

purpose of examining students, granting certificates of licence, and doing such other business as may properly come before them.

14. All persons, who have been constantly engaged for any period less than two years in established office practice, next preceding the passing of this act, in the profession of Dentistry, shall be entitled to a certificate of Licentiate of Dental Surgery, upon their furnishing to the said Board, satisfactory proof of their having been so engaged, and upon passing the required examination, and upon payment of such fees as may be authorized and fixed by the said Board, for the payment of which the Treasurer's receipt shall be sufficient evidence ; and all persons, who have been constantly engaged for two years and upwards, next preceding the passing of this act in established office practice of Dentistry, shall upon such proof as aforesaid, and upon the payment of the fees as aforesaid, be entitled to such certificate of Licentiate of Dental Surgery, without passing any examination, provided always that any persons being British subjects by birth or naturalization not being in established office practice for two years prior to the passing of this act shall be exempt from the operation of this clause if they possess a diploma from any recognised Dental Institution authorized to grant diplomas.

15. The said Board shall, at its first meeting, and from time to time thereafter, make such rules, regulations and by-laws as may be necessary for the proper and better guidance, government and regulation of said Board, and admission to, and practice of the said profession of Dentistry, and as to the mode of conducting the election of its members from time to time and not inconsistent with this act ; such rules, regulations and by-laws may be amended, altered or repealed by a majority of the whole Board.

16. Every person desirous of being examined by the said Board, touching his qualifications for the practice of the profession of Dentistry, shall, at least, one month before the sittings of said Board, pay into the hands of the Treasurer the required fees, and enclose and deliver to the Secretary the Treasurer's receipt for the same, together with satisfactory evidence of his apprenticeship, integrity and good morals, in such manner as may be prescribed by the rules, regulations and by-laws of said Board.

17. If the Board be satisfied by the examination that the person is duly qualified to practise the profession of Dentistry, and be further satisfied that he is a person of integrity and good moral character, they shall grant him a certificate of licence, and the title of Licentiate of Dental Surgery, which certificate and title shall entitle him to all the rights and privileges of this act, until such time as the Board shall be satisfied that he has been guilty of acts detrimental to the interests of the profession, when he shall forfeit his certificate and title, and it shall be cancelled ; such forfeiture may, however, be removed, and the said certificate of license, and all rights and privileges thereunder, fully revived by the said Board, in such a manner and upon such conditions and terms as may seem expedient to said Board.
