"Champeen" Hands Out Political Pole Wins First Fall at Chicago Advance Dope for One Wright.

BLUFFING WILL NOT GO SECOND COMES EASIER

So Did Flynn, But the Poke Counts.

John Arthur Johnson is quite strong in He made a political speech the other night for a man named Wright.

Not long ago Johnson preached a sermon from the pulpit of a negro church. Give the old boy time and he will be crowding Booker T. Washington hard for the oratorical honors. In conversation Johnson is an easy and fluent speaker.

Judging by the stenographic report of Chicago, March 31.—Stanislaus Zbyszko, of Poland, won the privilege of meeting Frank Gotch for the wrestling championship of the world, by defeating Yusiff Mahmout, of Turkey, in two straight falls at the Coliseum last night.

The first fall was a crotch-hold and Johnson is an easy and fluent speaker.

Judging by the stenographic report of Jack's political speech, he did not find himself at a loss for language.

"Next Fouth of July," said John, bringing out the point that a man ought not to be afraid of what other people say, "there will be several thousand people around that ring. A few of them may holler 'Good!" at me, but the most of them will holler 'Rotten!" and they will want to see me licked. I will have to do my level best, no matter what they think or in one and one-half hours of wrest-

"Here's where I'm going to tear your diving into a clinch.
"Is that so?" said Mr. Johnson.

There wasn't any answer to that query, or before Flynn could open his mouth ohnson shut it for him tight as a vise match with Gotch in sight. The crowd showed patience with the slowwith a right uppercut, and Mr. Flynn crowd showed patience with the slow-curled up and went to bye-bye. Burns Failed.

Some Goat Getting. Some Goat Getting.

There may be an attempt at a little goat-getting before the big fight next July. It would be nothing new for Jeff to try it, for he took a lot of heart out of Fitz on the night of the Coney Island fight by visiting him in his dressing-room and slamming him around like a sack of meal under pretense of finding out the champion's views about clinches and how to come out of them.

All the tricks will be working this time, from raw bluff to mental suggestion, and All the tricks will be working this time; from raw bluff to mental suggestion, and when it comes down to the real thing months of preparation and nights of thought may go for nothing before one pile-driying smash on the point of the chin. That's the way the game goes.

Cincinnati, March 31. — Resourceful Clark Griffith, leader of the Reds, determined to make Bob Bescher, his crack base-stealing outfielder. the Ty Cobb of the National League, and to this end is doing his best to make Bescher bat left-handed.

Griffith sent Bescher a batting device which originated in the fertile brain of "The Fox," with orders to stand up and whale away from the The device consists of a regulation league ball, sewed inside an extra cover, to which stout rubber cords are attached. One of the cords is fastened to the ceiling, and the other to the floor, so that the ball swings about When struck the flexible cord permits the ball to swing several yards, and it returns with great speed. Then it is time for the batter to get busy with the club, and soak the sphere again. It surely promises large things for the batting eye. Bescher, who is a big, strong fellow, is naturally left-handed, but unfortunately he was coached to bat right-handed when a kid, and has swung from the far side of the plate ever since.
