

Watford Guide-Advocate.

Volume XXXII—No. 26 WATFORD, ONT., FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1906. $1 a Year in Advance.

SUBSCRIBERS.

Walker's spirit of '63 was more in evidence in Detroit on July 4th than the spirit of '76. The latter was more of a political affair, and the former was more of a patriotic one. Walker's spirit of '63 was more in evidence in Detroit on July 4th than the spirit of '76. The latter was more of a political affair, and the former was more of a patriotic one.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

CHERRIES are plentiful. "PA" is a great grandpa now. OATS will be down to two. HOGS sold for 7.40 per wt. Thursday. The strawberry season is heading its close. THE K. P. Grand Lodge meets in Sarina next week. A NEW range of wool gollers for lake side wear.—SWIFT BROS. ALL kinds of wagon repairing done at the Hastings' Wagon Works. SIXTY-EIGHT tickets were sold for Petrolia at the G. T. R. depot Monday morning. PT. FRANK was provided with fishermen on Dominion Day, and many good catches are reported. FOR anything new in fancy china or dinnerware go to N. B. Howden's. FULLER & COOK shipped a car of choice shipboard to Petrolia on Sunday. THE main on a vacant lot at the south end of Main St. present a respectable appearance. Have them cut. THE Church Women's Guild of Trinity Church purpose holding a "Made in Canada Fair" early in the autumn. THE promptly set by the new hydraulic lift at the Hastings Wagon Works. No long waits. FROM the month of July we will still give 10% discount off all goods in our store for cash.—W. T. FULLER. G. T. R. has carried a law granting the Alder Foundry Co. $3,000. The firm will employ 25 skilled hands. WOMEN'S and children's fancy stripe hose, regular 18 and 20 cents, to clear 2 pr. for a quarter.—SWIFT BROS. H. A. COOK, Watford's enterprising undertaker, has added a handsome enclosed casket carriage to his undertaking outfit. ENGAGEMENT, wedding and presentation rings, fine range of high grade goods. Drop in and have a look.—E. Downing. ORDER your pineapples for canning this week at N. B. Howden's. Florida's at $1.75 per dozen, prices will be higher in another week. THE Watford Silver Band made a good impression in Petrolia Dominion Day, and received many compliments on their playing. Col. Kenward made an efficient drum major. LADIES new belts and collars. The Maude Adams and Peter Pan, ask to see them.—SWIFT BROS. THE Public Library and Reading Room will not be open in the evenings during the months of July and August with the exception of Saturday evenings. By order of the Board.—Mrs. T. G. Mitchell, Sec'y.

PERSONAL.

C. H. Baldwin is in Chicago this week. J. Hookin, London, was here this week in the interest of the Free Press. T. A. Morrow of the Merchants Bank staff spent Sunday in Hespler. N. Fowler, Dundas, was home over Tuesday. Dr. C. W. McLeay, London, spent Monday at his home here. A. Thom, Toronto and D. Thom Sarnia, were home over Sunday. Dr. Ecclestone, Inlay, City, Mich., was a Watford visitor Tuesday. Mrs. I. P. Taylor is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. W. Stewart, London. C. Walker and Frank Livingston, Toronto, were home for the holiday. Mrs. Robert Brown, Toronto, spent Dominion Day with Mrs. C. A. Class. Miss Sara Mavitt, Ypsilanti, Mich., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Class. Miss Edna Moore, who has been attending the Normal School Toronto, is home for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald McIntosh drove over from Rodney Saturday and spent the holiday with Watford relatives. Mr. Frank E. Livingston, dispenser at the General Hospital, Toronto, spent Sunday at his home here. Miss Josie Flagg, Pt. Colborne, is the guest of Miss Isabel Harris at Typhothetae Lodge. Miss Hazel Hayward, Queen's Ave., London, spent Sunday with Miss Eva Smith. G. W. Nash, O. W. Fuller, and G. A. Saunders, London, were home for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Campbell, Listowel, are spending their holidays at their home here. Mrs. A. B. Radigan, Port Huron, is spending a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Roche. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brent, Berlin, are spending their vacation with Watford and Warwick relatives. Miss E. Isabel Harris, Kindergarten diectress, Welland, is spending the vacation at her home here. Mrs. A. H. Mathers has returned from Seaford, where she has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. W. Stoddard. Misses Wilma and Gussie Alexander, Flint, Mich., are spending the holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Alexander. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Purdy, Miss Winnie Tye, Stratford, and Miss Edith Tye, St. Thomas, spent the holidays at Mrs. Tye's, Huron St. J. D. Patterson, wife and son, and H. T. Smith, wife and son, Pt. Huron, spent Sunday in Watford, on their way home from Pt. Frank. C. M. Roche is spending a couple of weeks fishing at Pt. Frank. The biggest pike ever heard of at the Port gobbled up about 60 ft. of Charley's trolling line, but he expects to land him yet. Mr. and Mrs. James Scott and two children, Detroit, are spending a few days with Walter Scott. "Jimmy" is an old Guide-Advocate type, but at present has a good position in the construction department of the Bell Telephone Co. Mrs. E. Eccles and daughter, Miss Annie, left Thursday on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Cameron, Herman, Nebraska. After visiting her sister Miss Eccles will go on to Winnipeg where she expects to remain for some time. Mr. Gordon Barnes of Winnipeg, who has been east on a business trip, has been appointed general agent for the Mutual Life Assurance Co., of Canada, for the Province of Alberta. Mr. Barnes leaves in a few days for his new headquarters at Edmonton. Mrs. S. E. Spaul, San Diego, Cal., and daughter, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. Cameron. Mrs. Spaul is a daughter of the late Thos. Cameron, who removed from the 4th line, Warwick, to the coast 47 years ago. Mr. Cameron owned the farm at present occupied by Benj. Pike.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

DAUGHTERS OF THE EMPIRE.

The July meeting of the Daughters of the Empire was held at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) Kelly, Mrs. T. G. Mitchell assisting hostess. There were 45 members present and 4 visitors. The members each represented a character from the works of Dickens and responded to roll call by describing that character. Miss Aggie Williams sang a comic song "Fishing," which was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Mitchell read an interesting paper on "The Life of G. D. Roberts" and extracts from "The Forge in the Forest." Miss Maggie Hume favored the ladies with an instrumental. Mrs. Kelly read a short paper on the Canadian poetess, Sarah Jeanette Duncan. Mrs. Fitzgerald read an account of the funeral of the late Alex. Muir and also gave an account of the "Made in Canada Exhibition" held at St. Catharines. The next meeting was appointed for the home of Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. O'Neil to assist. This meeting will take the form of a "Josiah Allan Tea." Refreshments were served and a pleasant meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

FREBLE-CAMERON.

The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Henry Freund, Colborne street, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, of one of our popular young merchants, Wm. H. Freble, of the firm of Newton, Freble, Frank street, and Miss Jessie Irene Cameron, an estimable young lady of Warwick township, well known in Strathroy. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Freble, of the Albion hotel. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. D. Daek, Alex. Cameron brother of the bride fulfilled the duties of groomsmen, and Miss Gertrude Russell, of Forest, attended the bride, who was attired in white silk gloria. Her going away suit was of grey, with hat to match. Miss Gertrude Brown rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march and little Emily Freund acted as flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Freble left on the evening train to spend their honeymoon in Michigan, and upon their return will take up their residence on Albert street. They will be at home to their friends after Sept. 1. We extend hearty congratulations.—Strathroy Dispatch.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

SPECIAL MEETING.

A joint meeting of the Town Council and members of the Board of Trade will be held in the Council Chamber this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. M. B. Lloyd, of the Lloyd Kig. Co., Minneapolis, is in town and will submit an important manufacturing proposition for consideration.

KELLY-WISHART.

At the Church of St. James the Apostle, Montreal, on Wednesday afternoon, June 27th, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Florence Wishart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wishart, of Montreal, with Dr. R. G. Kelly, of Watford, Ont., the Rev. Canon Ellegood officiating. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a white lace gown, a veil and orange blossoms, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids, Miss Edith McNice and Miss Clara Chadwick, were dressed in white embroidered chiffon with white hats, and carried pink carnations. Mr. Gordon Wishart was best man, and the ushers were the Messrs. McLaughlin, of Ottawa. After a reception at the home of the bride's father, Dr. and Mrs. Kelly left on their wedding tour before taking up their residence at Watford.—Montreal Witness. Dr. Kelly and bride will spend a few weeks visiting the Canadian West and on their return will occupy their new home on Front St. A wide circle of friends joining in wishing Dr. and Mrs. Kelly all possible happiness.

HIGH SCHOOL BOARD.

Regular meeting of High School Board held in secretary's office, June 29th. Members present, J. B. Wynne, A. Cook, J. McKercher, and T. Goodhand. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. Cook—Goodhand, that J. B. Wynne act as chairman.—Carried. McKercher—Cook, that the following amounts be paid: C. Potter, $105.00; J. McQueen, $80.00; Miss A. Johnston, $47.50; Miss H. A. McCaw, $45.00; T. B. Willoughby, $20.00; J. H. Shaw, for clearing water closets, $2.25.—Carried. Goodhand—McKercher, that we ask the council for $325.00.—Carried. Communications read from Miss A. M. Johnston asking for $50.00 increase of salary. Cook—Wynne, that on account of having to engage science teacher that we dispense with the services of Miss Johnston.—Carried. Cook—Goodhand, that we advertise in Mail and Globe for science teacher applications stating salary received up to July 15th.—Carried. McKercher—Wynne, that M. J. Scott be allowed $2.00 on next term on account of sickness.—Carried. Cook—McKercher, that B. Goodhand be allowed $1.00 on next term on account of sickness during past term.—Carried. Goodhand—McKercher, that C. Potter's salary be increased $50.00 per year.—Carried. Wm. McLeay, Sec'y.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.
When the G. T. R. section gang started west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and an investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assisting his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woolen goods through the country. On Monday evening, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 9:02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the depot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent occurrence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the semaphore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man attended Michigan University, and had a course completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one sister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad bereavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow. The remains were taken to Ann Arbor for interment Tuesday evening.

