Year's Record in Our Schools

Closing of Various Catholic Educational Institutions for the Summer Holidays—the Prize Lists.

A great deal of the space of the Register is reserved to day for the school lists. It is always a pleasure to record the work of the year in our different institutions of education, and the parents, as well as all friends of Catholic education, must share in the feeling of pride inspired by the gratifying evidence of efficient competition and healthy progress which these lists annually afford.

ST JOSEPH'S ACADEMY, TORONTO.

The Forty-fourth Annual Commencement of St Joseph's Academy, Toronto, was held on Thursday, the 19th, before an assembly of the city clergy, the following being present: Very Rev. J. McCann, V.G., Very Rev. P. H. Barrett, C.S.S.R., Very Rev. V. Marjion, C.S.B., Rev. F. Frachon, C.S.B., Rev. L. Brennan, C.S.B., Rev. M. Ganon, C.S.S.R., Rev. L. Murray, C.S.B., Rev. A. Dumouchel, C.S.B.; Rev. L. Mincham, Rev. F. Granoller, C.S.B., Rev. J. J. McEntee, Rev. F. Burke, C.S.B.

The concert hall was prettily decorated for the occasion and the stage presented a refreshing picture with its tiers of students in convent uniform in the centre stood Miss M. Power, the graduate of 1902, who in her white gown and gold wreath of graduation formed a pleasing contrast, and accompanying her was a dainty little maid of honor carrying a bouquet of white roses. The whole was framed in by an archway of green foliage and fragrant white Syringa blossoms.

The programme was, as usual, short but exquisite in point of selection and displayed the skill and taste of the youthful performers. Among the numbers was a recitation by Miss M. Power, who shows marked talent as an elocutionist. At the close the Very Reverend Vicar-General addressed the pupils, congratulating them on their hard-won honors and bestowing upon them much praise for the delightful entertainment they had afforded. He concluded his address with some words of encouragement for the future and good wishes for a pleasant holiday season.

The reception hall was filled with exhibits from the different art departments of the Academy. Among the beautiful collection in embroidery the work of the Gold Medalist, Miss Clara Leacy, was conspicuous and very varied, being designs in Kensington, Nuremberg and bullion. A dainty fire-screen of orchids upon a white satin ground, the work of Miss M. Foy, was much admired; also a cushion, upon which was embroidered the convent crest, the work of Miss O. McKinnon. In the exhibit of paintings were some extremely pretty water-color sketches and pen-drawings, which displayed much talent. The Ceramic work also received due attention and merited much commendation. Miss Clara Leacy and Miss M. McDonald distinguished themselves in this department, also Miss S. Flannigan, who was awarded a prize for China painting. Too much cannot be said in praise of the display of point lace, both in point of delicacy and artistic design—among so much that was beautiful, perhaps the most to be admitted was the work of Miss F. Meehan.

The following is the programme:
 Christ—The Angel—Rubenstein
 AWARDING OF MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS
 Instrumental Solo—"Am Bach's"—Hilfenberg
 The Misses Gartlan, Carty, Conlon, Priddy, Brunelle, Meehan, Heinfick and Clarke

 Recitation—"The Legend Beautiful"—Miss Power
 DISTRIBUTION OF DIPLOMAS IN JUNIOR DEPARTMENT
 Instrumental Solo—"Valse de Concert"—Wienlawski
 The Misses Noble, Urlocker, Murphy, and Martin
 Chorus—"Sunshine and Rain"—Blumenthal-Lyne
 DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES IN SENIOR DEPARTMENT
 Hymn—"Thanksgiving to the Sacred Heart"

On Friday morning at eight o'clock the closing High Mass was celebrated in the Convent Chapel. There is a beauty in solemnity about such a closing which cannot fail to make a deep impression upon those who take part in it, the grandeur about this magnificent thank-offering, which has not a parallel.

In the Sanctuary upon this occasion were Rev. F. Frachon, C.S.B., celebrant, Rev. L. Murray, Rev. J. Sullivan, deacon; Rev. F. Foster, sub-deacon; Mr. Pickett and Mr. Plourde. The pupils sang a Choral Mass in two parts, rendering it in full rich measure, with much devotion and sweetness.
