DRY - GOODS.Our new Warehouses, | T. JAMES CLAXTON & CO., ST. JOSEPH ST. | MONTREAL.Mercantile Summary.The population of Cobourg is 5,278 against 5,009 last year.BRANTFORD is to be inaugurated as city on the 31st instant, and great preparations for festivity are being made.FIFTEEN thousand musk-rat skins were sold at eight cents each, in Port Rowan on Tuesday last.On the 9th, of May last year, there were no vessels in Quebec harbor, but on Wednesday last over a hundred had arrived, and 10,000 tons of coal formed part of their cargo.The Kingston Marine Railway, which is of considerable value to that city, is unfortunately in financial trouble. Its proprietors, Messrs.
W. Power & Co., have found it necessary to assign. We trust that arrangements will be made whereby the usefulness of the railway will be continued to the city.The contract for building the graving dock at Quebec has been signed by Messrs. Peters, Moore and Wright. The total amount of the contract is $618,000, of which the dredging will cost $220,000.The Shambles in the Upper Town market, Quebec, which has been in existence for the past forty years, were closed on the 3rd instant, and a handsome new market outside St. John Gate has been opened.A writ of attachment has been served by Mr. George Tait, on the Harbour Tug Co., a chartered company for the purpose of towing vessels in the Montreal harbour. As far as can be gleaned at present the affairs of the Company are in bad shape. The liabilities amount to about $20,000, of which, $11,000 is secured.
The assets will realize little if anything it is thought, beyond the secured claims.
