Wili Not Change Mind.

The resignation of Mr. Dennis from the Western Ontario Conservative association, which is the party machine for provincial and federal campaigns, is understood to be irrevocable. By way of explanation to the party Mr. Dennis stated that his firm, the Dennis Wire and Iron Company, Limited, of this city, is undertaking Yig extensions, and he finds that his time is taken up to such an extent that he could not give adequate attention to party campaign problems.

"No, the resignation will not be dealt with today. This is just a meeting of the Conservative candidates, not a meeting of the whole Conservative organization." "I wouldn't like to say anything about it," he added, when pressed for information.

Heavy Loss to Party.

Loss of the Western Ontario president is disastrous to the Conservative party. The work of Mr. Dennis in the last provincial election was held to be responsible for many Tory successes, and in some ridings he holds the key to efficient organization for the forthcoming federal fray. There was no other fire in the place.

Dr. W. E. Harding, coroner, has ordered an inquest. In the Conservative camp the whole problem focuses on whether or not the present member. J. Frank White, will again accept nomination. It has been several times asserted, and as many times denied, that he would prefer not to be a candidate owing to increasing pressure of business matters. If his Conservative friends succeed in inducing him to run again, there is little doubt that he will carry the Conservative nomination meeting on Oct. 2, but the mere fact that ordered an inquest.
