CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—The committee in harge of the affairs of the National Rase. charge of the affairs of the National Baseball league has decided to limit the number of clubs in the league to six. They are the Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, Philadelphis, Boston and New York. The company gave a variety performance of fair merit. Besides Pat Reilly himself franchises of the Buffalo and Providence teams are now in the hands of the league, and no others will be issued. The schedule for the season will consist of 100 games, each club playing twenty games with the others, and the program will be so arranged that the fifty games played in each league city will be played in engagements of two weeks, duration at intervals of two weeks, the ought not to have been treated like a standard opera house was moderately filled last night, when Reilly & Wood's fair merit. Besides Pat Reilly himself there are some clever people in the company. See them and laugh. There will be three more performances, including a matine to-morrow aftornoon.

He perceives that he fell into a lamentable error by trusting Jarrett, and he probably is—on thinking the matter calmly over—convinced that his zeal outrant is discretion in his vivisection proceedings. So he makes no complaint on the score of his sentence. The great point urged by his adherents is that he ought not to be imprisoned because Mrs. Jeffries was only fined. This may be an argument against the imprisonment. New York, Dec. 3.—About 100 people
