McCarthy's Appeal. LONDON, Oct. 23.—Justin McCarthy, eader of the anti-Parnellites in the House leader of the anti-Parnellites in the House of Commons, has issued an appeal on behalf of evicted tenants in Ireland. He believes that the reliance of the Irish race spon the Government in this matter will be justified. It would be difficult, he says, to imagine that any class of the community would offer irreconcilable opposition to Gladstone's reinstatement of the Home Rule Bill, that matter being one of the first conditions of permanent peace in e Bill, that matter being one of the conditions of permanent peace in Papal Funds Going to England. LONDON, Oct. 23 -The Rome correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, commenting the fact that Barluzzi and Signo on the fact that Barluzzi and Signor Petacci have gone to Paris to arrange for the eventual investment of the Papal funds, and the transfer of the Vatican treasures in the event of warto a place of safety, says the property of the propaganda will be specially protected by mortgage if necessary. "Well," said the old man, as he swallowed his chagrin and listened to the cheering outside. "I am glad they are giving him the reception he deserves. He is the best Governor-General Canada could possibly have and they ought to be proud of him. He is a second Lord Dufferin and his dear wife, her name is a household word in Great Britain and associated with all that is charitable and kind." But the crowd had vanished in a hurry and they left the old fellow still talking.

It was 6:14 when the train pulled in amid a deafening tumult of cheers. The train was so long that the Governor-General's car was away down in the yard to the west of Richmond street. After a slight delay the train drew ahead a short distance and brought the car abreast with the plat-assembled were satisfied. Loud cheering from the street announced the coming of the party. First came the staff, consisting of Capt. Urquhart (the private secretary). Capt. Kindersley and Mr. Erskine. These gentlemen were full dress suits with military buttons, the collars of the coats being of biue silk. Next came Lord and Lady Aberdeen, Mayor Essery and Mrs. Essery, Col. Smith, Major Vidal, Capt. Cartwright, Capt. Deniron, Lieut. Carpenter and Surgeon-Major Hanavan. Next followed the full Board of Aldermen, accompanied by their wives, with the exception of Ald. Taylor and Scarrow. Also to be seen were City Clerk Kingston and Mrs. Kingston, Engineer Graydon and Miss Graydon, Master Arthur and Miss Grace Essery and many others. Lord Aberdeen was neatly attired without any attempt at show, and won the hearts of all prosent by her charming and affectionate manner.

After the party had been seated Mayor Essery, in a short speech, welcomed Lord and Lady Aberdeen, on behalf of the citizens of London. It was, he said, a great honor and pleasure to have such an appeared visitor reasons.

The Banquet. It was after 10 o'clock when the banquet commenced.
