

Mr. George Suffel Dead

Death claimed the best known, and most highly respected citizen of the county on Saturday night last, a gentleman who for over thirty years conducted a store in Vienna, and who held many positions of honor and trust during that time. Mr. Suffel was esteemed and respected wherever known and his death is a decided loss to the county. Besides a loving wife, seven children survive, all grown up. They are Mrs. Burwell, of Port Burwell; Mrs. M. Callum, Minnesota; Mrs. Gunn, Gorrie; William J. Duluth; Alfred, Minnesota; Edward, Vienna; and Frank, Green Bay.

For a number of years Mr. Suffel has been a resident of St. Thomas, in which city he died. The Journal gives the following particulars of his death:

On Saturday night Mr. George Suffel, a gentleman well known throughout the city and county, died very suddenly at his residence on Southwick street. Although he had not been in good health for a number of years there was nothing in his appearance or actions on Saturday to indicate that life was drawing near to its end. On the contrary, Mr. Suffel on Saturday afternoon and evening was in unusual spirits. For three days he had been free from nervous spasms, to which he was subject, and he was consequently cheerful, playing during the afternoon with a neighbor's child and in the evening conversing with a friend with a friend who had called. He afterwards read the paper and shortly after ten o'clock retired to rest. Mrs. Suffel remained up a little longer and found her husband still awake when she went into the bedroom. A few minutes before 12 she was aroused by Mr. Suffel, who complained of a choking sensation, somewhat similar to what he had suffered from last winter when he was troubled with congestion of the lungs. He went to the kitchen for a drink of water but returned hurriedly without securing it and sat down in the parlor. Mrs. Suffel immediately went for water, and on returning found her husband in deep pain. He asked for ammonia and mustard, and while Mrs. Suffel was absent for a moment he got up from his seat and moved toward the sofa, but fell before reaching it, and when his wife reached him he was evidently dying. Dr. McLarty was at once summoned, but before he arrived Mr. Suffel had expired in the arms of his devoted wife. From the time he was taken ill until death was not more than half an hour. The physician gave it as his opinion that heart failure was the immediate cause of death.

About School Books

The schools will soon open up again. Everyone seems glad when "school starts," even the children like to get settled down to work again, after a well earned pleasant holiday. There is one unpleasant feature about it, and that is that as the pupils advance new books and School Supplies have to be bought for them, especially when the educational department keep changing the text books all the time. This year they have changed the writing books, and now the Public Schools have to use the "Vertical Writing Books." We looked forward to this change, and have bought largely of them, as well as enough of the text books now in use.

IN OUR WINDOW this week we display a sample of our stock of books and school supplies, to remind you we are bound to have our share of the book trade. School Books are always sold at the one price, but School Supplies are not. We have extra good values in these lines, as we have said before, "Our Goods are not the cheapest perhaps, but we guarantee everything to be the best."

ERN. A. CAUGHELL,
DRUGGIST AND STATIONER.

To Ruptured Persons.

In his circular J. Y. Egan, the hernia specialist, 266 West Queen Street, Toronto, says:—"Parents assume a grave responsibility by neglecting their children where the latter suffer from, or show symptoms of, Hernia—an affliction dangerous in childhood and a constant menace to its life. Our readers, especially those whose cases are serious, have now an opportunity rarely offered of consulting this gentleman, who will give examination and advice free, when you may know your true condition, and this at the hands of a master in his profession. By private advice he announces a visit to St. Thomas, Grand Central Hotel, Wednesday, Aug. 26th; Aylmer, Brown House, Thursday, Aug. 27th. Read his announcement in another column under the head of 'Rupture.' Also read the following testimony from your own neighborhood:

Mapleton P. O.
Dear Sir—I have given your Truss four months trial and am well satisfied, as it holds me completely. In fact the Hernia has never been out of place during that time and my general health has much improved. Should you visit Aylmer or St. Thomas again I shall be pleased to call and see you. It is better than you promised and exceeds my own anticipations.
JAMES MOORE.

GROVESIDE

Miss Minnie Maw, of Aylmer, is visiting at Mr. John Hankinson's.

Mr. Cameron, of St. Thomas, was the guest of Miss Clara Hankinson last Sunday.

Mr. E. Doolittle has commenced to build up his mill dam which went out last spring.

Mr. Milton Marlatt and the Misses Pontine and Ferguson spent Aylmer's civic holiday in this place.

Rev. Mr. McCutcheon, of St. Thomas, preached last Sunday evening to a large congregation in the absence of Mr. Creighton. He preached a very interesting sermon.

We understand that John O. Williams has entered his trotting horse, Wind-Splitter, in the free-for-all race at Port Burwell on the 20th inst. The general opinion is that John will win first money.

While Mr. Sam Hankinson was sliding up part of Mr. Ingram's house last Friday night he fell some fifteen feet to the ground alighting on his head and shoulders. He is in a bad condition and the doctor has no hopes of his recovery.

Arthur D. Campbell, formerly of this place, now of Detroit, Mich., with his friends H. F. Ingersoll and E. B. Latham arrived at this place on Wednesday of last week on a bicycle tour and after visiting a couple days with R. H. Truman proceeded on their way to St. Marys from which place they will return to Detroit.
