Pontifical Mass at St. Patrick's Church.

Yesterday at St. Patrick's Church His Lordship Bishop Renouf of S George's officiated at Pontifical Mass, and following the ceremony, the laity of the Parish presented him with an address and purse of gold. The Christian Brothers' communities of Mt. St Francis, St. Bonaventures and Mount Cashel also made a presentation of an address and gift. This was followed by addresses from Christian Doctrine Society of St. Patrick's, the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's and the Knights of Columbus. Bishop Renouf replied to the different addresses from the Altar in full Pontifical robes wearing the beautiful Mitre presented by the people of Trepassey, and carrying the Crozier, which is the gift of the people of St. Bride's, in which both parishes His Lordship served. The Bishor thanked the people for their kindness of the day, and the great support and co-operation given him during his pastorate at St. Patrick's which he was leaving with many regrets. He asked for the same support for the new Pastor. At the Mass His Lofdship was assisted by Rev. Fr. Joy. P.P., Port au Port as Deacon, and Rev. A. Nolan P.P., St. Jacques as sub-Deacon. His Lordship was attended at the Throne by Rev. W. O'Flaherty, P.P., Trepassey and Rev. Fr. Callan, P.P., Wood's Island, Very Rev. Dean O'Rorke attended as High Priest and Rev. Christmas !!!

Christmas !!! No season so looked forward to by young and old. no other so well-loved, none so merry. Full to the last happy minute of joy, laughter and music. The smallest cottage, the largest mansion has within its walls Christmas music, Christmas would lack one of its greatest sources of amusement and happiness.

Why not let "Columbia" supply your Xmas music? Why not let your gift to your friends be some worth-while offering of a nice selection of good records? Why be without Christmas music when Columbia Grafonolas bring good music within the reach of all? Think it over, and let this 'sound' advice sink in.

The Columbia Graphophone Co. take a pride in adding to their already famous list of singers and instrumentalists all the world's best artists as soon as humanly possible. The most famous operatic stars, most wonderful violinists, pianists, cellists, the most beautiful 'grouped' music, ALL that the musical world proclaims the BEST is re-produced, and placed within the reach of the humblest music lover.

The United States Picture & Portrait Co.—the Colony's representatives of the Columbia Graphophone Co.—beg to announcé to the music-loving public of St. John's that they carry in their Grafonola Dept., at the present time, over 10,000 "Columbia" records of all descriptions.

One of the most popular models, simple and dignified in build. Beautiful rich tone quality and exceptional volume. Equipped with threespring motor. In Fumed or Golden Oak. Price $100.00.

Apart from its exquisite perfection of reproduction, this handsome Cabinet Grafonola is a joy to the eye in its austere beauty of line and build. It is fitted with the Columbia non-set automatic stop. Finished in English Brown Mahogany with Satinwood Marqueterie. Price $360.00.
