
A new pupil entered Grade VIII, Miss Laura Creighton, who is staying with her sister Mrs. Wall on Munro street.

History makes men wise, poetry witty, mathematics subtle, philosophy deep, morals grave, logic and rhetoric able to contend: nay there is no impediment in the wit but may be wrought out by fit study, where every defect of the mind has its proper remedy. Those that have the excellent faculty of using all they know, can never know too much.

Three of the largest bridges in the world are the Niagra Suspension Bridge, 821 feet span; the Covington and Cincinnati Bridge, 1057 ft; and the Brooklyn and New York Bridge, 1595 ft.

"Good Friday's all right enough," grumbled Tommy Tucker, tightening the strap that held his school books, "but if Easter would come on Monday once in a while I could have four straight holidays.—Sel.

"It's all very well for the minister to preach from the text: 'Remember Lot's wife,' said an overworked, discouraged matron, "but I wish he would now give us an encouraging sermon upon 'the wife's lot.'"—Sel.
