

MOTHERHOOD SUGGESTIONS

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes come children there are new children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultant) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

AMHERST FIRM TO BUILD POST OFFICE

Big St. John Contract Awarded to Rhodes Curry & Co.

The reports today are that Messrs. Rhodes, Curry & Co., Amherst, have been awarded the contract for the construction of the St. John post office. So far as can be learned there were three tenders: Messrs. Rhodes, Curry & Co., Amherst; B. Mooney & Sons, and A. R. C. Clark, St. John, and the presumption is that the contract is awarded the lowest tenderer. The job is a big one involving upwards of $400,000 and will probably run close to half a million before the building is ready for use. The expectation in St. John today is that the successful tenderers will get to work with the opening of the spring and will rush the work as rapidly as possible. Several St. John builders who were approached to-day said they heard rumors that the Amherst firm were the successful tenderers for the big contract, probably the most important in the building trade to be awarded in St. John this year.

DIVIDEND DECLARED

The first annual meeting of the St. John Board of Trade Building Company was held Tuesday morning, and the report presented was a most satisfactory one. In fact, it was so satisfactory that it was decided to declare a dividend of 5 per cent, on the investment, so that the property which was bought as a home for the Board of Trade has become a dividend earner. The officers elected were: T. H. Estabrooks, president; J. M. Robinson, vice-president; Miss M. O. Magee, Secretary.

THE SCARLET WOMAN

"Kit" in January CANADA MONTHLY: Some commotion obtained in England lately over the letter in one of the London newspapers of Miss Cicely Fox Smith, who it seems has lately toured Western Canada and is now recording her impressions. They were not nice impressions, being of a crimson or vivid hue. Drunken men being thrown out of saloons followed by spittoons, and other articles of bar furniture; painted ladies of easy virtue, and too many willow plumes with the foolish remittance man—that unfortunate "blighter"—dancing about among them—seem to be all the inspiration Miss Fox-Smith got out of our last great West. It savors of comedy to see old Lady London holding up mitted hands in horror at the gay and vicious Prairie Town. Of course, Miss Fox-Smith brings in "woolly" when she speaks of Canada. Who invented the epithet? The funny part of the story is that many Brits living out West, took Miss Fox-Smith seriously, and flew to our "Colonial" rescue.

They wrote letters terribly in earnest—letters with an English accent—defending the Prairie Towns, and assuring Londoners that Canada is not another Babylon, and that the Scarlet Woman has not yet emigrated. These poor chaps are quite terribly in earnest. So is a lad from Blackpool, and who solemnly warns his countrymen against the wild and woolly, and her temptations. He tells them there is more unconverted vice in a prairie town of three hundred inhabitants than than in a dear old country city of thirty thousand, with no end of bars where women may congregate and drink like forty Sairy Gamps and have young lads with very red cheeks and very long earrings to wait on them. Imagine Calgary, or Moose Jaw, or sweet little Saskatoon, with a procession of Bats in plumed hats strolling through its respectable main street, as a Square, though the Strand and into, say Liverpool Street, in London! Of course in London the Gamps would not be thrown out of public houses at high noon, much less have such vulgar things as spittoons thrown after them, nor would all the Bats be able to support willow plumes, nor has London, or Glasgow, or Dublin, what Miss Cicely Fox Smith designates in her innocence, "twilight" districts. But we are very bad—we certainly must be very bad and lurid and scarlet out West!

Miss Fox-Smith is a regular Eye-opener. That's what she is. I wonder how she would like the title for a pseudonym.

"MY STOMACH IS FINE Since Taking Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets"

Mrs. J. Merkhuger, Waterloo, Ont., enthusiastically recommends Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets. Her experience with them, as she outlines it, explains why. "I was greatly troubled with my stomach," she writes. "I had taken so much medicine that I might say to take any more would only be making it worse. My stomach just felt raw. I read of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and a lady friend told me they were very easy to take, so I thought I would give them a trial and really they worked wonders. Anyone having anything wrong with his stomach should give Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets a trial, they will do the rest. My stomach is fine now and I can eat any food."

