Two Miners Fight Dog, Fashion in Penn-

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 26.—James Levitt and Patrick Ryan, miners, fought a battle Sunday. After fighting several rounds with here knyelled they changed their tactics and bare knuckles they changed their tactics and with hands strapped behind their backs chewed each other until both were insensible. For some years there has been a jealousy existing over Levitt's wife. The story of the fight is the most brutal relation ever read. The men were both bitten and torn horribly, and no dog fight ever equalled it. It is said the fight will be finished when the men recover.

THE SILK-WORM INDUSTRY.

Mr. Michael Basso on the Silk-worm in This Province.

Mr. Michael Basso, president of Cristoforo Colombo Benevolent Society, has taken a new departure, Believing that the climate of Ontario is as much adapted to the silk-worm industry as the sunny land of Italy. early in the spring he wrote over to his brother in the province of Rienora, Genoa, for a supply of silk-worm eggs. Two weeks ago, he received a quarter of an ounce of them, sealed up in a little tin box. Since certificates awarded has increased over 25 per cent. over any preceding year, the work throughout was of a much higher standard throughout was of a much higher standard than heretofore. The freehand drawing, modelling in clay, China painting, carving on wood, etc., are really marvelous productions, which would be creditable to students of any older country, and are an evidence that the youth of Canada have a natural taste for industrial designs with a good idea of their adaptation to our manufacturing industries:
