

Salvation is purchased. We urge him to this as a privilege because he is saved. God, by His Son, hath opened unto us the gate of everlasting life. Jesus, when He had endured for us the sharpness of the cherubim's sword, opened a way for us into the Holiest by His own precious blood. We heartily and ex animo believe every title of our 31st Article. Our works follow after our justification; and they make faith a train, not her fore-runner, on her way to glory—(Rev. 14, 13.) Paul urges us, being justified freely by God's grace to be careful to maintain good works, because these things are good and profitable unto men.—(Titus 3, 7, 8.) When we have done the utmost possible for us to do, our motto must still be, "By the Grace of God I am that I am; and His Grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the Grace of God which was with me." Hast thou freely received? then freely give. Hast thou obtained mercy? then shew mercy. The goodness and the goods of man are all derived from God, and should be extended to his brethren. See Ps. 16, 2, 3, in both Versions. Receiving both equally as the free gift of Heaven, let us turn to earth, to bless it with the reflected light and heat.

The Lord Bishop intends to leave Town on Monday for a Visitation westward, and will hold a Confirmation at Hubbard's Cove on Tuesday. Following the Coast until he reaches Digby, His Lordship on return via Annapolis, will be at Windsor, in time for the Eucenia.

A fire broke out on the night of Tuesday last, in one of these bad houses with which Barrack street is infected, which was burnt down along with three or four contiguous buildings.

The Form of Service for the Fast Day, will be printed in small pamphlet form, and sold by Wm. Gossip, 24 Granville Street.

ERRATUM in Editorial, "Church Times," April 21, column 2, line 10: for "seems to our mind," read "recurs to our mind."

Holloway's Pills, an unfailing Remedy for all disorders of the chest and lungs.—Oliver Thomson, of Kingston, C. W. was certainly in a most deplorable state of health ten weeks ago; his lungs, so the doctors told him, were completely gone, his chest, and in fact his body generally, had scarcely an atom of flesh on it, so thin and he became. In addition to this, he had a cough which completely shook him to pieces (these are his own words); he is a just informed Professor Holloway, that all these complaints have been removed by Holloway's Pills, after he had used them seven weeks and two days, and to now feels better than ever he did in his life. These Pills will readily remove all diseases of the stomach and bowels.

MEMORANDA.

INFORMATION FOR MARINERS.—The Keeper of the Highland Light, Cape Cod, states that the sand bars extend further from the shore than formerly, and cautions Mariners against approaching too near, a brig recently got upon one about four miles north of Highland Light. On the 5th a ship got on near the same spot, and on the 7th a steamer. They all got off after being exposed several hours. The Keeper notices many vessels passing along the back of the Cape, having very little water under their keels.
