 Dear Sir: I took your Medical Discovery for one year for Scrofula on my knee. When I began I was told by the Doctors my limb would have to be amputated, but it cured me. Well, that was 13 years ago and no signs of it since. I thought you and the world ought to know it.

Yours very truly,

Sparkles.

MISS REDINGOTE: No, Aunt Brindle, I am not engaged. When I marry it will be a great man. Mrs. Brindle, (doubtfully): Well I dunno. You can't always tell how a man will turn out. Now there's Josiah. Miss Redingote: You don't mean to say Uncle Byindle has ever distinguished himself! Mrs. Brindle: Well, I'll tell you what he did. I sent him down to the store with a ribbon the other day, and he matched it!

"My brother had severe summer complaint about a year ago and no remedies seemed to relieve him. At last my aunt advised us to try Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and before he had taken one bottle he was entirely cured."

—ADELAIDE CRITTENDEN, Baldwin, Ont.

SHE to the Decorator: Yes, I want it very artistic, indeed. Something nice and baronial, Queen Anne and Elizabethan, and all that; kind of quaint Nuremberg, you know—regular old English, with French windows opening down to the lawn, colonial pillars, Venetian blinds, and Swiss balconies—you know what I mean.

MRS. GEORGE RENDLE, of Galt, Ontario, writes: "I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for it is a sure cure for all summer complaints. We are never without it in the house." Fowler's Wild Strawberry, Price 35c.

"Boil down this stuff about forests," said the managing editor, handing a bundle of manuscript to a reporter. A few seconds later, the editor received the following: "The way to preserve our forests—don't cut them down."

"In our family faithful work has been done by Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry as a sure and quick cure for diarrhoea, dysentery and all summer complaints. I can recommend it to all as a family friend, always true and faithful."—MRS. W. BISHOP, Vivian, Ont.

"Pray, Mr. Professor, what is a periphrasis?" "Madame, it is simply a circumlocutory cycle of oratorical sonorosity, circumscribing an atom of ideality, lost in verbal profundity." "Thank you, sir."

ROYAL GOFF, of Willsboro, N. Y., suffered two years from a hard cough, with severe pains in the side and chest, and raised large quantities of blood. Several physicians tried in vain to relieve him. Three bottles of WISTAR'S BAL-SAM OF WILD CHERRY cured him.

"WHAT did the editor offer you for your poem?" "Two dollars." "That was an insult. What did you say to him?" "Nothing. I simply pocketed the insult."

HENRY G. JAMES, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, writes: "For several years I was troubled with pimples and irritations of the skin. After other remedies failed I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and since then I have been quite free from my complaint. B. B. B. will always occupy a place in my house."

NERVOUS PASSENGER: And you are sure there is no danger, officer? Officer: Not a bit. The captain's just gone to take a nap because it's too foggy to see anything.

"I have great faith in Burdock Blood Bitters as a blood purifier. I have taken three bottles for bad blood and find it a perfect cure. It is a grand medicine and I recommend it wherever I go."—IDA SANDERSON, Toronto, Ont.

"I engaged," said a burly lawyer, "a chaise at Galway to conduct me some few miles into the country, and had proceeded some distance, when it came to a sudden stand-still at the beginning of a rather steep incline, and the coachman, leaping to the ground, came to the door and opened it. 'What are you at, man? This is not where I ordered you to stop. Has the animal balked?' 'Whisht, yer honour, whisht!' said Paddy, in an undertone, 'I'm only desavenging the sly baste. I'll just bang the door, and the crafty,ould cratur will think he's intirely got rid of yer honour's splendid form, and he'll be at the top of the hill in no time.'"

"I WAS induced to use your Burdock Blood Bitters for constipation and general debility and found it a complete cure which I take pleasure in recommending to all who may be thus afflicted."—JAMES M. CARSON, Banff, N.-W.T.

CEYLON TEA COMPANY WHAT "THE TIMES" OF CEYLON

Says of this Company, May 4th, 1880.

"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khangani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and, in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."

This is indisputable evidence that this COMPANY is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.
