Mr. Preston asked for an order of the House for a return showing the number of schools aided by grants from the poor school fund. This was apparently innocent enough but it was soon evident that the member for Leeds was bringing before the notice of the Government that in a certain section the separate schools received more than the public schools. The Minister of Education replied in effect that the grant was simply made according to the necesity the section of the sect of Education replied in effect that the grant was simply made according to the necessity of the school and implied that no absolute rule existed in the matter.

Mr. Creighton asked whether the Government got its printing done in Muskoka or at Rat Portage. This was evidently intended to be sarcastic. The printing was certainly done afar off, for there were a half-score of bills on the order paper marked "not printed." He had himself given notice of a bill about nine days ago which would take perhaps half an hour to print.

The Attorney-General replied that he would enquire into the cause of the delay.

Mr. Davis introduced a bill to amend the act incorporating the Toronto Dairy Company.

The Provincial Secretary presented the report of the Inspector of Factories from the three districts of the province.

The World was informed by a man on the inside that a good deal of dissatisfaction prevails among the faithful in the Reform party on account of the manner in which sessional positions were dealt out. "The positions of sessional writers," said The World's informant, who has done a good deal of work for the party in a quiet way, "are almost invariably given to outsiders, the sons principally of electors of rural districts." It seems that only one sessional writer has been aptacked to the party in a guaranteed to good the pally of electors of rural districts. It seems that only one sessional writer has been ap-that only one sessional writer has been appointed from Toronto, and he is the son of a Roman Catholic.

The Public Accounts furnish some interesting information. For instance, D. J. O'Donohoe is down for $125 traveling expenses.

What position does he occupy? Then there What position does he occupy? Then there is a certain good supporter who has done a great deal of campaigning, occupying a position with the Ontario Reform Associaton and at the same time receiving a good fat sum as an employe of the Government.
