Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, July 30.—Motorists driving cars inadequately or improperly lighted on the provincial highway between London and St. Thomas are warned that information will be laid against them in the future. Instructions have been sent out by the highway department at Toronto to this effect, and Provincial Constable. North declares he is through warning such offenders. Conthrough warning such offenders. Constable North urges motorists to provide themselves with extra bulbs and batteries in case their front or rear lights give out as a result of a weak-ened battery or short circuit. It is understood that provincial constables patrolling the highways of Ontario will be armed in the near future. The two accidents near Welland and near Kingston, where officers were forced off the road into the ditch by speeders, demonstrated the need of such a precaution. Constable North also pointed out that American tourists exceeding the speed limits on Ontario highways had to be brought

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, July 30.—Motorists driving cars inadequately or improperly lighted on the provincial highway between London and St. Thomas are warned that information will be laid against them in the future. Instructions have been sent in the figure on the proposed bill aiming to greatly curtail press reports on divorce proceedings, which has been strongly criticized by the newspapers as undue interference with the liberty of the press, tonight issued its report, which is against the hearing of all cases in camera, and also against giving the judge authority to decide what shall be published. The committee submits an amended bill which prohibits publication in any judicial proceedings of any indeed except the following:

First, the names, addresses and descriptions of the parties and witnesses.

Second, the grounds on which the proceedings were brought and resisted, as set forth in the petition and answer.

Third, the judge's summing up, the jury's verdict and the court's judgment.

There is certain to be a strong outcry by the press against the amended bill. port on the proposed bill aiming to
