Kitchener, June 3.—Mike Baker used o southpaws tonight in an effort to na double-header from the Colts and its take the series but he failed in attempt. The Tecs won the first ntest handily 7 to 0, mainly due to sexcellent hurling of Lanky Ernie ten, but in the abbreviated engagement the henchmen of Lee fell upon te Harris' fork-hand slants and hamered out a 4 to 1 victory. In fact the Londoners fielded all all day, while Deloof, who hurled if the homesters was the victim of different support, and this was practally responsible for the Tecs two ms in the fourth, making it 3 to 0, mothe had an error and this was followed by a single and then Orme misded what should have been an out, at the Colts hit hard in the second me getting two doubles and a brace triples in their hit collection of nine. The Sixth there was a lively incident hitch culminated in Manager Knotty ee and First Baseman Jack Beatty ing to the showers earlier than they spected. Coogan and Alten were infield uts.

The visitors got another in the fifth then Baker walked, only to be thrown ut at third on Vermilyea's single but he latter took second on the throw n. Stimpson fouled out, but Kernan ingled to right. To step from sandlot baseball into a class B league and make good is a real feat in itself, but to do the same thing and be a star as well is a real outstanding feature. Cross has already attracted a good deal of attention throughout the circuit, and inquiries are already coming in from leagues of higher classification regarding his ability. While no official averages are available at the moment, it is fairly certain that Cross is away out in front in the matter of runs batted in, and that is what counts in offensive baseball. On the defensive the big fellow has done everything that could be asked of him, in fact he looks like a seasoned and experienced ball player right now.

Hits With Local Errors For Ten to Five Win.

Costly errors in the pinches, heavy and timely hitting by the Riverside lost another game for the Londor ceniors at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon. The count was 10-5. Everything went along fine for the first few innings until the Preston swatters got to Down, and then it was all off. While Down was in the box, visitors collected thirteen hits and six runs, enough to win the game. But they kept on pecking at Quick's offerings, when Hank went to the showers and put the game on ice. The locals were gesturing with the willow and finally got to Leeds in the eighth, sending him to the dugout in favor of Hales.

The locals started off on the right foot in the first frame, tallying a run through Isaacs' base on balls and Rielly's three-bagger to deep centre. The visitors came back in the second to tie it up, Talbot's triple into left and Master's clean single to centre doing the to tie it up, Talbot's triple into left and Master's clean single to centre doing the trick.

McAvoy got on when Down failed to field his bunt to the box in the fifth, and Hemphill put him in scoring position by slamming out a double to right. Talbot brought them both in with a sharp single to Arnott. In the next innings Down began to waver, and three runs were added to the Riversides' score. Masters started it off by hitting to centre for a single, and went in on Wilkinson's three-bagger over Mc-Waine's head. Leeds' choice caught Wilkinson on his way home, but he came in on McAvoy's hit off Pring's shins. Rielly's error on Hemphill's choice brought McAvoy across.

The locals managed to gather one run in their half of the sixth through two errors and a single. Isaacs got on when Masters fumbled a peg, but died on second on Armstrong's choice. Mellanby's misplay on Rielly's wallop scored Armstrong. Another run was added to the local score in the next inning. Pring's Texas leaguer to centre, a base on balls to Quick and Armstrong's single doing the work.

In the final two innings the fielding of the locals was careless, and the Health Town crew came through with four runs on four hits. The locals made a bid for the game in the ninth. Doherty and Arnott hit successively, and Baker, pinchhitting for Fitchett, rapped a hot one through the box bringing in the both of them.

Flint, June 3.—Saginaw triumphed in the third and final game of the series with the Vehics here this afternoon, dumb baseball by the Flint players being directly responsible for the loss. The score was 12 to 6.

Dick Dodson's hitting was the only bright spot in an otherwise listless game. The former Vehic player drove out a homer, a triple, a double and two singles in six trips to the plate. Welsh hit a homer, a triple and two singles in four times at bat.
