The Columbia and Kootenay service, from Robson to Nelson, appeared to be run in no person's interest—certainly not in the in-terests of the travelling public. Navigation from Rovelstoke to Robson was eight days later this year than last. Up to the date at which Mr. Davies left the district no freight had come down from Revel-stoke, but the first boat of the season had car-ried some 150 passengers. The steamers on the lake are the Galena, the spokane, and the Nel-son. Although the last is the best boat, she is unpopular because of her high charges. The other boats have reasonshie rates, sail with regularity, and are in very accommodating hands.
