation, obedience and self-reliance, the inculcation of loyalty and thoughtfulness for others, and the promotion of physical development and a thorough knowledge of hygiene.

The newest juvenile organization for boys has recently been made in Halifax, Nova Scotia, where some few days ago, sixteen lads were presented to the Mayor and Aldermanic Council as aspirants for a junior police patrol to look after and protect all property, trees, plants and flowers in public places from the wanton destruction that is usually carried on by frequenters of parks, gardens and playgrounds, in all cities, and to be generally active in all good works. Membership in this novel and useful association requires (1) Loyalty, (2) Diligence, (3) Humanity, (4) Friendship, (5) Courtesy, (6) Cleanliness, and a promise is made by each lad that he will be faithful and true to these principles. The promise, or pledge, is read to those who desire to become members, each one standing with uplifted hands, in ratification of the same, and is as follows:

- I PROMISE
- 1st—To do my duty to God, King and Country.
 - 2nd—To protect all property, trees, plants, flowers, from unlawful destruction.
 - 3rd—To be a friend to all animals.
 - 4th—To help other people at all times.
 - 5th—To be courteous to my superiors, parents and particularly women and children.
 - 6th—To always play fair, and to be clean in thought, word and deed.
- St. John's has some beauty spots, which have been enclosed and placed under the care of the city administration, as haunts of recreation for those, who at the end of their day's work, wish to spend an hour in relaxation from care and worry; and as in the case of other places there are many who go to these public resorts who do not care how much they destroy or damage, not always in a spirit of maliciousness, but with the desire, common to all, to destroy something for the pure pleasure of destruction, which, after all is said, is an inherited trait of humanity in general. A junior police patrol would obviate a lot of this in our own public places, and the good that could be accomplished by enlisting the services of a squad of young lads, bound by the above promise, whose duty of love it would be to protect and safeguard the natural beauties of the city parks and other recreation grounds, would quickly be manifested.

Financial and Statistical Campaign.

George Street Methodist Church. Promptly at 9 o'clock last evening the campaign workers of the George Street Methodist Financial and Statistical Campaign sat down to supper. At 9.30 the Chairman, Mr. C. P. Ayre, called the workers to report through their Captains. There was an equally prompt and enthusiastic response, which showed an excellent days work had been done, and $3,249.18 added to the workers' pledges, making $5,125.28 for the second day's work. As the Campaign has three days more to run and the response from the people is so encouraging, there is no doubt the objective $8000, will be reached. The Chairman congratulated the workers and encouraged them to fresh efforts. He then called upon Hon. R. A. Squires, Chairman of team 16, who was present as a guest, and Mr. Squires responded with an eloquent and encouraging address, in which he emphasized the value of organization, compared the value of service with the value of money and gave a most practical assurance of the sympathy of team 16 by announcing a contribution of $100 from the latter.

Division Chairman F.H. Steer, then addressed the meeting and assured the workers of the readiness of George Street congregation to respond to the call of their Church; and showed that attendance at picture shows costs more than the average church contribution. The team pennant was won by team No. 1, Mrs. Horwood, Captain, on the women's side, and by team 6, Captain Pratt, on the men's side. Mr. Chas. Peet won the medal for individual work. The Campaign meets again to-night at 9 o'clock. Following is the result of the day's work:

Society Engagements.

We notice by the London Illustrated Sunday Herald of the 13th inst. that the engagement of Miss Flora Clift, of St. John's, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. J. A. Clift, K.C., to Capt. James Hugh Campbell, grand-nephew of the late Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, for several years Liberal premier of Great Britain, has been announced. The issue also contained splendid photographic illustrations of the contracting young couple. Congratulations.

Remarkable Success Attending Drive -- $302,000 Reported Last Night--Two More Days to Go.

Another enthusiastic meeting took place in the Methodist College Hall last evening, when the reports of the day were handed in and announced. Wildest enthusiasm reigned as these were read and it was easy to see that great rivalry exists between the various teams and the divisions. Over 23,000 was yesterday's amount, so that the $3000,000 mark has now been passed. Not quite fifty thousand remains to be collected and there are two days in which to do it. For this reason the outlook is very bright and all feel sure—have since the beginning—that the objective will be reached. The reports were:

Peace Celebrations.

YESTERDAY'S MEETINGS.
The meeting of citizens called by the Mayor for yesterday afternoon to consider a programme for celebrating peace, was attended by a representative gathering. Lady Horwood and Mrs. Gosling were present, representing the W.P.A. Mayor Gosling presided. After Secretary Slattery had read the minutes of the previous meeting, the Mayor explained the object of the meeting and pointed out that if anything was to be done it had to be done quickly as the time was very short. Some discussion then followed as to the most suitable form of celebration, after which Sir Patrick McGrath moved, seconded by Mr. Collishaw, that an executive committee be nominated by the chairman to arrange a programme and carry it out. The following committee was then appointed: Sir Michael Cashin, Hon. J. R. Bennett, Mr. J. J. McKay, Hon. W. J. Ellis, Sir P. T. McGrath, Messrs. J. O. Hawvermale, H. R. Brookes, W. S. Monroe, D. M. Baird, A. Montgomery, E. C. Collishaw, T. Kennedy, W. J. Higgins, F. Bradshaw, H. E. Cowan, A. Hiseock, Mayor Gosling and J. L. Slattery. It was resolved that the ladies of the W.P.A. be invited to assist, particularly in the children's festival, and Mrs. Gosling intimated they would do their best, though the time was short. A meeting of the W.P.A. is called for 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, in the Board of Trade Rooms. The general meeting then adjourned.

The Committee Meets.

At 9 o'clock last night the committee met at the Board of Trade Rooms, and earnestly got to work. It was unanimously decided that the children should have a large share in the rejoicing and a festival is to be arranged to secure all the city bands and that of Bell Island for the two days, if possible, and it was decided to erect six dancing platforms, three each in Victoria and Bannerman Parks, where the lasses may enjoy themselves to their hearts' content. The Colonial Secretary was asked to arrange for the ringing of the church bells on both days. For the limited time at their disposal the committee have mapped out a big programme, and it is to be hoped that citizens generally will heartily co-operate and

These having been given, Rev. Canon Bolt took the opportunity to offer a few words of advice. From the very beginning, he said, fullest reliance had been placed in the organizing manager, Mr. Stoll, and it has turned out that everything he had prognosticated had been correct. He advised the campaigners to bend their backs for the last spurt and to throw themselves into the fight for one last effort.

Rev. Dr. Jones, in his usual inimitable style, now delivered the most inspiring remarks heard since the big campaign opened. Illustrating his points with stories and anecdotes, he was enthusiastic in advising earnestness and perseverance for this one last sprint. He had no doubt as to the ultimate result.

The most important feature of last evening's meeting was Mr. Stoll's announcement that henceforth workers could solicit without assignment cards. This, he said, must not be taken to mean a last desperate effort, but really constituted a part of the system. The singing of the National Anthem brought the proceedings to a conclusion.
