NERVES AND

Sent Woman to Bed. Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ontario.—"After my girlie was born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand or walk without s. I suffered with fainting spells pains. I suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer any good for my household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I should have an operation, but I was not in a fit condition at that time. My neighbor said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? I am sure it will do you good and will save those doctor's bills.' So I was advised by my husband to try it after I told him about it. I am very thank-I told him about it. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as rooms were scar e at that time. My baby is 17 months old now and I have noty is 17 months old how and I have not yet had an operation, thanks to your medicine. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to a few people I know and have told them the good it has done me. I know I feel and look a different woman these last few months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in the house. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only too glad for those suffering as I have to know what it has done for me."—Mrs. ROBERT G. MACGREGOR, R. R. No. 2, Sarnia, Ontario.

A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound report 98 out of 100 received beneficial results. C

C. P. R. President Opposes Amalgamation of Two Lines.

Special to The Advertiser by Staff Correspondent. Detroit, May 18.—After all these ears, the Canadian Pacific Railway should not be asked to carry the burden of the Canadian National Railways and its annual deficits. This, in brief, was the opinion expressed tonight by E. W. Beatty resident of the Canadian Pacific Railway, discussing the proposed malgamation of the C. P. R. and the C. N. R. on a public ownership basis. Public ownership, whether of railsystem will prove detrimental to the people's wishes in the end, he argued, and no matter how conscientious its tive of party alliances, politics is ound to creep in, he believed.

It is Mr. Beatty's opinion that the people of Canada, content with their present service from the Canadian Pacific Railway, do not now, and would never anticipate the suggested nationalization of that line. "It will never come." he said decisively.

"The agitation is chiefly talk at various proponents may be, irrespec-

Ottawa among a few of them," he said, adding that he thought the move was non-political and precipitated by a few members of parliament, with a rew members of parliament, with a conscientious, though mistaken, idea of what was best for Canada's future railroad development. Mr. Beatty referred to the Canadian Pacific's long history and its ploneer work as a colonizer of the Canadian

The Canadian Pacific president and his immediate staff spent but a few hours in Detroit. They were the guests tonight at a dinner at the Detroit Athletic club with Michigan railroad executives as the hosts. Mr. Beatty's visit to Detroit was purely social. He accepted an invitation of long standing, and toured Michigan Central and other local points of interest and left at midnight for London.

Holeproof Hosiery FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES-No. 8

The Consumption of Tea

Tea as a beverage is used in nearly every country in the world. It is estimated over 200 billion cups are consumed annually. Australia leads in tea drinking with an annual per capita consumption of about nine pounds, which means that every Australian consumes from six to eight cups of tea every day. The consumption per capita in England is 81 lbs., and in Canada nearly 5 lbs. In the United States, it is less than 1 lb., but this is largely because Americans have not been able to get fine teas until comparatively recently. "SALADA" is considered one of the choicest blends on the market, and is the largest selling tea in either United States or Canada.
