[Canadian Press.] Bordeaux, Sept. 22.—11:45 a.m.— Madame Paul, head of the French Women's Ambulance Corps, has sent a report to the Government from Etain, in the department of Meuse, in which she described the bombardment of a hospital at that place by the Germans on

August 24. The first shot from the German artillery, Madame Paul declares, brought down the Red Cross flag on the roof of the building, and a fragment of this same shell shattered a basin at the side of a table upon which Dr. Proust. of Violate the Humanities as Well as the Paris, was operating on a serious case. The doctor then moved into a room in another wing of the building, in which there were five wounded German soldiers. The shells began to fall faster, and finally this section of the building had to be abandoned. The wounded
