

OUR PRAYER MEETING.

BY REV A. C. THOMPSON, D.D.

- I. I purpose to be there regularly and punctually.
" Not forsaking the assembling of our selves together."

II. I will endeavor to draw others to the meeting.
" Come thou with us, and we will do the good."

III. Before entering the place of prayer, I will ask the Saviour's presence.
" We would see Jesus."

IV. I will not, unless it is necessary, occupy a back seat.
" How pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

V. I will not so soon myself as to hinder others from occupying the same seats with me.
" Be courteous."

VI. I will restrain from fault-finding, and will not indulge a censorious spirit.
" Be ye kindly affectioned one to another."

VII. I will not expressly dissent from one who has spoken, and will avoid giving the impression of variance of feeling.
" That they may be made perfect in one."

VIII. So far as is consistent, I will assist actively in the exercises, by testifying to the love of Christ, by exhortation, by a passage of Scripture, a hymn, a stanza, or otherwise.

" Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs."

IX. I will not decline to lend in prayer, and in offering prayer will begin with the subject in hand, and in aid of what has just been said.

" Yo also helping together by prayer for us."

X. If I offer the first prayer, it shall be chiefly an invocation, asking the Saviour's special presence and aid.

" For without me ye can do nothing."

XI. My prayers and remarks shall not be long.

" For God is in heaven, and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words be few."

XII. I will not seem to interrupt or trench in prayer, as though I were thinking of more than of God.
" We speak before God in Christ."

XIII. I will not speak merely to fill a vacancy, but will rather offer prayer during pauses in the meeting.

" That thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly."

XIV. I will not needlessly expose any want of faith, and discouragements.

" Who is fearful and faint-hearted, let him return."

XV. I will cultivate enlargement of faith and desires.

" Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace."

XVI. On leaving the place I will endeavor to maintain a devout frame of mind.

" Continue in prayer."

XVII. I will endeavor to use all means suited to secure the blessings for which I have prayer.

" Faith without works is dead also.

MASSACRE OF WHITE MEN.

Advices from San Francisco to the Fiji inst. report that later advices had been received from the Fiji Islands, giving particulars of another massacre of white men on one of the Fiji Islands by the natives, a large number of whom had been kidnapped from Salomon Island. It appears that while a party of forty of those kidnapped indians were being conveyed on board a schooner from Sevula to a plantation, they suddenly attacked four white men, named Warburton, Whitaker, Keystone, and Robinson, and a Fijian planter who had them in charge, clopped them all to pieces with their hatchets, and after wards threw their escape in safety. Another tragedy was also reported from the Salomon Islands. The captain and crew of the barque Cambria, which was cruising among the islands in search of native laborers, having gone ashore on one of the islands, were attacked by the natives, who cut the captain and one of the sailors to pieces, the remainder of the crew succeeding in reaching the barque and clearing away just in time to escape the swarm of canoes which put off from the shore, full of armed natives. The United States sloop-of-war S. Mary was at Savuva for the purpose of protecting American interests and seeing that the rights of free labor were not transgressed. The question of the infamous manner in which the Fiji islanders were constantly being entrapped and kidnapped had been laid before the New Zealand General Assembly, which had adopted a memorial requesting the Imperial Government to put a stop to the uncontrolled traffic in native labor at Fiji and at other islands of the South Pacific.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

We are indebted to our brethren of the Press for numerous kindly notices, from among which we publish the following:

The enterprise will be shortly met with a hearty support.—Entire Planet.

It will no doubt supply a full want, and be a useful addition to the press.

It is a good looking sheet and we expect just for it a large circulation.—New York Free Press.

We are glad to see that the organ of the Presbyterian Church, our dear brothers in Christ, is now connected with us.

The Presbytery is now connected with the Christian Advocate.

It presents a very creditable appearance, and we hope it will be well received by our friends.

The new paper is well printed, carefully edited, and contains much that is of interest to every Presbyterian.

In our opinion it is vital a Presbyterian journal should be established, with other nations journalizing over us.

It is a laudable scheme, and if the promise of the author is fulfilled, it may become quite a useful and popular religious journal.

Irish Express.

It represents a good cause, and we hope it will be well received by every Presbyterian.