One of the many good features of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets is that they are so pleasant and easy to take. The relief they give from heartburn, flatulence, biliousness and dyspepsia is prompt and permanent. Try one after each meal—they'll make you feel like a new person.

CURLING BON-SPIEL AT ST. JOHN RINKS

Plans are being made in St. John for a bon-spiel under the auspices of the New Brunswick Branch of the Royal Caledonian Curling Club. It will take place some time in February and will last three days. Invitations have been sent out to all the curling clubs in the province and it is expected that about ten clubs will compete in the contest. Among the outside clubs expected to compete are Moncton, Campbellton, Newcastle, St. Stephen, Fredericton, Bathurst, Chatham, and one or two other places. Suitable prizes will be awarded to the winners, and it is the intention of the executive to make the bonspiel a memorable one, and one of the largest ever held in St. John.

BECKER IN HAPPY FRAME

Sings Hymns With the Rosenthal Gunmen

New York, Jan. 11.—Former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, under sentence of death for the murder of gambler Herran Rosenthal, continues in a hopeful frame of mind in his cell at Sing Sing Prison, according to one of his recent fellow inmates. Lawrence J. Spahr, former corporal of the United States army, who was condemned to die for the murder of his sweetheart, but who has just been sent from the death house to the jail at White Plains for a second trial, tells the story of Becker's days at Sing Sing.

"Becker confidently expects that he will get a new trial, and will be acquitted," said Spahr. "He is the most religious man in the place, and every night reads the Bible and leads in the singing of two or three hymns and sometimes popular songs in which the Rosenthal gunmen join. Becker does not talk about his case, but spends most of his time studying up the legal points of it, and he is usually in a hopeful frame of mind."

GRAVE SITUATION IN CONFERENCE

London, January 13.—A crisis has been reached in the Turko-Balkan situation and this week will see either the renewal of war or the clearing of the final obstacles from the path to a treaty of peace.

Sir Edward Grey, the English Foreign Minister, and the Ambassadors, held another meeting in the Foreign Office to-day and during the discussions no effort was made to disguise the acuteness of the situation.

The conditions are more ominous than at any previous time, as the result of the announced determination of the Turkish delegates to leave London and the threats of the envoys of the Allies to telegraph their Governments to renew hostilities against Turkey by land and sea.

Telegraphic communications from Constantinople added to the pessimism. These advices stated that if the question of war or peace is left to the National Assembly, the vote probably would be in favor of war. Rechad Pasha, the leader of the Turkish peace delegation, seemed to be the keystone in the arch of possibilities here.

Following a conference of the Turkish delegates at their hotel, Rechad Pasha said that he had received no answer to his latest request to the Porte for further instructions, and that he might not receive any reply until a vote had been taken by the Grand Council.

A report which caused great excitement in all circles was circulated to the effect that the Turks had begun to pick up their belongings preparatory to going to Paris, where they would await their last instructions from Constantinople.

It is believed that the next forty-eight hours will see a decided change in the situation, as pressure from the Powers ought, it is said, to some direction by that time.

The Constantinople correspondent of "The Times" telegraphs under date of Sunday:

"I learn that the council of Ministers today decided to summon the Grand Council, composed of members of the Cabinet and a number of the leading civil, military and religious dignitaries of the Empire, which will meet probably at the palace under the presidency of Kiana Pasha, tomorrow or Tuesday, to decide the question of peace or war."

"It is generally believed that the motive of the Government in limiting the action of Midhat Pasha in 1878, is a desire to shift part of the responsibility for the consequences of the decision on to shoulders which can aid it in bearing so heavy a burden."

"Should the Grand Council declare for peace, the Cabinet can easily accept the conditions offered by the Allies. Should it demand war, the Cabinet can take the grave decision with greater confidence. Well informed circles anticipate that the Grand Council will decide for war."

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25. OR MORE WEEKLY

We will Show You How!

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for sidle scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near New York City. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers our Sales Department has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as Vitagraph, Edison, Essanay, Lubin, Solax, Imp, Rex, Reliance, Champion, Comet, Melies, etc., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and will gladly teach you the secret of success.

We are selling Photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure
