

The Age we Live In.—The spirit of the age is stern; its philosophy is material; it pretends to the moral, but the only one is the end, the other the means; though end and means go together. Mind, then, is a machine; the principal of machinery is that of packing up and pushing out. We must do the same. We must enter on new routes; we must proportion time and space by curtailing them of their old proportions, for a new race and a new rivalry are before us. Society has its states, its stages, its stations, like our rail-roads; so has knowledge, so as civilization; because, what is society but the expression of those forms which such knowledge and civilization have impressed on it? These forms speak for themselves; the signs of the times are no hieroglyphics; those who read may run, those who run may read. We must do both; we must keep packing up our new faculties, we must push on in a new direction,—no useless luggage or lumber in the way, none of those old ties that once impeded us—no looking behind, or even around but on, on we must go, for we cannot go back.—Fraser's Magazine for July.

The Value of Married Men.—"A little more animation, my dear," whispered Lady B.—to the gentle Susan, who was walking languidly through a quadrille. "Doleave me to manage my own business, mamma," replied the prudent nymph; "I shall not dance my rings out of curl for a married man."—"Of course not, my love; but I was not aware who your partner was."

Not Bad.—Sir Frederick Pellock, in canvassing his constituents the other day at Huntington, called upon a publican, who came to him across a yard, his hands filled with a quantity of pint pots. Being thus encumbered, the elector was unable to receive the usual salutation, and made his apology; upon which Sir Frederick good-naturedly remarked, "O, never mind, my friend; you are a greater man than Lord John Russell. You carry your measures, I see. All the world knows that Lord John cannot."

A Pointed Joke.—A sportsman, by touching his horse near the withers with his whip, taught him to kneel immediately: when shooting, and a dog came up to a point, he made the horse kneel, and persuaded those present that the horse was an excellent pointer. A gentleman having purchased the gelding, was forming a river with him, when, having touched his withers he was true to the touch, down he dropped in the stream and soured his new master in the water. The latter, in a great passion, asked his former owner what he meant by selling him a horse that played him such a trick in the water! "Oh! (said the other,) you bought him as a pointer, and, at the time he went on his knees, he was pointing a salmon!"

Very Wise.—A Rhode Island jury once found a prisoner who has arranged for horse stealing, guilty of manslaughter.

DOCTOR SPHON'S SICK HEADACHE REMEDY.

FOR the permanent cure of this distressing complaint, never fails. When entered in, it effectually renovates the system, and does away the causes of the SICK & NERVOUS HEADACHE. Thousands have tried it, and found precisely the relief which the article promises to bestow. Certificate of the strongest kind, and from the most respectable persons, are in the possession of the proprietor, some of which have been published, testifying to the permanent cure, and also to the immediate relief given by this remedy. It affords relief to the afflicted in 15 or 20 minutes from the first dose. It taken when the symptoms of an attack are first felt, it prevents the further progress of the complaint, and can produce danger at any time by an excessive dose; as in such a case it would only throw off the contents of the stomach, leaving it sweet and healthy with a pleasant appetite. All afflicted with headache would do well to procure the article and relieve themselves from so distressing a complaint.

Physicians have in many instances given it to their patients, and in every instance, to our knowledge, with great satisfaction have found it a certain cure. Sick and Nervous Headache is a complaint with which physicians do not wish to have any thing to do, and generally present only for temporary relief; consequently Dr. Sphon's Sick Head ache Remedy escapes the opposition which some other proprietary articles meet from that source. Try it once and you never will regret it. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and contains no mineral, or poisonous drug of any kind, and does not require any change of diet or exercise.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher-street N. Y., and by the principal Druggists in the Union, Sold here by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10. "We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & Co. the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputed to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere. We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her physiognomy, and who, considering that they betokened a most miserable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after 5 years' fruitless resort to misallied restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now rings in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not pulling down the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have, now, through of virtue, hair enough, and of a possible quality, its own."

DARING FRAUD. The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased, or used unless it have the name of D. S. COMSTOCK & CO. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

TO THE BALD-HEADED. This is to certify, that I have been told about twenty years, and by those of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village, The above article I bought at Griswold, Case & Co's store, who had it from Comstock & Co.

JOHN JAGUSH, Jr. Delhi, July 17, 1839.—Sold by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

DR. BARTHOLOMEW'S PINK EXPECTORANT SYRUP.

THE cases of consumption are so numerous in all the Southern latitudes, that some remedy as a preventive should be kept by every family constantly on hand, to administer in the first appearance of a dry cough. This Expectorant Syrup will in every case prevent the complaint. It is so impossible for any person ever to have consumption who will use this remedy in the first approach of cough and pain in the side, and in many instances it has cured when physicians had given up the cases as incurable.

Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher-street N. Y., and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

JUDGE PATTERSON. Read the following from Judge Patterson, for thirty years the first Judge of the County in which he lives.

Middletown, N. J., March 12, 1840.

Messrs. Comstock & Co. Gentlemen—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificate as you deem will best subserve the purposes for which it is intended.

[CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE PATTERSON.] I hereby certify that my daughter has been afflicted with sick headache for the space of about 20 years, the attacks occurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time the paroxysms have been so severe, as apparently to render her almost insensible. And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Sphon's Headache Remedy as sold by you; and to the great disappointment and joy of herself and all her friends, she has found relief from the first dose of the medicine. She has followed up the directions with the article, and in every case when an attack was threatened has found immediate relief, and she is now permanently cured. The sticks are now very golden, and disappear almost immediately after taking the quantity directed. A hope that others may be benefited by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your obedient servant.

J. H. PATTERSON. Judge of the Court of C. P. Sold by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

LOOK OUT! "CAUTION" is the Parent of Safe y.

AN ATTACK of the "PILES" may be positive ly prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT. There are more than one hundred people in the city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach: of this there is the most patient proof.

None Genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. written on the wrapper.

SOLOMON HAYS. Sold at No. 2, Fletcher street, N. Y. and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

HEWE'S NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT.

THIS article is offered to the public as a never failing cure for the Rheumatism, and it has for a number of years sustained its reputation, and accomplished cures which had defied the power of every other article. In acute and recent cases, the relief is instantaneous, after one or two applications of the Liniment, and in chronic Rheumatism, the cases of cure are numerous. It is truly a remedy that reaches the nerve and bone with the most happy effect.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street N. Y., and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

HAVE YOU A COUGH?—Do not neglect it!—Thousands have met a premature death, or the want of a little attention to a common cold. Have you a cough?—Rev. Dr. Bartholomew's Expectorant Syrup, a safe medical prescription containing no poisonous drugs, and used in an extensive practice for several years, will most positively afford relief, and save you from that awful disease pulmonary consumption, which usually sweeps into the grave, hundreds of the young, the old, the fair, the lovely and the gay. Have you a cough?—Be persuaded to purchase a bottle of this Expectorant Syrup to-day! Tomorrow may be too late. Have you a cough? Bartholomew's Expectorant Syrup is the only remedy you should take to cure you.

For this plain reason:—That in no one of the thousand cases where it has been used, has it failed to relieve.

For sale at the drug store of Comstock & Co. 2 Fletcher-st. near Pearl, and at nearly all respectable Drug Stores.—and Dr. McSTAY, St. Andrews.

ASK, INQUIRE—ASK THOSE WHO KNOW.

THOSE ONLY WHO KNOW BY TRIAL and immediate observation, can form any idea of the effects, of the perfect relief, of the almost charm like cures effected in cases of the RHEUMATISM, ALL SWELLINGS, and ALL EXTERNAL PAINS, no matter how severe, by the use of Hays' Liniment. Find one who has used it that will not let it abide all things ever used, and you will find what cannot be found.

For the relief of suffering human beings who may be afflicted, I beg you to ask—ask of those who know—ask MATTHEW J. MYERS, Esq. Athens N. Y.; ask Gen. DUFF GREEN, late of Washington city, each of these gentlemen know of cases unnumberable by all other remedies or physicians, though tried for many years, that have been cured by the use of the genuine HAYS' LINIMENT. Thousands of other persons know similar cures. We appeal to their sense of justice—their humanity.

It is but a duty you owe to your suffering fellow beings to let this great remedy be known. Speak of it then to all your friends. This will save much pain where the newspapers are not read, or where readers are incredulous, because so many worthless articles are advertised for the same purpose. To buyers we say, if all who have used it do not say it is beyond all praise, then do not take it. The proprietor will not allow this article to be sold for less than cost, when all the directions are fully followed. Will any one suffering refuse now to try it? If he does he ought to be put more for his suffering than his suffering.

Mr. Hays would never consent to offer this article for less than cost, he is not in the power for the victims of distress and misery. For this purpose he would sooner devote a fortune, than secure a dollar for any worthless article.

LOOK OUT!—Some good lives have been sacrificed to this article, and put it up with extreme caution. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO.; that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you, and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

WHO WILL GO BALD?

Read the following:—ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late of Philadelphia, has written, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen. The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by S. J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling out of hair, but also a certain restorative.

WM. THATCHER, senior, Methodist Minister in Saint George charge, No. 86 North Fifth street.

John P. Inglis, 331 Arch street, John D. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race street, Hugh S. Furey, 101 Spruce street, Hugh McCurdy, 243 South 7d street, John Gard, Junior, 123 Arch street.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 60 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

[From the Mayor.] Commonweal of Pennsylvania. City of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J. P. Inglis, John S. Furey, Hugh McCurdy, and John Gard, and that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, to the [S.] sixth day of December, 1840.
