WILLIAM NOSWORTHY, LTD.,

TRINITY

Dr. and Mrs. Sinclair came to Trinity by the Prospero on Thursday week. All the town and his wife turned out to greet them and to welcome them. The members of the Committee were present to meet them. Some of the members took them to Garland Hotel, and others looked after their luggage; and every effort was made to assure them of a whole was made to assure them of a whole hearted welcome and to make them feel at home. They are now at Garland Hotel, where for the present, they will occupy the rooms just va-cated by Dr. and Mrs. Barlow. The doctor's first call to duty came early the morning after his arrival. One of our highly respected citizens—Mr. William House, had been knocked down by a nuncheon of molasses that had run amuck, and it was feared that ne was badly injured. The doctor, however, found no bones broken, and assured him that he will he all right. He is glad and so are Heart's Content, and enjoying the fullest confidence of his employers We are proud of you, boys.

Some seventy or eighty years ago there was a house in the upper part of "the big garden" in Trinity, opposite Green's Well and a lane led from the Well, across the little garden to the Well, across the little garden to the house. The house was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Power and family. About two hundred yards in a direct line up the hill behind the house, on the top of the steep ridge that is there to-day, Mr. Garland had a tall flag staff erected. It had been there for years. Then Satan tempted there for years. Then Satan tempted two boys to cut down the staff some dark night. It was only the work of a quarter of an hour with a handsaw, and the deed was done. The boys, however, had not looked very far ahead in their mischievous plan; hence they had not thought of where the staff would go when it fell. They spending his annual holiday with parents and friends at his home had it struck the ground than it shot down the hill with the velocity of a sky-rocket.
