

2. No one shall be a member of the Council unless he—

(a.) resides in the Province for which he is an appointed or elected member;

(b.) is a duly registered member of the medical profession according to the law of the Province which he represents;

(c.) is duly registered as a medical practitioner in the register established under the provisions of this Act; but this qualification shall not be required of any of the members originally composing the Council;

3. No Province shall be represented upon the Council either by appointed or elected members until the Legislature of the Province has enacted in effect that registration of the Council shall be accepted as equivalent to registration for the like purpose under the laws of the Province; and when all the Provinces of Canada have legislated in effect as foresaid, it shall be lawful to appoint and elect, in the manner aforesaid, the members of the Council.

Provided, however, that if any of said legislatures afterwards repeals its legislation contemplated by this section, no more persons shall be given the right to practice medicine within the jurisdiction of such legislature, by reason of their qualification or registration under this Act.

7. The term of office for appointed members shall be four years.

2. Members elected by Provincial medical councils shall remain in office during the term of office of the members of the medical council of the Province for which they are elected.

3. All other members shall be elected for four years.

4. Any member may at any time tender his resignation by written notice thereof to the president or to the secretary of the Council. Upon the acceptance of such resignation by the Council, the Council shall forthwith give notice in writing thereof, in case of an appointed member to the Secretary of State of Canada, and, in case of an elected member, to the secretary of the medical council for the Province, or to any university, incorporated medical school or college, or to the president or the secretary of any recognized distinct school of practice of medicine represented, which such member represents.

5. Any person who is or has been a member may, if properly qualified, be re-appointed or re-elected; but no person shall at one time serve as a member in more than one capacity.

6. In the case of members of the Council whose term of office is about to expire, successors may be appointed or elected at any time within three months before the expiration of such term; provided that where any vacancy exists in the membership of the Council, by reason of any term of office having expired or otherwise, such vacancy may be filled at any time.
