J. E. McELDERRY 2 DAY'S BLOCK,

THE NOTED TEA HOUSE

Winterbourne Items.

THE CHOPS. — The winter wheat is all safely housed around here. The sample is good and crops were fair; some would have 35 bushels per acre where it was sheltered, and the soil, sandy loam; but in heavy soil and where exposed, it was very thin on the ground. The crop all through will average 20 or 25 bushels per acre. Spring wheat looks well and promises to be a good crop. Oats are splendid and last Monday some fields were being cut between Breslau and this village. Peas will also soon be ready. Those having flax are busy pulling it; the crop is heavy. Potatoes look well, but as in other places, the bugs are troublesome. Turnips look well, and judging from present appearances, will be a very heavy crop. Mangle Wurtzel looks well; those I have seen must be all of 5 inches in diameter.

USEFUL BOOK. — I have spent a short time in examining Dr. Hartwig's work on the "Polar and Tropical Worlds," and find the book not only well executed in type, illustrations, &c., but what is far more valuable, the reading is deeply interesting, the regions treated of are well described and the information contained in the book is worth many times its price to any intelligent family. A thoughtful reading of this work would store the mind with information such as could be obtained only by years of travelling.

Geo. A. Yeomans, Pastor, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Winterbourne.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT WINTERBOURNE. — An accident of a very serious nature occurred on Sunday evening last to the wife of Mr. Samuel Burnett, of Woolwich. It appears that Mrs. Burnett was in the barn attending to the usual chores, when she stepped upon the unsupported end of a board, falling upon its edge, which, strange to say, tore a long gash in the abdomen, inflicting a most dangerous wound. She is under the care of Dr. Fasmore of Conestogo, Dr. Brock of Guelph being called in consultation; and with proper nursing may recover. This family, having only last week buried a child, which died of infantile fever, receives a great deal of sympathy from the community.

SCROFULA. — For the cure of Scrofula and other skin diseases there has never yet been found a remedy so equal, in completely eradicating the disease, Fowler's Pills and Humor Cure. Every bottle is warranted to give satisfaction; give it a trial; it has cured hundreds, it might cure you.
