

of sufficient importance, so as to bring it into general use, particularly in the winter, it would perhaps be to the advantage of those who may practise it, to have their milk scalded in vessels calculated to stand in the kettle or boiler, by which mode the danger of burning the milk would be avoided, for it is ascertained that milk only burns on the edges of its surface, or where it comes in contact with the sides of the vessel in which it was heated, which can never happen in double kettles, or where one is placed within the other.

PORK IN WARM WEATHER—A friend informs us, and wishes the fact stated to our readers, that pork may be killed with perfect safety in warm weather, if, when harrowed down, a portion of ice, equal in quantity to the salt used, be sprinkled between the layers. The ice abstracts the animal heat, and prevents the pork from becoming injured by the warmth of the atmosphere, before it is sufficiently impregnated with salt to preserve it.

JAMES DAWSON.

JOHN O'GROAT'S INN.

THIS conveniently and beautifully situated accommodation for the public, has been recently fitted up and neatly furnished, by the subscriber, in the most comfortable manner. It has hitherto been known as the "Ten Mile Inn," that being its distance from the town of Pictou;—and its present occupier, in giving it a new designation, is confident in assuring travellers that even between the far famed "John O'Groat's and Maiden Kirk" there will not be found a house of entertainment wherein greater exertions are made for the accommodation of wayfarers. Private rooms are prepared for family parties, and for gentlemen sportsmen, who may feel disposed to fish the fine stream of the West River, which passes close by the Inn, or range the adjoining woods for game. The best description of Stabling is provided, and every convenience suited for such an Establishment can always be had at such moderate charges as will, upon trial, induce the traveller who has once visited the "John O'Groat's Inn" to repeat his call should he have future occasions of requiring the subscriber's services.

His friends in the District are respectfully informed that Dinners, &c. &c., & all kinds of Entertainment, are in readiness for them whenever he may be honored with their patronage.
