Mayor Rumball and the Thomas Charges.

The Free Press people have backed down, but not gracefully. They should have acknowledged that they were not justified in libeling ex-Mayor Rumball. They should have acknowledged that he seconded the resolution to have the investigation, and not asserted that he flew into a passion and refused the investigation. It is as gross a libel as the story about the fans. We assume that Mr. McCormick, Mr. Purdom and Mr. Gilmour can afford to let them sneer. If Mr. Beck's reputation as & public man stands on any such foundation as the fan story, and this latest Free Press libel, it is a very rotten substructure, and we doubt not also that the trustees named, as well as any who ever sat at the board, can defy the Free Press to point to one wrong act done by any of them in the administration of hospital affairs. It is, however, a satisfaction to know that the Free Press has not yet dared to defend Mayor Beck's conduct on the occasion referred to.

The Hague, Feb. 1.-There was unwonted activity in diplomatic circles here this morning, and it was generally believed to have had some connection with the Dutch note to Great Britain regarding peace in South Africa. The German ministers, Count Von Pourtales, had a long interview with the British minister, Sir Henry Howard; The first secretary of the British legation, A. F. G. Leveson-Gower, unexpectedly started for London, and the Dutch foreign minister, Baron Van Lynden, had a conference with Dr. Kuyper, the premier of the Netherlands, and subsequently had an audience of Queen Wilhelmina.

London, Jan. 31 .- The British reply to the Dutch note was dispatched yesterday to The Hague. Consequently, the meeting of the British Cabinet today had nothing to do with the terms of the note, which will be given to parliament on Monday, Feb. 3.

The Associated Press has reason to believe that its original summary of the Dutch communication was correct, with this addition, that the Dutch suggested that Wessels, Wolmarans and Fischer, the Boer delegates now in Europe, be permitted to go to South Africa in an endeavor to persuade the burghers in the field to surrender. Lord Lansdowne, the foreign secre-tary, doubts the ability of the Boer delegates to control their fellow countrymen, and there seems little likelihood that the Dutch Government can ory enough to induce Great Britain to accede to the original request. CHASING DEWET.
