HOW TIPTOES CARRIED A LETTER.

Little Mary and her kitten, Tiptoes, were very fond of each other; and when Mary had to be sent to her uncle's, four miles away from home, one of the hardest things for her to do was to part with kitty.

A few days after she had left home, as she was walking slowly toward school one morning, what should she see in the road a few feet from her but Tiptoes, trotting straight toward her uncle's house! She ran and caught her up in her arms, and laughed and almost cried at the same time.

But this was not the strangest part of what Tiptoes did, for kittens often find their way over long distances. When Mary returned from school that night, she wrote a letter to her mamma, telling her of the kitten's adventure; and then tied the letter with a ribbon around Tiptoes' neck, and told her that she must go back home and carry the letter to mamma. And what do you suppose, for this is a true story? Why, kittie carried the letter straight home to mamma, and Mary soon got a letter telling her of its arrival.