PERSONAL.

C. H. Baldwin is in Chicago this week. J. Hookin, London, was here this week in the interest of the Free Press. T. A. Morrow of the Merchants Bank staff spent Sunday in Hespler. N. Fowler, Dundas, was home over Tuesday. Dr. C. W. McLeay, London, spent Monday at his home here. A. Thom, Toronto and D. Thom Sarnia, were home over Sunday. Dr. Ecclestone, Inlay, City, Mich., was a Watford visitor Tuesday. Mrs. I. P. Taylor is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. W. Stewart, London. C. Walker and Frank Livingston, Toronto, were home for the holiday. Mrs. Robert Brown, Toronto, spent Dominion Day with Mrs. C. A. Class. Miss Sara Mavitt, Ypsilanti, Mich., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Class. Miss Edna Moore, who has been attending the Normal School Toronto, is home for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald McIntosh drove over from Rodney Saturday and spent the holiday with Watford relatives. Mr. Frank E. Livingston, dispenser at the General Hospital, Toronto, spent Sunday at his home here. Miss Josie Flagg, Pt. Colborne, is the guest of Miss Isabel Harris at Typhothetae Lodge. Miss Hazel Hayward, Queen's Ave., London, spent Sunday with Miss Eva Smith. G. W. Nash, O. W. Fuller, and G. A. Saunders, London, were home for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Campbell, Listowel, are spending their holidays at their home here. Mrs. A. B. Radigan, Port Huron, is spending a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Roche. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brent, Berlin, are spending their vacation with Watford and Warwick relatives. Miss E. Isabel Harris, Kindergarten diectress, Welland, is spending the vacation at her home here. Mrs. A. H. Mathers has returned from Seaford, where she has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. W. Stoddard. Misses Wilma and Gussie Alexander, Flint, Mich., are spending the holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Alexander. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Purdy, Miss Winnie Tye, Stratford, and Miss Edith Tye, St. Thomas, spent the holidays at Mrs. Tye's, Huron St. J. D. Patterson, wife and son, and H. T. Smith, wife and son, Pt. Huron, spent Sunday in Watford, on their way home from Pt. Frank. C. M. Roche is spending a couple of weeks fishing at Pt. Frank. The biggest pike ever heard of at the Port gobbled up about 60 ft. of Charley's trolling line, but he expects to land him yet. Mr. and Mrs. James Scott and two children, Detroit, are spending a few days with Walter Scott. "Jimmy" is an old Guide-Advocate type, but at present has a good position in the construction department of the Bell Telephone Co. Mrs. E. Eccles and daughter, Miss Annie, left Thursday on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Cameron, Herman, Nebraska. After visiting her sister Miss Eccles will go on to Winnipeg where she expects to remain for some time. Mr. Gordon Barnes of Winnipeg, who has been east on a business trip, has been appointed general agent for the Mutual Life Assurance Co., of Canada, for the Province of Alberta. Mr. Barnes leaves in a few days for his new headquarters at Edmonton. Mrs. S. E. Spaul, San Diego, Cal., and daughter, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. Cameron. Mrs. Spaul is a daughter of the late Thos. Cameron, who removed from the 4th line, Warwick, to the coast 47 years ago. Mr. Cameron owned the farm at present occupied by Benj. Pike.

MARRIED.

At Christ church, Forest, on Wednesday, June 27th, by Rev. A. L. Beverly, Mr. E. Henderson Dunham to Miss Maggie O. Ryckman, both of Forest. At the home of the bride's mother, on Wednesday, June 27th, by Rev. B. L. Hutton, Mr. Fred Marriott, London, to Freda, eldest daughter of Mrs. Wm. Hicks, Wyoming. In Seaford, on Tuesday, June 19th, Miss Minnie Donovan, of that town, to Mr. Jas. O'Leary, of Winnipeg, formerly of Petrolia.

DIED.

In Moore Township, on Wednesday, June 20th David H. Young, in his 90th year. In Petrolia, on Monday, June 25th, Elizabeth Gray, relict of the late Thomas Kirby. In Petrolia, on Tuesday, June 26th, Mary Wilman, beloved wife of Mr. Peter Zastrow, in her 79th year. At Arkona, on Monday, June 25th, 1906, Mrs. Norton, aged 82 years. In Petrolia, on Tuesday, June 19th, 1906, Isabella Karr, wife of Alex. Gillespie, aged 43 years, 5 months and 25 days. In Hamilton, at No. 50 Maria St., on Monday, June 25th, 1906, Major Frederick Siskier, formerly of Forest, aged 73 years. In Strathroy, on June 27th, Henry Alexander, aged 80 years. In Winnipeg, on Saturday, June 14th, I. F. Rosely Harner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Harner, aged 6 months. In Watford, on Tuesday, July 3rd, 1906, Violeta, beloved wife of Joseph Kerton, aged 54 years, 3 months, 18 days.