LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Miss Gladys Flock is spending a month in Toronto with relatives and friends.

—Miss Gertrude Baker, York street, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mills, of Lambeth.

—"An Argument Between a Lover and a Judge" will be Rev. T. T. Shields' subject Sunday evening at the Adelaide Street Church.

—Several members of the class of '05, London Medical School, were the guests at dinner last night of Dr. Leonard G. Rowntree, of Philadelphia.

—Mr. J. T. Little, of Little Bros., Vancouver, B. C. (agents for D. S. Perrin & Co., Limited), who is east on a combined business and pleasure trip, is spending a few days in the city.

—Mr. Little, who is an old Ontario boy, has thoroughly imbibed the spirit of the great west, and has all the breezy western enthusiasm.

—A very pretty wedding took place on the Howard Town Line, Kent County, on Christmas Day, when Mr. Ethelbert Muckle, of Langdon, Alberta, and Miss Josephine Horne, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horne, were married by Rev. D. E. Martin, of this city. Over a hundred guests were present. The gifts were numerous and costly.

—The annual Sabbath school entertainment and Christmas tree of the Hamilton Road Methodist Church was held on Thursday evening and was very successful.

Friends of the school were there in large numbers to enjoy the programme. The children were delighted with the coming of Santa Claus, and the distribution of the presents, which covered the tree. The superintendent, Mr. H. Pocock, presided, and the pastor, in a few words, wished all a Happy New Year.

—Mrs. MacKay, of London Junction, is spending a month with her mother, Mrs. Moss Robertson, of Detroit.

—Miss Dexter, of Fargo, Minn., who has been spending a few months with her aunt, Mrs. Blair, of Central avenue, leaves for her home on Monday next.

—Miss Constance Fraser, of New York; Mr. Fred Fraser, of Montreal; Mr. Harold Fraser, of the Royal Military College, Kingston, and Mr. George Fraser, of the Dominion Bank, Toronto, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fraser, 77 Stanley street.

—Anniversary services will be held in Chalmers Church, corner of Waterloo and Grey streets, tomorrow, in connection with the Sabbath school. The pastor will give a special address to the young in the evening. The anniversary entertainment will be completely changed this year. A musical programme of an interesting character will be given on Jan. 3 and 4.

—Some very fine cards from all over the world have been received by the members of the Seventh Regiment sergeants' mess. Among them were two splendid ones from the military depot at Hounslow, England, from the Fifth Royal Fusiliers of the permanent force, and the Seventh Royal Fusiliers of the militia. Handsome greetings were also received from the Duke of Connaught's Own Rifles of Vancouver.

—Miss Kirk, who is one of Glenora's popular teachers is spending her Christmas holidays at her home, 383 William street, city. At the close of an interesting programme given by her class on the closing day of school, the pupils presented her with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, and a flattering address, expressing their appreciation of her untiring effort to guide their minds in the paths of knowledge.

—The wedding is announced in the near future of Miss Nellie V. Dean, one of the most popular young ladies of Copenhagen, Ont., daughter of Mr. R. S. Dean, and sister of Mrs. T. E. McNamara, this city, to Rev. Wallace Jones, ex-missionary to the Cree Indians, late of Prince Albert College, now principal of the McDowell School, and pastor of the Methodist church, of McDowell, N. W. T. Mr. Jones is a nephew of the late Rev. Peter Jones.

—The Sunday School of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, West London, held their anniversary Christmas tree entertainment Thursday evening.

The church was prettily decorated and a very pleasant evening was spent. The little folks gave their recitations and songs in a very creditable manner. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Nixon, is also pastor at Hyde Park, and a number of his congregation at the latter place drove in and gave several numbers of the programme, which were much enjoyed. The thanks of the school are also due to other friends who kindly assisted.

—Loyal Wolseley Lodge, Canadian Order of Oddfellows, held a very enjoyable smoking concert last night in Society Hall, Dundas street. A large number of the brethren were present, including many visitors and members of Loyal Star of the West and Perseverance Lodges. The chair was taken by Lieut. J. T. Hennessy, and the following contributed to a very excellent programme: Messrs. H. Wheatcroft, J. Middlemiss, A. J. Morris, J. E. Woodward, — Collins, F. Tucker, A. Moir, F. M. Cox, C. F. George, Drs. A. E. Ardiel and B. E. Wilson, and others. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and during the evening light refreshments were served. Wolseley Lodge, which has only recently been organized, has already secured a large membership, and bids fair to become one of the most popular in the city.

—Hon. Wm. Patterson, minister of customs has fixed Jan. 17 as the date for hearing the request of the customs clerks for an increase in salaries. Every port will be represented at the meeting. London will probably send two delegates.

—A very large audience filled Winthrop Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, when Rev. Walter Moffat, of London, delivered his illustrated lecture entitled "A Modern Babylon."

—Dr. George McGuffin and family, of Titusville, Pa., who attended the wedding of the doctor's brother, Mr. John McGuffin, of 463 Dufferin avenue, have returned home. While here Dr. McGuffin attended a reunion of the family at the old homestead in Nisour.

—Principal Kirk, who has been ill for the past few weeks, wishes to thank the teachers of Aberdeen school, the students of the Model school, and his many personal friends who so kindly remembered him with gifts of flowers, for Christmas, wishing each a bright and prosperous New Year.

—The Protestant Orphans' Home has again been cheered by a kind donation of $20 from the Lotos Club, per Mr. R. Forriest, treasurer, for which the trustees are deeply grateful. A collection of dolls was received from Miss McLean's class of the Stanley Street Church. This was much appreciated.

—Mr. J. T. Little, of Little Bros., Vancouver, B. C. (agents for D. S. Perrin & Co., Limited), who is east on a combined business and pleasure trip, is spending a few days in the city.
